

Lesley Frost, soprano

Music has always been a passion of Lesley's. In her young adult life, she sang with the Dartmouth Handel Society, and eventually formed a rock band, traveling throughout New England on the club circuit. She moved to Florida, and began a classical music career, singing as the soprano soloist at the First Presbyterian Church of Naples, and the Naples Philharmonic Center for the Arts.

Lesley recorded the song, "Where Freedom Rings", written by local songwriter Janet Johnson, in 2001, for the TV station MHTV and producer/promoter Jose Stefani. The subsequent video won a Telly Award in the 'best original video' music category.

In the spring of 2011, she joined the Naples Community Church family. She has also been a member of the Voices of Naples, soloing often in various concerts and events throughout southwest Florida.

During the day, Lesley is employed full-time as manager at Prolab Esthetics, a local dental laboratory, where she makes teeth for all of the many people who lie about their flossing habits.

Above all of her many interests, the most important thing in her life is her daughter, Michelle, who continues to delight and amaze Lesley every day.
