

Fairfax County Public Schools
Assistant Superintendent, Information Technology
Fairfax, Virginia

Description

Plans, directs, manages, and evaluates all FCPS Department of Information Technology programs, services, and personnel to include the offices responsible for technology integration, technology infrastructure, knowledge asset management, and customer products and services; and serves as a liaison between the School Board, community groups, and the Department of Information Technology.

Qualifications

Master's degree in computer science, public administration or a related information-based field; plus eight years of progressively more responsible experience in managing information technology programs and services. Doctorate degree preferred. Knowledge of the principles and practices of process innovation and reengineering/redesign to provide staff and customers with timely and convenient access to information and services through the use of technology; knowledge and understanding of information technology directions, trends, and the strategic business impact of key business and information technology initiatives; ability to predict, analyze, and manage cultural and technological changes within the organization; and ability to drive enterprise technology objectives.

Interested candidates should apply online:

<http://careers.fcps.edu/gateway.htm?&tg=supp&req=13596BR>

Equal Opportunity Employer