

Education: MSW from Fordham University with a specialization in children and families and BA from Southern Connecticut State University.

Previous Work Experience: Bereavement group facilitator with children and adolescents, elementary school social worker, outpatient clinician providing individual, family, group treatment for a wide range of mental health issues.

Additional Training/Specialty: Bereavement, trauma training and research internships with public policy think tanks.