

Bach, Alfred C.

Alfred C. "Pete" Bach, 80, of Sebewaing, died Thursday morning, November 18, 2004, in the home where he was born, following a two-year illness. He was born February 1, 1924 in Sebewaing, son of the late Carl and Clara (Eberlein) Bach. He was united in marriage to Alberta Howard on March 5, 1949 in Sebewaing. She preceded him in death on December 14, 2002. Pete had been a farmer and carpenter in the Sebewaing area for many years. He was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sebewaing and served as an elder. He was an avid woodworker, enjoyed shuffleboard, sports, hunting, fishing and was a master of all trades and the ultimate Tiger baseball fan. Surviving are five sons, Bruce Bach and his wife, Joanne, and Kenneth Bach, all of Sebewaing, Edward Bach and his wife, Jane, of Windsor, Colorado, Joseph Bach, of St. Louis, Missouri, Paul Bach and his wife, Lisa, of St. Charles, Missouri; three daughters, Carol Sattler and her husband, Steve, Debra Kunding and her husband, Arlen, of Sebewaing, Peggy Wilson and her husband, the Rev. Richard, of Forestville; 22 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; one sister, Esther Konkle and her husband, Robert, of San Francisco, California; one brother, Dr. Norman Bach and his wife, Jean, of Chelsea; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by one brother, Dr. Clarence Bach; and one sister, Dorothy McLellan. The funeral service will take place at 2 p.m. on Sunday, November 21, 2004, at Immanuel Lutheran Church. The Rev. Daniel Hahn will officiate with burial in the church cemetery. Visitation will be from 6 to 9 p.m. today, from noon to 9 p.m. on Saturday at the Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home in Sebewaing and from 1 p.m. until the time of service on Sunday at the church. Memorials may be made to Immanuel Lutheran Church or Heartland Hospice.
