

Sandy Schauer – Bio

Sandy Schauer has been a journalist as her vocation but her avocation is racquetball. She and her husband, Bob Anderson, stay in shape by playing this vigorous sport several times a week. Additionally, Sandy serves as treasurer of the IRF World Senior Racquetball Tournament which draws more than 100 participants from around the world to Albuquerque every year the week before Labor Day. She represents racquetball on the board of the Senior Sports Foundation where she utilizes her journalistic skills filling the position of Secretary. She is proud to be a member of this great group which focuses on making more sports accessible to seniors.

Sandy and Bob also enjoy traveling, especially on Amtrak trains! In May 2017, the couple traveled 5,000 miles in 18 days including riding the Amtrak Auto Train from Sanford, Florida, to Lorton, Virginia.

Sandy has written several books ranging from fiction about her family living in Bayonne, New Jersey, in the 19th century to a memoir about dealing with her sister's death from ovarian cancer.

She looks forward to her continued work on expanding senior sports in the Albuquerque area, visiting new sights, and dabbling in her love of writing.
