

Krozek, Leonard R.

Leonard R. Krozek, 76, of Bad Axe passed away Friday, Sept. 25, 2009 at his home in Lincoln Township.

He was born Feb. 27, 1933 in Lincoln Township, son of the late John and Mary (Kolanko) Krozek. He married Christine Swartz on Aug. 22, 1959 in St. Louis the King Catholic Church in Detroit. Leonard was a lifelong Lincoln Township farmer and had served as constable for Lincoln Township. He enjoyed bowling, NASCAR and traveling to various truck and tractor-pulling national events.

He is survived by his wife, Christine Krozek of Bad Axe; one daughter, Yvonne (Kevin) Hufnagel of Grand Rapids; four sons, Leonard (Karen) Krozek II of Bad Axe, Stephen (Mary) Krozek of Bad Axe, Christopher Krozek of Bad Axe, and Patrick (Danielle) Krozek of Oxford; one brother, John (Frances) Krozek of Kinde; three sisters, Helen Zagorski of Warren, Delores Rambo of Bad Axe and Sophie (Joseph) Hoin of Roseville; five grandchildren, Brandon Krozek of Bad Axe, Danielle Krozek of Eastpointe, Jacob Hufnagel of Grand Rapids, Jeremy Hufnagel of Grand Rapids and Madilyn Krozek of Oxford; one great-granddaughter, Brielle Person of Eastpointe.

She was predeceased by one sister, Eleanor Krivosheff; and five brothers, Walter, Stanley, Edward, Ernest and Clarence Krozek.

A scripture service will be at 7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 28, 2009 at the Kaufman Funeral Home in Bad Axe. Private burial services will be held at St. Joseph Cemetery in Rapson.

Visitation will be from 1 to 7 p.m. Monday at the funeral home.