Immaculate Conception Parish Mission

To proclaim the good news of the Gospel; to build community among the parishioners that we may journey in our faith together, giving witness to love and unity; to serve the needs of others in whatever form they may exit in our midst and to celebrate the realities of our faith together.

St. Patrick Parish Mission

As a church community here at St. Patrick, we want to know, love and serve Jesus in our efforts in: Christian formation/faith development; worship; social services; and stewardship of resources.

Grateful for Being Grateful

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Here is a quick self-test: Name three things in your life for which you are grateful. Finished? If you were able to name three things easily, your spirituality is probably in a good place. If you had difficulty, your spirituality may be in need of some work. Spiritual writers have long noted that living day by day with a sense of gratitude is one of the signs of holiness. Yet, a number of attitudes can get in the way of our being thankful. One is anger; it unsettles and focuses our attention on one issue, keeping us from seeing a bigger picture filled with blessings. Another is living with continual wanting; incessant desires for more prevent us from recognizing the beauty and goodness of what already is. Fear too keeps us from being grateful; it obliterates all the goodness that is present and focuses on an unknown and uncertain future that may never be.

Therapists have advised that, at the end of each day, people should take time to name three things that happened that day for which they are grateful, as doing so will often ease depression. Our religious tradition has been encouraging this for 2,000 years. Not all depression is due to life circumstances; some is the result of chemical or hormonal imbalances. But, if our sadness is the consequence of life events, naming three positive occurrences from each day not only brings a balance to our attitudes but also brings us to deeper faith, recognizing a power greater than ourselves at work in our lives. That power is God. ●

Reflect

What are three reasons I have for gratitude?
What blessings do I forget?

Jesus said...“Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?”

Dear Padre,

Are people born with the Holy Spirit, or do they have to be baptized in order to receive the Holy Spirit? If we are not born with the Holy Spirit, is it just our conscience that is bothered when we are doing wrong?

Your question is suggesting that the Holy Spirit is “in” or “out.” St. Paul teaches us, “In him we live and move and have our being” (Acts 17:28). In other words, the Spirit of God is always with us, and we are dependent on that Spirit for life. There is no beginning and there is no end; the Spirit always was, and is, and will be.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains that “Conscience is a judgment of reason whereby the human person recognizes the moral quality of a concrete act that he is going to perform, is in the process of performing, or has already completed. In all he says and does, man is obliged to follow faithfully what he knows to be just and right” (1778). We have an obligation to form our consciences to know what is right and to help our children form theirs. It is with the cooperation of the Spirit that a “good conscience” is formed.

When we celebrate the sacraments, including the sacrament of baptism, we are confirming the life of the Spirit that is within is. We are acknowledging and proclaiming the abiding presence of the Spirit of God. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

The deepest purpose of the Church's social doctrine [is] a contribution to peace and dialogue in the service of building bridges of universal fraternity.... [T]he Risen Lord always goes before us, even at times when injustice and death seem to prevail. Let us...“build bridges through dialogue and encounter, joining together as one people, always at peace.”

ADDRESS, ROME, MAY 17, 2025

WIKICOMMONS

Pope Leo XIV's Prayer Intention for October

For collaboration between different religious traditions
Let us pray that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice and human fraternity.

Pastor Appreciation Day October 12, 2025

Today we celebrate Pastor Appreciation Day! It is a time to honor those who are priests, especially our priest, Father Ernest.

Thank you, Fr. Ernest, for everything you do for our parishes! We are so blessed you are here!

Thank You For Your Prayers

Geoff Brueggen who has been on our Prayer List and son of Eugene John (Gene) and Annie Brueggen, died peacefully at his home on Sunday, October 5th. Geoff (38) leaves behind his wife Elise, daughter Tabitha (7) and son Athanasius Jones (A.J. 4). It was a long and difficult battle that started with colon cancer that ended....well! As Gene put it “We know where our son is”. Again, thank you for your prayers.

Dottie Brueggen

Meal-a-Month

Thank you to all parishioners who donated items for the Meal-a-month bags. The Crisis Closet is in need of canned corn and green beans, jiffy cornbread mix and paper products this month. They use these items for their senior bags. Our next collection will be October 25/26. We will be passing out the bags after Mass. Thank you Immaculate Conception for helping those in need.

Society of St. Vincent dePaul Rummage Sale

Society of St. Vincent dePaul will be having a Rummage Sale at the Knights of Columbus Hall on November 15, 2025 from 8:00 AM to 3:00 PM. If you would like to donate items to SSVDP to sell please contact Dianne Talley at 573-590-3158. The profits from this will be a donation to SSVDP to help with the ongoing needs of the community.

We will also be selling spaces for $10.00. You will be responsible for selling your items and taking care of your space.

~Thank you!

Message from Ms. Schroeder

Grandparents’ Day 2025 was a HUGE hit! We heard so many compliments from grandparents and students. Thank you to Home and School for providing an amazing lunch. Thank you to all the parents who sent in brownies for dessert! We appreciate you!

Classroom party lists have been sent out. If you did not receive one for your child, please check ClassDojo for the link to the list. If you are not able to fulfill your obligation on your assigned item, please contact your child’s classroom teacher. We want to make sure all classroom items are taken care of for all classes. Thanks!

Picture Day is Tuesday, Oct. 7. Please dress your child in their regular uniform. The link and code to order pictures has been sent home. If you have any questions, please contact the office.

Achievement Testing is next week, October 7-10. Please check the classroom party list to check to see if your child is signed up to provide a snack for the class. Please make sure your child is getting a great night sleep, eats breakfast, and is ready to do their best on the test. Thank you to those who are sending in snacks; the students and teachers truly appreciate your help!

Oct. 30 is the Little Bit of Heaven Party. All students have been researching a saint. The students will come to school dressed as their saint on Oct. 30. This can be as easy or hard as you would like. Many students have had costumes consisting of robes, oversized T-shirts, bed sheets, curtains, kitchen towel, rope, etc. Please do not feel obligated to go buy costumes. If you need help, please let us know. After the parties, we will be going to Rooster’s Farm. Please complete the digital permission form that will be sent out soon.

Please remember to sign up to be part of a Home and School Committee. A link was sent out via text message to fill out a Google Form for the committees. We need parents to help out on these committees to make these events a success for your children and provide funds to improve our school. Your help is NEEDED!

Important Dates:

- Oct. 7- ICS School Picture Day
- Oct. 7-10- ICS Achievement Testing Week
- Oct. 17- End of the 1st Quarter
- Oct. 22- MCHD Flu Clinic at ICS
