

He Will Make A Way

Genesis 18 reminds us that the Lord desires to keep His promises towards us. Anything is possible with the Lord and our hearts need to be open to His will for our lives. His plan doesn't always show up the way we expect it....

Three men show up at Abraham's house out of the blue and Abraham offers them food and drink and a place to rest. Without even a second thought, he is sowing into God's kingdom.

Genesis: 18: 1b-7 - One day Abraham was sitting at the entrance to his tent during the hottest part of the day. ² He looked up and noticed three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran to meet them and welcomed them, bowing low to the ground. ³ "My lord," he said, "if it pleases you, stop here for a while. ⁴ Rest in the shade of this tree while water is brought to wash your feet. ⁵ And since you've honored your servant with this visit, let me prepare some food to refresh you before you continue on your journey." "All right," they said. "Do as you have said." ⁶ So Abraham ran back to the tent and said to Sarah, "Hurry! Get three large measures of your best flour, knead it into dough, and bake some bread." ⁷ Then Abraham ran out to the herd and chose a tender calf and gave it to his servant, who quickly prepared it.

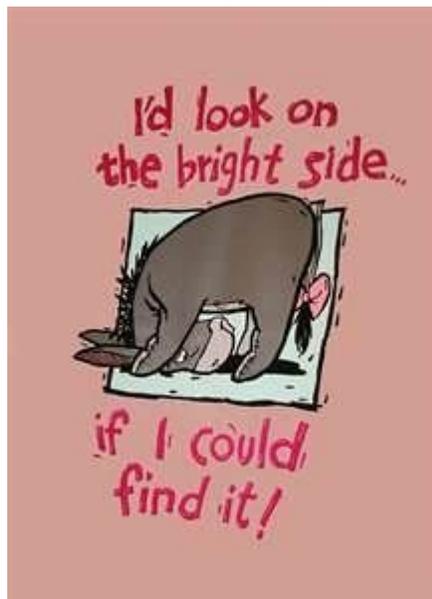

The Lord had a plan for Abraham and was working it out in HIS timing to bless Abraham and his family and his descendants for generations to come. However... Abraham had to wait a LONG time. He had to wait until he thought it just wasn't going to happen any longer. He had to wait until things looked like there was no hope left and just when they weren't expecting it – along came a sign of God's promise to be fulfilled.

Genesis 18:9-15 - "Where is Sarah, your wife?" the visitors asked. "She's inside the tent," Abraham replied. ¹⁰ Then one of them said, "I will return to you about this time next year, and your wife, Sarah, will have a son!" Sarah was listening to this conversation from the tent. ¹¹ Abraham and Sarah were both very old by this time, and Sarah was long past the age of having children. ¹² So she laughed silently to herself and said, "How could a worn-out woman like me enjoy such pleasure, especially when my master—my husband—is also so old?" ¹³ Then the LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh? Why did she say, 'Can an old woman like me have a baby?' ¹⁴ Is anything too hard for the LORD? I will return about this time next year, and Sarah will have a son." ¹⁵ Sarah was afraid, so she denied it, saying, "I didn't laugh." But the LORD said, "No, you did laugh."

You may be going through something really hard right now and you may laugh because someone says – "there's a blessing, with YOUR name on it!" or "don't give up on God, He hasn't given up on you!" and I would choose to say in return:

IS ANTHING TO HARD FOR THE LORD?

Friends, we can choose to around like Eeyore and think
good could come from it.
In making the impossible –
come from something that is providing for us when there do but throw in the towel. I Lord. Just wait – wait and believe that God will arise in enemies to scatter!! He will He loves you and He will prove Himself again and again!

believe, or we can choose to mope
things look so ominous nothing
This is where God's specialty lies.
possible - in making a new thing
worn and old and fragile and in seems to be nothing left for us to would ask you to wait on the wait some more and watch and your situation and cause your
do it over and over again because

He told Abraham twice – just in case he didn't hear it the first time?? "I will return to you this time next year, and you will have a son."

So if you need to hear it again – THE LORD IS ABLE – and He will perfect that which concerns you! If you ask for bread, He will NOT give you a stone. He loves us so much He will make a way.
