

Steve Lobb

Sometimes in life circumstances beyond our control put us in less than desirable situations, at no fault of our own and it can happen to anyone. At those times everyone deserves a “hand up”, not a “hand out”; a basic tenet of our agency. This serves as my motivation to do all I can for those that need help and I am very proud to do my part (albeit a small one) for an agency that provides so much to so many.

My grandfather, Joe Farnsworth, is one of my hero's. He taught me many, many life lessons, was always there for me, instilled values in me that will be with me forever, and he always did it with a smile!

In my spare time I enjoy cycling.
