September Director's Message

The weather was perfect for our September gathering. We welcomed our members and guests that had returned home safely from the Rendezvous the day before. It sounds like there were many activities, rides, attractions to see, and friends to catch up with at Fort Smith. Carolyn and I were unable to attend this year because I encountered a lower back issue that kept us from traveling. I understand there were 760 members in attendance. We were so looking forward to riding in Arkansas, but just couldn't do it this year. (Some highlights from the Rendezvous and the trip are included elsewhere.)

Dennis gave a recap of the picnic ride to Nauvoo. The ride to Nauvoo was on the Illinois side of the river. The weather was good for the ride, but it did get hot. The return ride went up the Iowa side following the river—always a very scenic ride.

We had 12 at the H-2 coffee/dinner at the New Windsor Depot. A very good evening with good food, good conversations, and perfect weather for an evening ride.

We are planning a special Christmas dinner this year, but it will mean a change to a Wednesday evening event rather than our regular Tuesday night. It will be held on Wednesday, December 3, at 6:00 p.m. More information will be sent out as we firm up the reservation. Everyone we have contacted so far has been available that evening.

Visit our website at www.ilh2.org to see pictures of H-2 activities, past newsletters, links to other sites, etc.

Sept 13, Big River Riders Breakfast, Machine Shed, Davenport, 9:00 a.m.

RENDEZVOUS SUMMARY

By Ruby Naslund

Ron and I left on August 26th and spent Tuesday night in Branson. We traveled on four wheels following Dan and Alvah who rode their trike. On Wednesday we stopped at the Museum of Native American History in Bentonville, Arkansas. It covers a time span of 24,000 years. From there we arrived at the Rendezvous host hotel in Fort Smith. It rained pretty much all day on Thursday, so we just hung out at the vendors. Alvah and Dan attended a Meet and Q&A with the Founders. Thursday night we attended opening ceremonies.

On Friday, the four of us four wheeled it through a scenic route to Oark to eat at the Oark Café. Friday night we had an ice cream social followed by a light show.

On Saturday, we went to the US Marshals Museum which was interesting. Saturday night we attended closing ceremonies. There were 760 registered participants. Next year Rendezvous will be in Sharonville, Ohio. We headed for home Sunday morning and spent the night in Jefferson City, Missouri. We arrived home around noon on Monday.
