

Pomella, Rosemary

Rosemary M. Pomella, 90, of Caseville died Friday evening, June 21, 2002, at her home while under hospice care. She was born Oct. 20, 1911 in Detroit to the late William and Margaret (O'Donoghue) Barnes. On June 15, 1936, she was united in marriage to Francis "CAP" Pomella in Bowling Green, Ohio. He preceded her in death March 29, 1986. She and Cap raised their family on the west side of Detroit and had been visiting Caseville since they were married. They moved from Westland to live here permanently after her husband retired in April 1973. Rosemary had been a very active member of St. Roch Catholic Church and Women Society. She liked to travel, dance and visit with friends and family. Surviving are two children, Carolyn of Clinton Township, and David of Brighton; eight grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and two brothers, William Barnes, and Jack Barnes and his wife, Marilyn, all of Livonia. Preceding her in death were her son, Jon; a sister, Patsy Page; and a brother, Charles Barnes. A funeral mass will be conducted at 11 a.m. Tuesday, June 25, 2002, at St. Roch Catholic Church in Caseville. The Rev. Fr. Kenneth Yaroch, pastor, will officiate with burial in the church cemetery. Visitation will be after 10 a.m. Tuesday at the church. Memorials may be given to United Hospice. Words of condolence may be sent to www.CFCCaseville.com.
