

Thy Will Be Done

Rev. Gina Cobb 2,6,2019

Over the last few days I have pondered many things about my life, the lives of my children, family and friends. I deeply desire to see God move more in all I do, and in the lives of those I love. I felt stirred to remind you to pray something daily concerning, “His will be done.”

You see, there really is no middle ground concerning the Kingdom of God. Jesus taught that His kingdom is both the present and the future. Early in the ministry of Jesus Christ, after teaching them to address their prayers to God the Father, He said to pray, “Thy kingdom come, thy will be done” (Luke 11”1-4 and Matthew 6:9-13). Through the Gospels, we heard Jesus speak again and again “Thy will be done.”

“Thy will be done” was central to the ministry, teaching and mission of Jesus. He preached about the Kingdom of God, and the primary understanding of the kingdom of heaven was God's reign over the lives of people who enthrone him as king.

This is a pattern or a framework for your life and your prayers. It gives you what it is that God expects to be the character of your prayers. As you pray daily for God’s Kingdom to come, thy will be done- it reminds you of your responsibilities to your Creator and to maintain the vision of God’s magnificent future for all who will respond to Him.

It is an act of faith that says, Jesus is not simply an idea or an emotion, but it’s your surrendering to God’s purposes in your daily affairs. This puts His interest first as you pray whatever advances His Kingdom

When you pray “Your will be done,” You are offering yourself as a servant of the King and it is acknowledging that He has all wisdom, and all resources. It is honor and affirmation of the King whom you love and serve.

I firmly believe you will see change and it will happen as you verbally surrender to Him. His Kingdom come, and His will be done in your life!

Heavenly Father, I thank you that you are always faithful to me. I thank you for today’s Word. I ask you to guard my heart and mind and cloak me in Your peace. Clear the way today for me to carry out Your plans for me with no interference from the enemy. Lord, I stand in prayer for asking n Jesus’ name that the forces of darkness that would try to come against me would be pushed back. By faith today, I take hold of your truth for my life. I Thank you, Lord, that each time the enemy comes in like a flood, Your Spirit will lift up a standard against him and put him to flight! I thank you for total victory. Lord, I ask that YOUR Kingdom come, and YOUR will be done in my life today. In Jesus Name...
