Hello Everyone,

The Fair is approaching fast and its all hands on deck .

More information will be coming soon.

Set up will be beginning so if you signed up for that I will be calling you.

Thanks again! Rose

Members please bring your finished pillowcases to the next meeting,
Also we need potholders & any items that we can sell at the fair. We also need more teddy bears.

Thank you
Cheryl Bundy

Programs

I hope everyone can come hear Suzanne Starjash present a trunk show of her art quilts for the July Meeting!

Parmesan Crusted Zucchini Wedges

Parmesan Crusted Zucchini Wedges are made with fresh zucchini that are cut into wedges, dipped in mayonnaise, then coated in seasoned panko breadcrumbs and Parmesan cheese.

Yield: 8 servings

Prep: 30 minutesCook: 30 minutesTotal: 1 hour

INGREDIENTS

8 small to medium zucchini	1 teaspoon dry oregano
1 cup panko breadcrumbs	1 teaspoon dry basil
1 cup freshly grated parmesan cheese	1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1 teaspoon kosher salt	1/4 cup mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper	2 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
2 teaspoons dry parsley	Cooking/pan spray

COPY INGREDIENTS

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Preheat oven to 375 degrees F with rack in top third of oven to help with browning.
2. Line a sheet tray with foil and fit in a rack of the same size. Spray rack with kitchen pan spray.
3. Trim ends of each squash then cut each in half the long way and each half in half the long way to yield 32 long quarters.
4. In a large bowl, mix panko, Parmesan, salt, pepper, parsley, oregano, basil, and garlic powder.
5. In a small bowl mix mayonnaise with olive oil.
6. With all the cut zucchini quarters laying cut side up on your cutting board, use a pastry brush and brush the cut tops with the mayonnaise mixture.
7. Lift each zucchini quarter one at a time and hold suspended over the breading bowl. Use your other hand to grab breading and sprinkle over the zucchini. Make sure both cut sides get covered.
8. As you bread each piece, place on prepared sheet tray, cut side up.
9. Once all the zucchini are breaded and on the sheet tray, spray the tops lightly with kitchen pan spray then place the pan in the oven.
10. Bake for 15 minutes, rotate pan, and bake for 15 minutes more.
11. If not browned enough, broil for a minute or two.
12. Serve immediately.

Color to share at our next meeting

NVQG General Meeting June 14, 2025

Meeting was called to order at 10:01 by Vice President Margret Gaeddert.

The pledge of allegiance was recited.

Happy birthday to many June birthday Members.

Secretary, Trudy asked for any additions or corrections to the May minutes. Seeing none, a motion was made by Joanne D. and seconded by Kirsten Carpenter. Passed.

Treasurer, Ellen W. reported a balance $33,503.55

Vice President Margret G. announced lecture and trunk show in July with Suzanne Starjash.

Membership, Renee' and Evelyn, let us know there were 63 members, one new member and four visitors.

Newsletter: Nikki was absent. Please have everything to Nikki by June 19, 2025. Email please no text.

Old Business: Challenge Quilt with Linda Feutz. Great response and many would like to do it again next year. Linda will coordinate it. Thank you, Linda.

New Business: Meeting place for September's meeting is Crosswalk Community Church. The Community Center advised Ellen W. the Center was not available July 10, 2025, for our regular meeting.

Welcome Committee chair. We found a volunteer. Evelyn Z. introduced us to Lynette Young who volunteered for Welcome Committee.

Sunshine: Anni Donahue nothing to report. Website: Dani Neuman, absent.

Historian: Roberta Wooley, absent. Zoom: Krista L. and Riley, nothing to report.

Block of the Month, Linda F. announced Krista L. won 16 beautiful blocks.

Monthly Drawing: Denise and Linda, pulled four lucky winners.

Communications: Patti G. had nothing to report.

Quilts to Share: Rose L., thanks to everyone who showed up for Q2S work day. While it was a small crew, much was accomplished. There are quilts on the back table to be tied, quilted or bound.

Fair: Rose L., we still need plenty of people to sign up to serve. Many of the late slots need filling. An Uber will be available to those who don't drive at night if needed. If you need to or from the fair, please let Rose know. Also, indicate the area(s) you would like to serve so Rose has an idea of what is needed. The building is large, so we need many helping hands. We will be issued permanent passes which includes parking. It is imperative to let Rose know if you are volunteering so she can get your pass made. If you haven't registered your quilts yet, go to Napafair.org and follow the prompts. If you need assistance, please let Rose know.

Jamie discussed Gift Baskets. We need plenty of them. You can use a box or basket or use your imagination. Also, you can donate items to Jamie and they will put together a basket.

PLEASE INCLUDE A LIST OF ITEMS IN YOUR BASKET. Signs will be printed with the context so this is really important. All needed by the end of July.

Kirsten C. is the chair for Demonstrations at the fair. If you are volunteering to demonstrate something, please let her know. She wants to make example boards.

Announcements: Maggie reminded members there are many, many pillowcase kits to pick up and take home to complete before the fair. Please take a few and help out.

Stacey announced upcoming classes in Vallejo (VPQG). She showed samples of Envelops and Landscape. Also, a fanny pack class. She will be available for signups after the meeting.

Trina was checking to see who still had outstanding quilt kits for fire and catastrophic events. If you haven't turned them in, please complete and return. Thank you to everyone who and has made them. Some went to Oklahoma, Kentucky and many other places.

Meeting was adjourned at 10:40am followed by show and tell and then our Guest Speaker, Catherine Dumas with a wonderful trunk show.

Reminder, please put away your own chair before you leave. If you can stay and help clean up, it would be much appreciated.

Respectfully submitted, Trudy Molina, Secretary
