

WILL YOU BE MINE

*If my eyes could not see would people call me blind If clocks had no hands how could we tell time
If you had no voice how would I hear your whispers in my ear
If there were no words to speak would we still define love as something sweet*

*Somehow, someway
I've got to make you mine*

*If there was no hope from where would courage come If my heart had no beat how would I know that I'm alive If there were no tears to cry how would I ease my pain
If I had to describe you I would need much more than just your name*

*Someday, someway
I've got to make you mine*

*If we had no lips
    how would we know the taste of a kiss
If there were no sky your lovely face, would have to take it's place
If the stars had no twinkle
    I would depend on your smiling eyes If the earth stood still falling in love with.....would set my world spinning*

Will I ever hear you say that You'll be mine, all mine
