January 2020

Annual Meeting of the Association January 11, 2020, 10:00 AM

Join neighbors from throughout Crestwood on Saturday, January 11, 2020, at 10:00 AM, in the fellowship hall, Central Christian Church, 3205 Hamilton. Also preceding the meeting, beginning at 9:30 am: coffee and conversation with others from throughout the neighborhood.

On the meeting agenda:

- Election of Association officers for the coming year
- A presentation by City of Fort Worth Transportation and Public Works director William Johnson, assistant director for transportation management Tanya Brooks, and TPW engineer Raj Gupta, discussing traffic issues related to development on White Settlement Road
- A recap on Association accomplishments from 2019

All are welcome to attend the meeting, however only those who have paid 2020 membership dues—either in advance of the meeting or at the door—are eligible to vote.

Neighborhood Directories Available January 11

Thanks to the efforts of Jackie Liles and her volunteers, a printed directory of Crestwood residents will be available in January. Initial distribution will be at the annual meeting; doors open at 9:30 am.

Every household in the neighborhood is entitled to one copy free of charge, whether or not information was supplied for that address.

Those not attending the meeting may pick up a copy at 11:30 am. Additional copies may be purchased for $1.

Crestwood Neighborhood Events in 2020

All neighbors are welcome at events organized by the association, which are funded by membership dues dollars.

Monthly meetings usually feature a program of specific interest to westside Fort Worth residents and always include updates on happenings in Crestwood, such as criminal activity reports.

In addition, four family-oriented events are scheduled for 2020—all organized and produced by volunteers. Details on timing and locations for the family events will be announced via email, with yard signs, on the website and via the print newsletter.

Neighbors Slated for Leadership Roles in 2020

Hollie Lancarte, chair of the Association's Nominating Committee, announced candidates slated by her committee for 2020 Association offices at the November 4 membership meeting.

Janine Lund (standing, right) is the nominee for Association president. She and her husband have been residents of Crestwood since 2016, having spent a couple of years cruising around the neighborhood on their tandem bicycle, looking for property. Janine teaches general psychology part time at the Northeast Campus of Tarrant County College. She served as Association secretary in 2017 and 2018 and as president in 2019.

Gayle Davis (not pictured) is the nominee for vice president. Gayle has lived in Crestwood since 1997. She is a Realtor with Keller Williams Realty. She has held several positions with the Association, including service as vice president and as president in 2017 and 2018. A long-time member of the Crime Patrol, she is also currently chair of the Zoning Committee.

Mary Beth Marsh (standing center) is the nominee for secretary. Mary Beth and her husband Paul are now empty nesters and moved into Crestwood at the end of 2014. Paul is a Radiologist and Mary Beth manages single family rental properties. She has served as the secretary of the Association since 2019.

Kristin Glass (seated) is the nominee for membership secretary. Kristin has lived in Crestwood since 2003. She is a dual language teacher for second grade students with Fort Worth ISD. In 2015 and 2016, she served as Association president, and has served as city hall liaison for several years.

Sonia Rodriquez (standing left), the nominee for treasurer, has lived in Crestwood since May 2001. Professionally, she is an administrative assistant at Greenwood Funeral Homes. She has served as Northwood Road block representative for several years.
