Spring/Summer 2018

Messages from your Officers

Spring has sprung and summer is here! Welcome to B.O.E. season! No doubt everyone is very busy answering questions now that assessment notices have gone out so we'll keep this newsletter brief.

This year we'll be seeking to elect a new Secretary/Treasurer for the upcoming term and will be accepting nominations for the position. Since everyone may not be able to attend summer school this year and we want to give everyone a chance at nominations and voting, we will send out information to you. Along with this newsletter, nomination form attachments have been sent to be filled out and sent in. It's a great opportunity to get involved with the IAAP and help guide our organization into the future.

In an effort to keep all members better informed we are launching a Facebook page for IAAP. In addition to our website, this page will be another tool in keeping our members more current on news, job postings, and articles of interest. Members will be able to post, share and discuss items of interest, getting immediate feedback dependent on the other members. Everyone is encouraged to sign on to Facebook and do a search for IAAPIDAHO and follow our page!

Every year during summer school the IAAP hosts a luncheon with a raffle and guest speaker. Suggestions for guest speakers are always welcome as the IAAP wishes to engage its members with topics of interest to all. The luncheon will be Wednesday July 25th at noon.

We look forward to seeing you all this summer!

APPRAISE THIS! THE WORLD'S MOST BEAUTIFUL HOUSE BY BBC.COM

This article written by Jonathan Glancy and published by the BBC on June 16, 2017 talks about this home called the Fallingwater by architect Frank Lloyd Wright. A very fun article, one of my favorite lines is when Wright was described as a master of the one-line quip with a couple follow examples such as:

He told a client who phoned to complain of rain leaking from the roof of her new house onto the dining table where she was sitting to "move the chair".

Worth the read! The link to the full article can be found on our Facebook page IAAPI-DAHO. The web address is <http://www.bbc.com/culture/story/20170522-the-worlds-most-beautiful-house>.

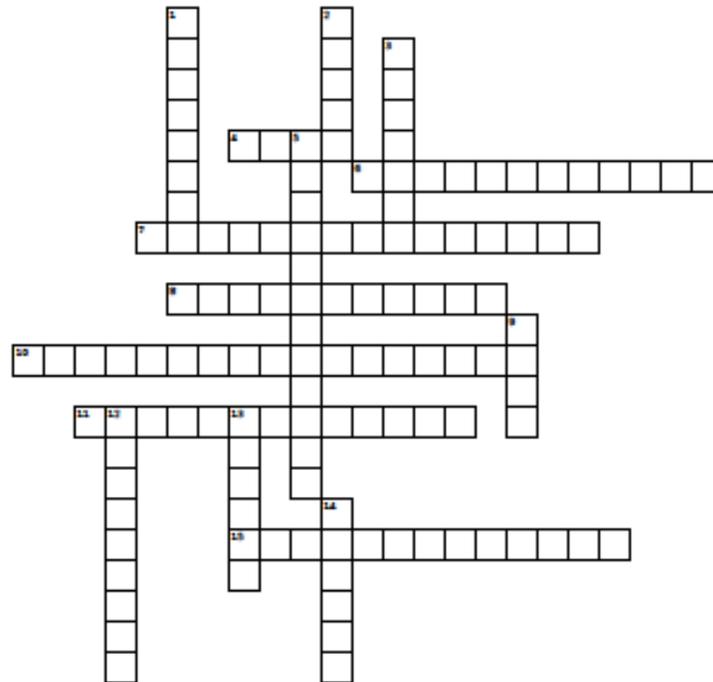

FALLINGWATER

Fallingwater is a house designed by architect Frank Lloyd Wright in 1935 in rural southwestern Pennsylvania, 43 miles (69 km) southeast of Pittsburgh.^[4] The house was built partly over a waterfall on Bear Run in the Mill Run section of Stewart Township, Fayette County, Pennsylvania, located in the Laurel Highlands of the Allegheny Mountains. The house was designed as a weekend home for the family of Liliane Kaufmann and her husband, Edgar J. Kaufmann, Sr., owner of Kaufmann's Department Store.
