The Censorship of Pornography

The dualism of the vices and virtues of the published image

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people to peaceably assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.
Constitution of the United States of America, Amendment 1

The freedom of the press in America may have limitations, but it certainly has not stopped the pornography industry, both in print and in electronic media. Decent families in this country do not consent to the porn being made available to their children, not to mention what it has the potential to do to the man of the home that can legally obtain it. If it wasn't available, there would be no threat. But porn is being sold in its softer version in everyday drug and grocery stores where young mothers are compelled to shop for food for their children. The lewdness in everyday television is rampant, and most screenplays have some sexual content. Can we ever get away from this abomination?

When a man sets out to criticize the police department for its crimes against the poor, the government wants to claim he is mentally ill and lock him away in an insane asylum, but the mayor, as part of that government, participates in a prostitution stand in the capital of one of the more prominent states of the union. Hardcore porn in dvd form is sold at corner stores in ghetto neighborhoods that compel children to come and buy milk for the family. Is it censorship to prohibit the sale of porn from those stores? Is it not enough to give porn addicts their hidden stores with cluttered windows where they can go away from the common man to experience their abomination? Do we have to find ways to legally make it available to our children, especially the poor children who have no say?

The press shown here is dilapidated due to a company in Albany NY that closed down because of dwindling business relayed to the internet. Is there no integrity for the press anymore, that the books we are making are good for our children in this generation and in the millennium to come? Should America censor pornography because of its proven records of desecration of character, destruction of the nuclear family and transmission of diseases? Or is that unconstitutional?

The Honor of a Police Officer

The Risk and Complexity of His Judgment

Having a gun and knowing when to pull it must be a gift from God, unless a cop knows for sure he's always clear. It is unlikely he uses the same judgment with his gun on a poor man that he uses with the mayor, and he would never expect to have to pull on the mayor. Regardless, it is an art form. There are probably a handful of bad cops out there who are causing more crime than they are solving, and they often give a bad name to all police officers, but the likelihood of that depends on ones' ability or even his interest in investigating the notion.

So, we have been led to believe that the police force is trustworthy and dependable, and it seems that is relatively true.

The policemen has the job of making sure that crime is suppressed, but very often he is limited to his office. He can pass the buck to a legislator, like the mayor, who has enough power over a cop that if he so chooses he can insist on promoting a East Indian corner store that sells porn, drug paraphilia and alcohol, and the middle-class never shop there—or if they do its just a novelty when they go on vacation in the ghetto. The cop's job is not to close it down the porn store or strip joint, the cop's job is to heroically keep the peace while people commit abominations against God and each other.

The police department in Fullerton California left a horrible record of violence when they beat Kelly Thomas to death over a simple call concerning vandalism. Mr. Thomas was a homeless schizophrenic man that pleaded for the cops to stop tazing and hitting him with clubs, but they induced his beating all the more into a coma and he died of it in the hospital bed shortly thereafter.

The Schenectady Police Department in NY Sate exhibited their own crimes insomuch the mayor had to consider a martial law. But to condemn all cops for the behavior of some would be like cops calling all poor men who can't find a decent job criminals. Yet, it was the whole police department that had to be replaced in Schenectady. Where does the humble Christian civilian draw the line?

Single Mothers

Opting to be a Christian Lady

It is very common today, especially in the disadvantaged inner city, to find young single mothers with their children out on a days' errands. It is hard for the mom to go to school and better her life when she has children to tend to, and sometimes she gets caught up in the culture of poverty and never gets out. Furthermore, it is often handed down from mother to daughter and from one generation to another there is poverty.

Many churches set out "help" these single mothers, then exact a tithe and other forms of service from them. I can not be entirely sure that God requires a tithe from a poor person who is struggling to pay his bills, though God does require some kind of giving. Yet, the Biblical principles being taught at the right kind of KJV Bible-believing church are very valuable to a single mother and her children, especially in a world where she is vulnerable to wealthy poor-abusers.

It is very commendable for the mother who chooses to keep her child, and not have it aborted or adopted. It takes a lot of courage. It is better for the child to be born and adopted than to be aborted. Unfortunately, organizations like the Planned Parenthood of the Capital Region in

New York State, promotes abortion and supplies them, probably free of charge and without consent of the parent. It seems to have become profitable business for abortion doctors, when abortion is murder. But the argument they give to the helpless mother is that the fetus in her is really only an organ, much like an appendix, that can be removed—its not a separate human life. As difficult as it may be to raise a child in poverty, there is blessing from God on the mother who takes that option.

The single mother who learns to fear God sets herself up for a blessing in the stead of a cursing in her situation of a child that has little or no communication with the father. Whereas ideally the romantic couple should be married and work out the problems together, sometimes that never happens and the mother has to find ways to survive without the husband. The Book of Revelation, Part 1

Preparing for and Surviving the End Times

Many satanic cults and occults have adopted Christian values from the Bible in the form of proper nouns and attribute them with the values of their abominable gods. If you trace the history of the Catholic church, you will also see that the Baal worshippers gave the name Mary to Samarias and Jesus to their Nimrod to create the abomination of their foolish gods. There are so many falsehoods in "religion" today that the truth is very hard to come by. My mere small attempts to publish the Word of God with my illustrations is by far limited to the reputation created of me in the community.

What exactly do we need to know about the End Times? Daniel and Revelation (the scripture sections of which are available via kjv bible books.net) as well as a few other books in the Bible, prepare us for the Last Days days with a prophecy concerning the rise of an antichrist. During his reign there would be 3 1/2 years of joy and happiness and then there would be 3 1/2 years of suffering such as was never seen before on the earth. That makes a total of seven years of his rein on the Throne of Israel, where Christ is supposed to rein in the millennium. Daniel talks about other nations rising and falling, but in general they will all serve the antichrist's kingdom. Babylon is given as the center of attention, and it is blamed for all of the murders in the earth. Babylon is the area of the Garden of Eden, and it also represents the Catholic church.

One of the other major issues of the Last Days is the rise of technology to support the rein if the antichrist. Never before in human history has there been such an expanse of knowledge via computers, as Daniel said knowledge shall be increased (Daniel 12:4). All of our younger generation has become reliant on desktops, laptops and handheld devices and regularly uses them for communication, finance, to retrieve information and for other major business transactions. This very device will be used by the antichrist as a forerunner for the chip to be inserted under the skin to mark the people with which you can only buy and sell if you have it. You can see that most commerce is done on computers now. Welcome to the last days.

IF YOU DIED TODAY
ARE YOU 100% SURE OF HEAVEN?

Of all the seeds that can be sown in the ground around the world, the mustard seed is the smallest. Yet it grows into the biggest of herbs (Mark 4:31-32). Likewise, salvation from hell is so simple that even a child can be saved, yet it is the most important thing you will ever do. If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed...nothing shall be impossible unto you (Matthew 17:20). Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen (Hebrews 11:1). Salvation from hell requires only a little faith in the Word of God to completely change your life. Here is the little faith:

The Word of God says, For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). And there is a payment for our sin. First you die physically: For the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23a) Then your soul dies a second death for all of eternity: and whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into a lake of fire Revelation 20:15). But with just a little faith in the seed, the Word of God, there is a way out.

The Bible says, For by grace are ye saved through faith; and not that of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast (Ephesians 2:8-9). Jesus death on the cross was a payment for our sin, and the blood that he shed is enough to save us from hell simply by asking him for salvation. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved (Romans 10:13). Neither good works nor any other ritual can save you. Only the blood of Jesus can save you. Simply pray, believing in your heart, a prayer like this:

Lord, I know that I am a sinner deserving death and hell. I want to go to heaven. Please come into my heart, forgive my sin and take me to heaven when I die. I am trusting only you for my salvation. Thank you for saving me from hell. Amen.
