Types of Information Collected

In order to better provide you with our products and services, we collect two types of information about our users: Personally Identifiable Information and Non-Personally Identifiable Information. Our primary goal in collecting information from you is to provide you with an effective and efficient experience while using our site.

Personally Identifiable Information: This refers to information that lets us know the specifics of who you are and how you may be contacted. When you engage in certain activities on this site, such as filling out online forms, we may ask you to provide certain information about yourself. It is completely optional for you to engage in these activities. If you elect to engage in these activities, however, we may ask that you provide us personal information, such as your first and last name, mailing address, e-mail address, telephone numbers, and other personal identifying information. When ordering products on this site, you may be asked to provide a credit card number. Depending upon the activity, some of the information we request is identified as mandatory and some as voluntary. If you do not provide the mandatory data with respect to a particular activity, you will not be able to engage in that activity.

Non-Personally Identifiable Information: This refers to information that does not by itself identify a specific individual. We gather certain information in several ways, based upon which areas of the site you visit. This information is compiled and analyzed on both a personal and an aggregated basis. This information may include the website's URL that you just came from, which URL you next visit, what browser you are using, and your Internet Protocol (IP) address.

Collection, Use, and Release of Information

We do not collect any Personally Identifiable Information about you unless you voluntarily provide it to us. You provide certain Personally Identifiable Information to us when you input and submit your information through our online forms. We will primarily use your Personally Identifiable Information to provide our services to you. We will, from time to time, send you e-mail regarding our services.

Information you provide to us is used for its intended purpose and may be shared with other outside agencies, organizations, or individuals without the customer's permission. If you wish that The Granted Wish Foundation not share your contact information, e-mail us at info@grantedwish.org or write to us at The Granted Wish Foundation, 7749 Supreme Ave. NW, North Canton, Ohio 44720.

Security of Information

At our site, you can be assured that your Personally Identifiable Information is secured, consistent with this policy and current industry standards. The importance of security for all Personally Identifiable Information associated with our user is of utmost concern to us. In addition, your Personally Identifiable Information resides on a secure server that only selected The Granted Wish Foundation personnel and contractors have access via password. We encrypt your Personally Identifiable Information and thereby prevent unauthorized parties from viewing such information when it is electronically transmitted to us.

Unfortunately, no data transmission over the Internet or any wireless network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. As a result, while we strive to protect your Personally Identifiable Information, you acknowledge that: (1) there are security and privacy limitations of the Internet which are beyond our control; (2) the security, integrity and privacy of any and all information and data exchanged between you and us through this site cannot be guaranteed; and (3) any such information and data may be viewed or tampered with in transit by a third party, acting illegally.

You must be at least 18 years old to have our permission to use this site. Our policy is that we do not knowingly collect, use or disclose Personally Identifiable Information about visitors that are under 18 years of age. We are committed to protecting the privacy of children, and this site is not intended or designed to attract individuals under the age of 18.

Legal Enforcement

The Granted Wish Foundation fully cooperates with law enforcement agencies in identifying those who use our services for illegal activities. We reserve the right to release information about individuals who we believe to be in violation of our content guidelines, and to report to law enforcement agencies any activities which we reasonably believe to be unlawful. Under certain circumstances, we may be legally obligated to disclose information to the government or third parties under certain circumstances and you hereby authorize us to make such disclosures as permitted by applicable law.
