

The d'Art Center offers three different partnership options for artists; Resident Artist, Associate Artist, and Artist Vendor. All of our artists participate in meaningful community outreach programming, are promoted through d'Art's digital and print media campaigns, sell work onsite and through our online store, participate in offsite d'Art installations, and are part of a collaborative atmosphere of other professional working artists. Artist volunteerism is required at d'Art Center from all of our artists. This component, as well as commission rates will be discussed during the interview process.*

Resident Artist : Resident artists have an onsite studio space in The Center which is located in Norfolk's NEON District. Studio rent is determined by the square footage. These professional artists create and sell original artworks that represent a variety of media and aesthetics. Artists interested in becoming a Resident Artist will go through a jury and interview process with the Executive Director and staff.

Associate Artist : Associate Artists have an onsite display/gallery space in the Associate Artist Gallery in The Center, which is located in Norfolk's NEON District. Rent on these spaces is determined by the square footage. These professional artists create and sell original artworks that represent a variety of media and aesthetics. Artists interested in becoming an Associate Artist will go through a jury and interview process with the Executive Director and staff.

Artist Vendor : Artist vendors have a space in our store in The Center, which is located in Norfolk's NEON District. Rent on these spaces is determined by the size. Artist vendors include handmade craft and artisan vendors, as well as fine art vendors. Artists interested in becoming a Vendor will go through a jury and interview process with the Executive Director and staff.
