Be Alert to Your Guardian Angel

April 1st, 2022

Lord, the great joy of salvation is the indwelling of God Himself, we pray that You would grant this honor to those unbelievers so they can experience Your immeasurable love for them. Amen.

Blessed Mother began, "I am so pleased with your prayers which are having an impact on the worst situations, so please do not despair or slacken in your sacrifices and prayers. A time will come when fighting will cease because it has accomplished its goals. The cleansing is going on all over the earth and many souls are beyond exhaustion. Pray for these especially so they will make the right choice on their death beds.

"Pray for the conversions of the Muslims who are brutal and without mercy. Pray also for supernatural intervention for the children and innocents. Afghanistan is going through much torment and upheaval, pray also for that country, and America and Australia as well. The idea I want to get across to you is that basically, every nation on earth is in a critical situation. The New World Order is preparing to take control when the Rapture happens, pray for more time because all are not ready. I know this is something you do not want to pray for, but I promise you, what you sacrifice because of the Father's will can bear much fruit and favor with Him.

"Dear children, please try to be more alert to the voice of your guardian angel. They have been trying to reach you with ideas but your minds are too cluttered. Please spend some quality time in prayer because you all do need it. Things will also go very well for you, my precious ones, and I am sending you help.

"Children, always prayer first, duties second, always remember that order because you need to be equipped before you begin your daily work. I love you and am praying for you and with you."

A House Divided

April 1st, 2022

We thank you Lord that You are sovereign over the affairs of our nation. We ask for Your guidance and wisdom for our leaders and for Your healing over our lands that we can truly be one nation under God. Amen.

During the Rosary, I could clearly see a distinct line right down the middle of the Eucharist, dividing the Blessed Sacrament evenly in half. I heard Jesus say, "A house divided. During these turbulent times, countries, ethnic groups, religious organizations, Christians, home towns and your very own households will be divided on account of Me. My people do not waiver in your belief in Me, your faith will be truly tested in upcoming trials and you must remain on the Father's side. So many of My dear ones, will fall away and their hearts will grow cold and they will curse Me and the day they were born. I need your intercession for unwavering faith and steadfastness for these souls.

So many are trying to change outcomes and circumstances, but they are relying on their own strength and not on Mine. This frame of mind and perspective if continued, will be their downfall.

My precious ones, your need for Me must be so strong, fully dependent on My goodness and graces, like that of a helpless child. Resemble Your God and no one else, your cooperation in imitating Me and making an effort to resemble Me in all of your thoughts and ways will be your saving grace before My judgment seat.

Do not engage in arguing or showing irritation with others when they don't believe in their Creator or are persecuting and showing you unkindness.....love them, pray for them, show them My love through you, care for them and offer them your best and in this way you will glorify My mercy.

Just then during the last decade of the Sorrowful Mysteries, one of our brothers said, "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you."

Sister Haddessah's - Heaven trip

April 4th, 2022

Oh! What an imagination we can have, still as an adult. Anyone can have this trip to Heaven with our sweet Lord Jesus. This was my first experience with the Holy Spirit taking me into Heaven. I tell you, "It is the most amazing feeling and beautiful experience ever.

Entering Heaven seeing the most beautiful colors, colors I have never seen here on earth. In getting into some really gorgeous clouds and all these colors of trees, so white around and pure with some kind of glitter of some sort mixed in with so many colors. It was mind blowing!

Going in with Holy Spirit, at a far distance I could see a big beautiful lake, with such clear blue green mixed with like a glitter shine in it. And near it were two men standing, as I walk towards this beautiful lake, I see my handsome dad so young and smiling all in white and wearing a white cowboy hat with a strip of gold on it. I ran towards him with so much Joy and hugged him and then I see my handsome amazing Jesus. He was so so gorgeous, with a smile that would make you melt. A smile from ear to ear with beautiful pearly perfect teeth. I couldn't see very clearly his face but I could see his beautiful manly bone structure of his jaw and, Man! That smile, it melted my heart so much full of Love and compassion. I went to him and hugged him and said, "Oh! LORD! I am so Happy to See You!

He was Happy to see Me; I could see little houses beautiful little like villages. Everything was just breath taking, He was breath taking. He told me come and see what your dad is doing, and my daddy was like in Spanish, look daughter look what I have and he showed me what he had in his hand and it was a golden fishing rod. HaHa! I laughed I was like WOW! Dad you doing what you loved doing is fishing. He looks at me and just how a child looks when they get an awesome toy. So, he says, "Look! He throws in the line into the lake and out comes a big golden fish, not a real one but like a candy fish one you can eat. I was like omgosh! That is so cool, he was so excited and like a child amazed every time he caught a fish. I was so Happy to see him so Happy, after showing me his fish. Jesus and I walk further and my dad right behind us and Jesus says this is your moms my daughter who's heart is a heart of gold. My dad comes and says, "This house we have been working on preparing a place for her.

This house was so unique and nothing I have ever seen; it was like if it was made out of flowers all kinds of flowers. It was amazing, walking in it was so colorful and the scent it was smelling so beautiful. My then takes me and shows me what kind of gown he had laid out for my mom. The gown was glittery white with a shine but had like a little of color. On the end of the arm sleeves it had a strip of gold and another of a heavenly purple. And also, on the bottom of gown and she had her crown so beautiful with golden mixed with some colors shaped like flowers on it, so vibrant. I was amazed with tears but I knew that she was someday coming here and know that she will be in good hands with Jesus and he is preparing her place.

Walking out of the house Jesus holds my hand and my dad on the other side holding his hand we walk towards a beautiful flower garden. So full of all kinds of flowers and some that I have never seen. When getting closer there were kids around laughing and playing on this swing made out of flowers. I couldn't quiet see their little faces but they sounded so heavenly. And right behind them was Mother Mary so elegant and so Angelic wearing a vibrant white with a blue clear color and a beautiful crown. Her voice was so gentle and so motherly with so much love and kindness. She looked at me and said, "Welcome my beautiful daughter I have been waiting for you. She opens her arms and, in her mantle, so many little babies come out and are laughing and playing and I go over towards her and hug her and her hugs were just as amazing as her sons. The Love was just so unexplainable.

She looks at me and says, "I have two people that want to see you", I look behind her and it was my beautiful niece Amanda, she was so Happy and so pure she yelled out Tia! which is Aunt in English. I go to her and give her a hug, she looked so young and just had a beautiful glow wearing her crown and her white gown. She looks at me and says, "I can't believe you are here. I was like I can't believe it either. I gazed into her eyes and in knew she wanted to show me all she has prepared for her parents, but Jesus said next time my beautiful daughters. So, we moved on to looking around at the beauty of all the heavenly things around us. She looks at me and nods her head towards Mother Mary and my Blessed Mother says. "someone else wants to say Hi! She opens her mantle and there I saw my little baby girl, she had beautiful dark black shiny hair, big brown eyes with long eye lashes and a cute small button nose. She right away looked at me and yelled out Mommy! And comes running to hug me, she holds on to me so tight and says, "I was waiting for you and I love You".

I was so happy to see her, I said I'm so sorry for what happened baby girl. She looked at me and said its ok, Jesus and I have been building a home for us here and I have been helping Welo with their home. She was so full of happiness and well taken care of. Thank You Mother for watching over all the babies and mine. She smiles and humbly says, "It's my honor to be the care giver of all the children in heaven they are my children just as you are too my daughter."

After admiring the way everyone was looking and the glow each had I was so high in Love in their presence. I asked my baby girls name and her name was Lily, she looked up at me and said she had a gift for me. She goes and comes really fast like she was never gone lol! And out she comes with a white glittery, well-built horse. This horse was so well built beautiful and had wings and on tip of wings it had a strip of gold and a strip of a different kind of turquoise. On its face it had one strip of gold right in front between its eyes coming down its snout. Highlights of Gold on its tale and head. Lily looks and says you have been asking for one mommy and now you have several here back home. But I will show you this one first so you can give him a name. And so, I did, I said baby girl his name will be Spirit. She was so excited to give me my first gift in Heaven. She gives me a kiss and runs off and plays with other kids I could not quiet see well.

Looking and my dad and niece made me so Happy that they were there especially with Jesus and Mother Mary. I looked up at Jesus and just didn't want to leave but he looked at me with this face it's time for now. I said ok Lord I will be waiting for my next visit and he said, "My daughter we will be waiting with open arms always for you." I blew kisses to them all and Holy Spirit in a cloud takes me back. After being back I just cried and I was like in this heavenly high. I couldn't believe I was there and through it all I wasn't feeling any shame or unworthiness. All I felt was LOVE and COMPASSION and MERCY.

Afghans Fleeing Their Country

April 4th, 2022

Dear Heartdwellers, for all those of you who have generously donated to obtaining humanitarian visas for Afghans to escape persecution and possibly death in their country, here is an encouraging update from Pastor Scott Griswold.

Pastor Scott writes to us, you may know that we have been trying to get the family members of close Afghan friends of ours out of Afghanistan. His brother and brother-in-law both have received death threats from the Taliban. Both have just barely escaped being killed. About a month ago, our network was able to get them to temporary safety into a neighboring country.

Their families were left behind waiting for visas that would allow them to travel out to join the two men. We have been earnestly praying for them to get visas, as it is quite hard, and many have requested them and been rejected. We also knew that one of the men's wife was pregnant and about to deliver. If everyone got their visas, but then the baby was born and didn't have a visa, it would slow the whole family down, further endangering them.

I am delighted to share the following news that just came in today:

"Yesterday the Taliban surrounded and searched the home next door to where these men's families have been in hiding in Kabul. This gave them great concern for their safety and increased the possibility that the Taliban will come to search others homes in the area. Since nine people between both families have their visas completed (praise God!), we are moving them as soon as possible. In addition, the wife that is close to giving birth and the family, can't safely go to a hospital in Kabul."

So transportation was arranged just as the visas came in time! All glory to God!

Then came the message:

"Those two families have arrived safely to a city in another country."

A little bit later this message came to me:

"Breaking news! Thank you to all the members of the team for helping the Afghans in need. They are fine and fully knowledgeable and ready for medical help. And a few hours ago in one of the hospitals, with the help of a doctor who is my personal friend, was taken under medical care. Fortunately, a baby boy was born. And thank God they are healthy now!"

I'm just amazed and we are praising God with all of our hearts. It has been many months since this family was about to go to the airport to escape when the suicide bomber blew up right where they were going to go.

God has been faithful. Thank you for all of your prayers and for those who have been supporting with funds to help get them out. We will be working now to get them on into closer countries and we hope eventually that they will be able to join their family members here in America.

Pray for their faith in the power and love of Jesus to grow as well.

With a very grateful heart,

Pastor Scott and Julie Griswold

Amen!

The Center of His Holy Will

April 6th, 2022

Lord Jesus, save us from ourselves, please? Amen.

Well, the Lord has been correcting me and corrections are always painful. I came into prayer just a little wobbly and I said to Our Lady, Mother I am here, but what a mess!

She answered me right away. And she said, "Take your eyes off your mess and do what is right, when it is right, and focus now on the world and what little part you have to play to help out. The devils would have you tied up in condemnatory knots. I would have you praying for the world, and most specifically the unsaved who will have no time to repent.

"I am not trying to be harsh with you daughter, but I do need you to change your focus and put it on those who are suffering the very worst that war has to offer. I appreciate your efforts, just keep them in prayer.

Mother I do not know how to find the time to be with Him and the other duties that are required.

And she said, “Just do your best, your very best, especially not to get sidetracked, He will be pleased with that and assist you as you press in. ‘If it be possible let this cup pass from Me.’ That is what I heard in the background. And she answered that, because we were all praying the Rosary and that was the mystery we were on. And she said, “That is where He is at in this moment. Oh, what a tough decision this is. The repercussions are massive, but it is time to cleanse the Earth to prepare for His coming.

“Clare,” she said softly. “Do not worry, you will pass this test. It has been a long time coming and it is His last-ditch attempt to bring you into the very perfect center of His Holy will. You can do this with our help. But turn your motherly heart to those who are perishing both here and in Europe.

“The world has never known the kind of tragedy that it is being forced into by Satan. Never before have we had such weapons of mass destruction. I know it is not a reality for those living here in America, but it will be very soon. This is what you are preparing them for. I do want you to inject some hope into the channel. I wish for those who have experienced Heaven to share those experiences with the HeartDwellers worldwide. They are greatly in need of hope, even now as we speak.

“Pray most of all for correspondence to grace, that graces will not be wasted, but cherished and nurtured, protected. All of you need to exercise more and more care in corresponding to grace. This is a most precious gift of God to carry you through the toughest trials. As you correspond, you grow in virtue and become more and more like Jesus, growing every day in virtue, and capable of surviving the toughest trials with your heart and eyes on helping others. As you serve them, more and more graces are heaped up within them, and they grow in holiness, or come to the Lord at the last moments of their lives.”

The Election of Sinister Plans

April 6th, 2022

When a conclave gathers at the Vatican to elect a new Pope, from Vatican Square, you see black smoke emanating from the Sistine Chapel’s chimney to signify that the conclave has not come to a decision, no consensus has been reached on a new Pope. When a new Pope has been elected, you see white smoke. As we were praying the Rosary, in the Blessed Sacrament, I saw the reverse....I saw white smoke three times start at the bottom of the Eucharist and move up to the top, then dissipate. I heard the word, "Vatican." Then I saw black smoke move slowly from bottom to the top of the Blessed Sacrament.

I asked the Lord, "What does this mean?" He replied, "A very destructive evil plan has been decided upon and put in motion that will affect mankind." My heart sank when He said this. "Do not fret or be anxious My love, I will foil their plans and the outcome will not be as they are expecting."

I had the feeling that these plans were in real time. "What is their evil plan, Lord?"

"It is to further the depopulation of man, but they will not succeed. I will use their plans for My purposes and for the saving of souls by further drawing them to Me. They will try to harness elements and continue to manipulate weather patterns, using cloud seeding to increase or decrease crop yield and limit or accelerate natural disasters. They are advancing their efforts to manipulate the Earth's magnetic field and control the amount of solar radiation by harnessing cosmic forces to form a 'terrestrial craft' whereby humanity's exploration and management would have no bounds.....that's what those who are making these dark plans are thinking and to use terrestrials to fight for and with them in war times."

"Lord, you are speaking to a neophyte when it comes to matters of a cosmic, diabolical nature."

Jesus continued, "You do not need to understand it all, Elisabeth, just write down My words. The egos involved and the discounting of My power and control over their plans will be their undoing and downfall and the works of the devil I will destroy.

"I will frustrate plans of schemers so their evil works will not succeed, and I will swiftly trap the wicked. They do not realize how the schemes they devise to harm others, sets them down a destructive path. My people, it does not matter what is happening, or how long you have been waiting, or the many obstacles placed in your way, I cannot be hindered, but I do need your prayers and sacrifices.

"My plans for the righteous cannot be thwarted, cannot fail, and My promises will stand and remain steadfast. I will sweep away the evil plans of sinful people and they will be brought low. I will work out everything for My own ends, as I detest all the proud of heart. Be sure of this, they will not go unpunished." And that was the end of the Lord's message.

I was thinking this word was a bit heavy, when Jesus appeared and immediately took me to Heaven to sit on the edge of our dock, where we can see the lake, the tropical island and the ocean all at the same time in My heavenly home. Today, we were watching the dolphins swim and the Lord threw out a big, red beach ball as one of the dolphins scooped it up and started to bounce the ball on the end of his nose, it was precious to watch. We put our feet in the cool and inviting water of the beautiful lake. I rested my head on His shoulder and felt instant peace wash over me, and then in the next moment, I came back to our Rosary group while we were praying the Joyful mysteries and one of the brothers just said the word "Peace".

Instruments of Peace

April 7th, 2022

Please fill our hearts with Your peace and love, Lord, bless our minds with rest and our relationships with unity and trust. Amen.

During the Rosary we were praying the Luminous Mysteries and, in the Eucharist, there appeared a beautiful, white dove holding an olive branch in its mouth. I knew the dove represented Holy Spirit and the olive branch was a sign of peace. The dove was there quite a while in the Blessed Sacrament and then appeared to manifest by coming out of the Eucharist. Holy Spirit began flying around the room above our heads, placing a small olive branch on each of our laps. If you were looking a little down or feeling oppressed in any way, the moment the branch was placed in our laps, those feelings were instantly removed and a soothing rest swept over us. One of our brothers and two of our sisters received two olive branches instead of one like the rest of us.

Holy Spirit began speaking, "These olive branches of peace will multiply as you give them out to others."

Two days in a row during mass, I opened to the multiplication of the five loaves and two fishes. I asked Holy Spirit why three of us received a second olive branch?"

He continued, “Because these dear servants are being sent out into the world and need Our additional peace to rest upon them, and to give this peace to others they meet along the way for their healing, refreshing and rest.”

This reminded me of when Jesus said to His disciples in John 14:27, “Peace I leave with you; My peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.”

The brother and one sister who got two olive branches said that they have not had a break from oppression and anxiety in several days, and when praying the Rosary, both of them felt peace, as sister was instilled with such a longing for the Lord.

Father Ezekiel said that those in our community who are being sent out are going out with the ministry of presence; meaning that we carry God’s presence and we will leave His presence with those we meet. We will minister to the souls we encounter because Jesus lives in us, and they will recognize His Spirit, His peace and His love emanating from within us.

This is confirmed in Exodus 33:14 - “And He said, “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”

Dear Family, please pray for our brothers and sisters as the Lord is sending them out and directing their steps in accordance with His will and the Great Commission which He gave to all of us in Matthew 28:18-20 which reads, “I have been given complete authority in Heaven and on Earth, therefore, GO and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you, and be sure of this, I am with you always even to the end of the age.” Amen!

I Thirst

April 7th, 2022

Lord Jesus, please give us the faith to face death joyfully.

So, just before we came together for the Rosary, I got a card that said, you will die as My beloved. And that did not really fit the profile of being Raptured, which He had told me before except that I guess we would get to be Raptured before everyone else if we died, right? So, you know, I was not really thinking about facing that, I have been thinking about it on and off, been thinking, you know, it does not really matter, as long as I am prepared, right? It does not really matter.

So, I asked Our Lady is this true? And then I said, you know, I am too attached to hear you on this, Mother.

Then she said "I am always with you. Your nation will be nuked, and the air will become poisonous....

And I said, like a long slow death?

And she replied, "Pray for the people in Europe that will be exposed to radiation, it is a miserable way to die. So many will be killed. Animals, children, so you may pray for all of Europe for this conflagration will be so very serious. Do not be afraid, Clare. Rest in His peace. These things are not totally determined yet, but I need you to pray for others, please."

And I have been slacking on that. I have not been doing it as much as I should. Mother, please help me. In the meantime, I asked Father if that was a real word from the Lord or not and he got Fruitfulness, Peace, and Loving God. It could be either way, really, But I did pick up this Mary book and I turned to something very on point: 'The mother of life passes through death and Marys' body rests in the tomb.' This book caught my eye, so I got up and got a reading from it, so that looks like a positive reading. The mother of life passes through death and her body rests in the tomb. So, that was a confirmation to me.

I also have been wanting to open this book, the Jewish Bible, and was given Jeremiah 31 verse 4, which says, Once again you will plant vineyards on the hills of Sharon, and those doing the planting will have the use of its fruit, for they will come when the watchmen on Mt. Ephraim will call, "Come, let's go to Zion to Adonai our God".

So, she did say, "Pray for the people in Europe."

And I said, Mother please help me.

And the reason I am breaking this up is because it said- I went to Father and I asked him, you know, is this word from the Lord, and I got Fruitfulness, he did, Peace, and Loving God, so that could go either way.

“All I can tell you is to pray,” she said, “Something very serious is what is about to happen. Unless more prayers are offered this will happen very soon.”

Blessed Mother, please dispose my heart to embrace and long for God’s will.

“My precious family, you are not praying enough for this world and the people in it.” She is speaking to us now. “I really need more sincerity and depth with your prayers. Clare, you are getting distracted again, my Beloved daughter, I cannot even begin to tell you how seriously we need your prayers. Not just for you and the community, but for those who will die an unjust death and those who will remain unrepentant.

“Please set your heart on those who do not know Him.” ‘Repent for the kingdom of God is at hand.’ That was in the background, part of one of the mysteries that somebody read, and it fit right in with the message, so I wrote it down. She said, “Yes, pray for repentance, pray much for repentance, both for yourselves and for others. My children, you must look into the mirror of your sins each day and ask forgiveness as well.

“There are many spots, wrinkles, and blemishes, which you could remove just by being aware of the tendency towards sin. Acknowledge it beloved ones, be brave and acknowledge the sins, then ask to be made willing to be willing. There are still many pleasures you are retaining, giving them up will increase your anointing and love for God and your brother.

“Set the example and others will follow.” That was to me. “As a leader of a community, you must always lead by example.”

And I said Mother, I am willing to be made willing...but not willing right now. I need more grace.

She answered me, “There is much joy planned for you ahead of time. My Son is more extravagant than you could possibly imagine. “And that goes for all of you.” At that time in the background, the person who was praying said, ‘well pleased.’ And that fit in here, that He is well pleased with us, we just need to tweak the prayer buttons a little more. “What He has planned for you is out of this world. Never could you merit it. His kindness and generosity is way more than you are capable of knowing.” And then in the background I heard, ‘if we share in His suffering so shall we share in His grace.’

She continued, “Your trips to heaven are very fruitful and nourishing for your souls. I would really like you to make many such trips and publish them to encourage others that they indeed have much to look forward to in the next life.

“Yes, they need to hear that, and the truth about this community, how pleasing it is to the Lord. I have just given you the area where there is a lack, among some of you. Praying for others is still the greatest act of your lives. Rest assured those who pray faithfully and from the heart will have accumulated much merit in Heaven. The world is starved for effective prayer.”

And then she said, “I thirst,” which is a quote from Mother Theresa, when she was called to go out and take care of the sick and dying. She saw a very, very poor man lying on the ground dying and he looked right at her, into her eyes, and said, ‘I thirst,’ and that was the inspiration for the whole order, and so she said, “I thirst” is still the cry of His heart.

“Please respond to this with your whole heart.”

And I said, I need your help Mother, I really need your help.

And she replied, “You are closer than you think to a breakthrough, press in. It is not hopeless.”

That was the end of her message.

Heavenly Comfort for the Bride

April 9th, 2022

Lord Jesus, please open our hearts, our eyes, and our ears wide to receive the things of Heaven that you want to share with us. Protect us from guilt or self- doubt that the enemy is saying this, and it is not you. Protect us from that, please. Amen.

When I came into the Rosary, Our Lady was smiling. I said, Mother, you have a beautiful smile.

She answered me, "I smile for you my daughter, I am happy to be in your presence, because I feel so loved by all of you."

When we are praying the Rosary, we do it as a community.

"You were on the right track to begin again with the joyful, encouraging, messages of Heaven.

"We would like to give you new material if you are willing. Just make the time, and we will do the rest."

Yes, I am willing, I want this, please help me. Please forgive me for my foolishness in not wanting to go back and be in Heaven with Jesus as you would have wished.

I thought it was frivolous for me to be going back to Heaven when I- I first got Chronicles of the Bride because it was so comforting and so encouraging, I thought I have other things, more pressing responsibilities, and the messages, and I did not realize the power that comes from these encouraging messages from Heaven. So, I repented for that, and I had to ask forgiveness.

She continued, "You have grown a great deal since those days. My children, I want you to know that Heaven is very busy preparing a place for you. Much information on each of you has been collected. That is what we draw from when preparing your abode. The Lord does not miss the minutest details, oh how excited He gets when he knows how much it will mean to you when you see it. He cannot wait to see the expression on your face when you first behold your dwelling.

“Each of you are so unique in the things that you gravitate towards. Please do not judge yourself because you get excited by such things of Earth. The enemy will try to make feel guilty and ashamed that you are not like Anna Roundtree.”

Who, in her story, most recent story, said she was not-she did not want any of those things, all she wanted was to be with the Lord, and I have often told Him, Lord, I just want you, but I do get excited when He creates something that I love, I do get excited.

Anyway, she was telling me not to judge myself that way, “Nothing could be further from the truth, the Lord exults in your love for His creation.”

Having been a trained nature photographer, I do not miss a lot. When I walk or when the lighting changes, and clouds come in and clouds leave, I do not miss it. And it does distract me, but in a joyful way.

“Your recognition and deep appreciation touch His Heart and helps others to perceive how very aware He is of each person’s very special things. It shows others how much He cares now and forever, and that no detail escapes Him. He remembers the little things in your childhood that you loved and cherished. He knows how to take those memories and weave a rich comforting blanket of joy to bring you peace and nourish your soul during your time here on Earth when things can be so very dark.

“This attention to detail also makes people aware of His total understanding of your character, your struggles and what makes you tick. It is His nature to rush in and provide the things that are most pleasing to you, yet He is ever aware that you love Him more than His gifts. There is a movement now to reveal more and more of the Heavenly realities so all of you will not lose hope in those dark moments of fighting against your great opponent, Satan.

“I want you also to encourage all Heart Dwellers to prepare their hearts to go to Heaven as well. As long as there is no pride in these adventures, they will continue and be available to all who seek them.”

I think her saying “all” is memorable, I mean that is something to take note of. This is not just for a privileged few, this is for everyone who wants it.

“Jesus has a very great desire to communicate to you all that He is doing behind the scenes while you are still at battle. Seeing is believing, and hearing also brings faith, so it would be good for you to bring these Chronicles forward in recordings. You will also have music appropriate to them. And it will make a very nice presentation of Heaven...to the degree we are able to share.

“Oh Clare, there is so much He longs to share with you about Heaven and its many surprises. You will be an instrument of peace when you share these things, they are anointed to bring peace and healing.”

And that was the end of her message.

Tethered to Corruption

April 9th, 2022

Well, I have to give you a little background on this, family, because it is not immediately clear what actually took place, but last night I was a naughty girl, I wanted a Passion image to meditate on. And so, I went looking on Etsy and I found one that I liked, a crucifix that I really liked.

Well, I spend way too much time looking around for things that pertain to the Passion, because on my heart I just really wanted to be inspired to really enter into the Lord's Passion, which is so, so important, but I wanted to do it MY way, and I had a feeling when I was searching for three hours on Etsy that it was not exactly the best thing I could be doing with my time, you know maybe like the Lord was waiting for me to come into prayer, because I- I broke from prayer to find an image.

And so, I was feeling semi-guilty trying to keep it down but something in me just did not feel right. So, I found what I thought I wanted, I ordered it and this morning I had buyers' remorse, mostly because I wasted time and because I knew the Lord did not want me to have it. So, we had to cancel the order and get back down to Earth. So, I am still dealing with avarice and self-will, but this is how the conversation with the Lord went:

I said, Lord, it is a real disappointment!

He answered me, “Would you rather be disappointed or disappoint Me when I have something better for you? When I immersed you in My Passion it was not the crucifix that did it, it was My Spirit that gave you the gift. You can have it your way or My way, but you cannot have both."

And He was referring to the time earlier on in my conversion when He really, really immersed me in His Passion. I understand that Lord and I would rather have it Your way, will you please forgive me?

He said, "You are struggling, when the struggle is over and with all your heart you renounce your own will, yes, then I will forgive you.

"My dearest, abandon your will and you will have all of Me. Continue to hold on to these things and you will have your will."

And I said, Yeah, I know, I know that is very clear to me, very clear.

Then He said, "In the past, I indulged you, now it is time to leave those things behind. They are only helps to draw closer to Me, but if they hinder intimacy, would you still want them?"

No, no Lord, not if they are impediments.

He said, "They are. Why should I give you the grace of repentance if you have not renounced your will? It will not do you any good until you do. I want to move upwards with you, do still want to remain Earth bound? Tethered to corruption?"

Well, I do not see it that way, Lord, but I want to. I want to see it that way. I see them as helps, a sacramental to draw me deeper into prayer.

And in the background, they were just saying He was transformed on the Mount of Olives. That was the mystery of the Rosary about which they were talking.

"My Beloved Bride I want to give you the real thing and you are still focused on the ladder. Once one climbs the ladder there is no more need for it. You are climbing the ladder.

"Do you still want to focus on what was down there on Earth?"

Lord, please speak to my heart in a way that I can receive it, please. Is it wrong for me to have an image that inspires me? I know You understand my struggle.

He continued, "I certainly do, it has been life long, even when you thought it was gone, it was only looming beneath the surface of the water, the black panther. You remember in the dream you did not know whether it was gone or not, it was not gone, only waiting for a better opportunity to bring you down."

And what He is talking about is a dream I had thirty years ago; where I was at our summer house on a lake in Wisconsin swimming when suddenly a black panther emerged from under the water and came after me. At that point I entered into a life and death struggle with this strong creature. Sometimes it went down, then it came back up, sometimes I went down, went under, and did not think I could make it back up to get a breath. The panther had overcome me, yet I did make it up for air and held the panther down underwater. This went on several times for a long time in the dream. Finally, the panther did not surface again. However, I was not convinced that it was dead.

And interestingly enough the Blessed Mother, when the Lord has taken me to Heaven there is an island where the Blessed Mother is, and she was on the island and she had a black panther next to her, sitting very peacefully next to her, watching us coming in, as we were coming in to the dock, and I think the symbol of that is the secret of the struggle is probably to come to her and her pray for me that I can let go of it because she has tamed the black panther, it is sitting there peacefully, you know? I have not tamed that panther at all. However, I was not convinced that it was dead.

The Lord answered, "It was not dead. And now in the time of your life when you must give a good example, it has surfaced to take you and everyone else down with it. What are we going to do about it?"

Lord, I make an act of the will, I WANT IT GONE. And yet, a part of me still wants a holy image.

He continued, "Did you think you could eradicate this vice all in one day? It has been stalking you and making inroads for decades, and all in one fell swoop you want it gone?"

I answered Him, Yes!

"Very well then, we have some work to do. To put it simply it must go or else."

Now that 'else 'is a thought- Being able to stay for the Rapture or being taken early, because I am a bad example to the community. I do not to be that way, I cannot help it, though, it is just me. I am trying to overcome all those faults. And then I asked Him, Can I paint the crucifix? And I went to the Bible Promises and I got Success.

And I said, Lord, I do not want to shortchange my time with You or music. And that is- when you are attached to something that you really want, the enemy can slip in his voice to give you permission to get it. And the Lord just quietly stands off and watches you because in your heart you think you know what the answer is going to be, but He gives you over to a deceiving spirit when you are so attached to something that you have to have it. I do not trust myself to ask the Lord if this is His will or not because it would please me actually to have a crucifix that was painted properly, you know ,that really conveyed the Passion, that would make me really happy, so because that is self- will, you have to be so careful when you discern it because it could lead me off on a rabbit trail.

Lord, I do not want to shortchange my time with You or music.

"Oh," He said, "Would you do it for Me and the community?"

In other words, paint the cross for Him and the community.

And I said, if you willed it I would.

He said, "I will it."

But isn't that a compromise? I still would have an image and aren't you trying to wean me off that desire?

"I am, but I also want you to 'make do' with what you already have. That is the way of your holy father, St. Francis. Make do. Do not lust after the things in the world, rather make do with what is around you."

And then the Scriptures, He gave me are from Matthew 6:11 and 12. And in fact, this is not resolved yet because I do not know if He allowed a familiar spirit at the end of this message or if it was actually Him saying "Yes I do want you to paint it." I am not sure. I am going to go to the core group and we all going to seek the Lord about it and find out. That is what is so nice about having a community and people you can trust. I hope you are enjoying this, guys, because this is how we discern things. I give you a heads up on the struggles sometimes.

Do not worry, do not keep saying “what will we eat or what will we drink?” or “what will we wear?” The people who do not know God are looking for all these things. Your Father in Heaven knows you need all these things. And so, I guess He, you know, He knows that we need these things, and He provides them in His way, not in the way we would jump to doing it, our own way. That is the only Scripture on this page that makes any sense to me, but I am going to give you an update tomorrow because I have got to know from outside of myself, through my husband and through other discerning members of the community if He wants me to spend time on that crucifix, because that will be a chunk of work and I have two other things that need to be worked on, so...

Pray for me guys, that I make the right choice and I hear the Lord clearly and thank you for putting up with me.

Dear family, the Lord is calling us to repentance, this is the season in which he wants to prepare us for the Rapture. So, I can either be tethered to corruption or with God's grace fly free, and with all my heart I want to fly free, but He is going to have to do a major work to get rid of that desire for things. And just now a member of the community stepped forward and they are going to Europe next week to minister, and he told me this message really resonated with him that they were struggling with the very same thing. So, brother, here:

Brother: So yeah, Mother Clare, this is basically the same message the Lord has been giving me and Catherine, we have so many questions on how to prepare, and basically build a ministry that the Lord has specified, He has called us to, He has told us what it is going to look like, so we tried in our own determinism to try and put that together and the Lord really intervened, he got real strong handed with us and in the end it was really rewarding because He explained by allowing the Lord to orchestrate the financing, the guidance, whatever aspect of our ministry- He said if we let Him do it, then He gets to draw closer and reveal who He is, but if we are always getting in His way, we are basically stifling the Lord and preventing Him from manifesting Himself in our lives.

Mother Clare: Not trusting Him?

Brother: So, we can do things in the natural, and we would get by, but I much prefer for the Lord to do things in the supernatural and learn more who He is, because He is- just is really hungry to be our true Father. So, we need to step back and let Him do that, even just today, there is a small miracle which I cannot detail but just a wonderful confirmation that the Lord is a very cheerful and ready Giver, but you have to give Him the timing and the space to do it His way.

Mother Clare: Yes, and you have to let go your own will, and that is the hardest thing, I think, for all of us. When we went to South America, on a mission, we went to Colombia on a mission, we were invited there by a priest and his community. When we went there, all we had were a few things, my kids' homeschooling books and some other things, and we did not have a lot of provision, we did not know how we were going to be supported, but once we got there, everyone cooperated, in fact I had to do a full-length painting and they helped me with that. So, the Lord has always been faithful when He guides, He provides. Amen? All right.

Chronicles of the Bride - Heaven's Library & Tapestry of Life, Part 1

April 11th, 2022

Hello Brothers, Sister, and Heartdwellers Family,

Mother Clare surprised us again when we got together during our community Sunday gathering, to open our hearts and minds to have the Lord take us to Heaven!

I was excited but if I can be honest, anxiety hit me as the enemy pelted me with thoughts of the need to perform or produce something. Then unbelief set in as doubts pelted my mind, "Would I be taken there, would I see something?" I was exhausted. But I am sharing this to reveal to you the enemy's tactics and what he uses to cause discouragement and unbelief in using your sanctified imagination to be with the Lord.

The devil hates this more than anything—a soul on earth taken to heaven? First, not only does it boost your morale, lift your mind on heavenly things, and bring healing to your soul—but it causes you to testify—sharing the testimony of where you have been—where the Lord has taken you—thereby bringing many souls who are thirsty, to the well of life, JESUS— so they can experience that too. Lastly, letting the world know Heaven is real. It's not a state of being—a made of place—but it is the place that Jesus Christ, our Savior said he has gone to prepare for you, (John 14:3) if you would believe and have faith in him. That is your Home!

So, I reminded myself of that, I putting the demons to flight and just rested in his presence once the music began— whether I saw anything or not.

It took me a while to settle in to a comfortable position. As I began to relax, I saw myself entering a small metal gated door to a garden. I bent down to enter through a small door—I was being led into this garden by children who were holding my hands to walk. They were very excited. The garden was beautiful with perfectly trimmed green, lush, bushes—some in squares and others in circles with tall, trimmed bushes that were like walls surrounding us. The children giggled as we all held hands and went around a particular square bush singing “Ring Around the Rosey”. I noticed we all had on white. I was the only adult, and the children were five to nine years of age, about 15 of them. The girls had on white dresses with flower crowns, and ribbons in their hair. The boys had flower necklaces with white long-sleeved shirts and white trousers. I had a white, flower summer dress with my hair in a long, French braid and a flower crown on my head. As we went round and round that bush dancing and singing I noticed two of the children immediately, Christopher and Annette. Again, these were two of the three young children I had met on my first Heaven trip and have shown up every time I have arrived in heaven one way or the other.

Then the children broke the circle as they began to run through the garden into an area with beautiful willow trees. I followed them running behind them and we ended at a beautifully decorated table with white lace linens and white chairs with the most beautiful China plates and teacups with blue, pink, yellow, and gold engravings and designs.

One of the kids yelled, “A tea party!” They all giggled and clapped excitedly as they all began to be seated. I then noticed Ashly, the last of the three children, who was sitting adjacent to me, on the other side of the table. She waved excitedly then covered her mouth and snickered at seeing me. I waved back as the children began to drink the tea and eat the biscuits that were on the table.

Once we were done eating the majority of the children got up and began to run and play again in the garden. I had a strong sense the children wanted to talk with me and tell me their stories. So Christopher got up from the table, came around, and took my hand leading me away from the table. Ashly and Annette came running to the other side of me giggling and holding my other hand. I was led to the most beautiful river in the garden. It was crystal clear, pristine—you could see right through it—with beautiful pebbles of all different shapes and sizes at the bottom. It was shallow and had a running stream that sounded almost melodic. We sat on a bench next to the river—Christopher sat to my left and the two young girls, Ashly and Annette sat to my right. All three children leaned into me, looked up at me, and rested their precious heads on my side as I had my arms around all of them.

Christopher is a white, young plumply boy about the age of 6 with brown hair and the most beautiful eyes you have ever seen. Annette is a very cute, spunky black girl about 7 years of age with the biggest dimples and smile. Then Ashly, the shyest of the three is a white girl with beautiful long golden locks and green eyes, about the age of 7 years as well. I looked at all three as they continued to just stare at me smiling and I said, "Okay are we related?" Thinking well, Annette is black and the other two are white, I'm not sure how that can be, but anything is possible in heaven.

The children smiled, and Christopher responded laughing, "Well we are all children of God!" I said, "Yes very true" smiling. Then He said, "We are all connected, your life on earth has impacted our lives and that is why we are here." I was amazed thinking, "How so?" and Christopher, knowing my thoughts, began.

"My mother aborted me but after seeing one of your flyers you posted sharing, Jesus' messages about how wrong abortion was and how children are a gift from him, she was so convicted, cried, and repented. For me, it was too late but because of your obedience to the Lord to post those flyers, she has since then given her life to Jesus and I have two other siblings he said, jumping up excitedly, that I will get to meet. Because of the flyer you posted, she never did that again". I was dumbfounded and remembered the message Jesus gave Mother Clare about abortion. He asked us to spread it around. Then Holy Spirit gave me the idea to make it a flyer. I added personal testimonies from some of the people whom I knew had experienced that and regretted it. I then went with my sister to pass out flyers—even posted them on bus stops in our city. This was more than four years ago and now the Lord, in His great mercy, was allowing me to see how it impacted eternity.

Then Ashley began, "I was killed by a drunk driver you prayed for at Walmart." I thought wow! There were many times when I would take some friends from my Bible study group, and we would evangelize in Walmart and different grocery stores just praying for people. I was a bit sad because I thought, if I prayed for him and he still harmed somebody, I couldn't see the blessing in that. Ashly, knowing my thoughts said, "Because of your prayers he didn't go to hell. He was destined to go there that day but the Lord, in His great mercy, sent you to pray for him. So rather than being killed in the car accident, he was kept alive. Now he is in prison, but Papa will redeem him, and he will be used to bring many souls to heaven! I was with my mom when the accident happened, she made it through and has now forgiven the man."

She said all of this with such excitement—it's like the souls in heaven have no concept of anything else besides the glory of God. She was so excited that God's glory would be shown in all of what he allowed in her life. I was in awe—amazed at God. I was still processing all of this when Annette stood up off of the bench and came in front of me and said, "And I love you most of all" with tears in her eyes. Christopher and Ashly both said, "Aw Annette" waving her off smiling. She began, "You came to me when I was dying". Now that I didn't remember and would remember if that happened on earth. I looked a bit perplexed. She continued, "You told me to let go and that everything was going to be okay, that I was going to be with Jesus and my family would be fine." I really tried to remember—then I saw myself praying in my closet in tongues in my old apartment.

I was praying in the spirit and during those moments I didn't know what I was saying or doing at the time. He then opened my eyes to show me what was being done that day as I was praying. He took me in the spirit, and I saw myself walking into a hospital room. I saw Annette sick, with tubes all through her nose and body. The light in her eyes was gone and she didn't have that big smile as she does in heaven—she looked so tired. I then told her that it was okay to let go and that she was going to be with Jesus. Tears streamed down her eyes and then I saw her spirit sit up from the bed, a bright light appeared in her room and Jesus walked in, picked her up, and carried her away smiling at me. I then was back in my apartment just praying tongues having no idea what had just happened or what I was praying.

She then said, “And you helped my family prepare to let me go by praying for them.” This time I thought, “How?” Then Holy Spirit again brought to my mind a memory of me at Cooks Children's Hospital with my niece Naomi. She was two years old at the time, a little partner in Holy crime. Naomi's sister had a doctor's appointment and the Lord told me to go in and pray for everyone on the floor. So I was nervous and took Naomi.

I remembered meeting a black family and I prayed with them. I'm not sure what I prayed but as that vision was going Annette chimed in, “That was my family and your prayers for them brought them many graces in preparation for my passing” and then she said, “And we love Naomi!” Christopher and Ashly both excitedly repeated “Yes, we love Naomi! We're praying for her.” I laughed in amazement and in awe at the goodness of God and these three precious children the Lord allowed me to touch and now they were blessing me.

I hugged all three of them tightly as Christopher jumped up again and said, “We have something else to show you”. They now excitedly pulled me closer to the edge of the river and a beautiful gigantic swan appeared. It was so kind, and gentle as it bowed, to say hello. Christopher excitedly said, “Jump on!” I was startled but all the children hopped on the swan, and I excitedly followed as I was the last to get on.

The swan fluttered its huge wings arching them perfectly to its side so as to protect us from falling into the river. We began to steadily go down the river and all manner of fishes appeared, rainbow-colored, silver, jumping out of the river and over our heads to bring us laughter. Some stood up in the water on their fins and splashed away to give us a show. We laughed and waved at the fish as we went by. Then we went under a bridge and a tunnel and ended at the river bank. We hopped off the swan saying thank you as it continued on down the river. I then noticed a golden door with an angel guarding it right before us. I thought, “A door in the middle of the garden?” and Christopher, knowing my thoughts said, “If you believe it you can see it”. As the children giggled and the angel greeted us and opened the door, the children waved at the angel with familiarity.

When we stepped through the door we were in a library with golden floors. This library was huge—several feet high, with beautiful stairwells, some winding and some straight. I realized I was in the library of Heaven. Christopher, knowing my thoughts said, “There is more than one library in heaven, but this is the main library in Heaven”. I walked around turning and turning in awe at what I was seeing. I always thought to myself that all the personal journal entries that we have ever written on earth would be stored in heaven somewhere for all to read because nothing is private in heaven.

I had a sense that I was right, that our personal journals and notebooks were all here for people to read to know about our lives and stories. I then touched one of the books. As soon as I touched it I was infused with all the contents in the book immediately in my mind. It’s like reading a book in 30 seconds. I was amazed, and I thought to myself, “That makes sense, I will just touch the books instead of reading them”. There had to be over a million books here and Who would have the time to read that?

Once again, the children hearing my thoughts laughed and Christopher said, “What’s the fun in that? you have all eternity to read these books. I burst out laughing, forgetting that. The children began to laugh as well. I then saw vials of bottles stacked up on the library shelves several feet high! They were the tears collected by the angels as it says in scripture, Psalm 56:8

You keep track of all my sorrows.

You have collected all my tears in your bottle.

You have recorded each one in your book.

Once, the Lord told me that our tears collected are poured into the river of life and bring healing to souls and nations. Then I was infused with the knowledge that it also is able to bring healing to us on earth. I saw people in heaven bringing the pictures of their loved ones and just pouring one drop, just one tear on the picture and the tear would spread to cover the entire image, never dripping onto the floor, and then would be absorbed into the image to bring healing to whoever the person was. It was a source of healing that our family members in heaven could use to bring us comfort when we prayed or cried out to the Lord amazing!

Then the children said we have something else to show you. Then a man dressed like a Librarian, brown trousers with a brown vested sweater—he was short, bald at the top with black hair, and had glasses—he was carrying a set of huge keys in his hands. Excitedly He smiled, joyful at seeing the children and me. They then leaned into him, put their hands over their mouths, and whispered, “We want to show her the secret room.” He said, leaning and putting his hands over his mouth and winking, “I got it we’re going to show her the secret room”.

I thought to myself again, “Nothing in heaven was secret. What are the kids up to?” Mr. Phillip then led the way taking us down this corridor then ending at the biggest double doors I had ever seen—several feet high. He then fumbled with his keys to open the door then threw them off his shoulder and said, “Who am I kidding? this is no secret,” and the children all began to laugh as he smiled and laughed too. He then pushed these huge double wooden doors with such ease and what I saw inside of the room stunned me.

It was the biggest tapestry I had ever seen. It was more than 50 feet in length and 50 feet in width. It was white and the room was dimly lit with on light shining through the tapestry so you could only see the shadow outline of the design. It was the back that was exposed to see. I had a knowing that once it was finished it would be turned around for everyone to see the front. It was an outline of Jesus on the cross, with blood and water coming from his side. Then right next to him was a lamb lying down with a crown. The most fascinating thing about this was a huge golden line in the tapestry that was pulsing and weaving itself throughout the tapestry almost like veins. Then I was infused with the knowledge that what I thought to be a golden thread was actually Jesus’ blood.

I was in utter awe at the sight I walked closer so drawn to touch it and when I touched it, I could feel the blood of Jesus pulsing through this tapestry, it was living. I then was infused with the knowledge that this tapestry contained the memory of all the souls from the beginning of time up until now. Each thread was a story of a soul, a life, and it contained the memories of each person since the beginning of time. When I pulled my hand away, I was in shock. The children looked at me with excitement and wonder. Christopher said, “See—we are all connected”. Annette said, “Your story is contained here—our stories are contained here. She pointed all the way to the top and said, “Next to Jesus’ pierced side, that is where your stories are contained—that is where our stories are contained.

I then had an urge to go and touch it, thinking to myself how would we get all the way up there? Maybe we would have to call Mr. Philip and get some type of crane to lift us up there. As I was reasoning. Christopher shook his head and just flew up. All the children started giggling and flew up hovering over the area of Jesus’ priced side. I looked up and hit my palm to my face forgetting, I am in heaven. Christopher said again, “If you believe it, you can see it”. So, then I flew up and met the children. They looked at one another excitedly as they anticipated me touching the thread in that area. When I touched it I immediately entered into the memory of my childhood, at home playing with my siblings and my dad recording us, then going to karate practice and getting donuts with my dad. I then saw myself passing out the flyers again, that Christopher was talking about.

I then saw many offshoot threads from mine. I saw, now the man she was talking about who I prayed for at Walmart. And lastly, Annette's family. I saw the sadness of her older sister when she passed, and I began to follow that thread. Her sister was so grieved and hurt that God took Annette, that she has turned away from God. Her thread was very warm, hot almost, and just ended. Sadness hit my heart as the children looked at me and we all began to descend. Annette then hugged me and said, "Don't be sad, Jesus is not finished yet" as if to say the Lord wasn't done writing her sister's story. I smiled realizing, she was right

I then noticed there were a few feet left in the corner of the tapestry that had to be completed—it wasn't quite finished yet. The thread was weaving itself, the veins were growing, breaking off, and weaving more. However, it was almost done, and I was infused with the knowledge then it would be complete when the last of the elect enter the kingdom and time on earth is done. I was amazed to see that it was almost done. The time was truly drawing nigh.

Then Ashly pipped, "Okay, we have one more last thing to show you!". The children excitedly rushed out of the room as the door closed on its own and we ended up on one of the floors in the library. It was the children's floor, very colorful with many, many, books. Then I thought of the Scripture John 21:25

"Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written."

I wondered if the books were here.... Christopher, again reading my thoughts said, "Yup, all the books are here". I thought wow, then they sat me down and sat next to me giving me one of their children's books to read. When I opened it, it was a drawing of the battle of Israel with Judas Maccabees, but it came to life. The Battle was raging on right before our eyes as Judas raised his sword in triumph to declare victory for Israel. I was blown away as the children giggled and then turned the page, and it was another bible story that was coming to life on the page right before my eyes. Just then Jesus walked in with his arms outstretched and all the children ran to him, saying, "Jesus!" and I ran hugging him, as he said, "This library has been built by the love of my faithful ones."

And again I was infused that with every work anyone has done privately or publicly for the Lord since the beginning of time was not only stored here but was a part of his library it was built by every tear, every story, every journal entry, every book publication, and every memory connecting us all for the glory of God.

That was the end of My heavens trip—as I came back now to the group of smiling faces who had experienced heaven too.

Jesus Weeps for China's Beloved Pets

April 12th, 2022

Lord Jesus, You suffered and died on the cross for our sins. Now Satan is taking from many the only source of love in their lives, their little pets. Please give them courage so they will not commit suicide but hearken to Your voice and the offer of eternal life with their loved ones, their pets in Heaven. Amen.

So, I began this message just speaking to the Lord or Our Lady - I did not know who I was- Who was listening at the time, and I said, I just heard about the mandate to kill all pets in China because of COVID. Oh, how terrible! It occurred to me that since they had not been able to rebel against this unjust government, it continues to repress and do the will of Satan to destroy the people. Oh, dear God please do something! From aborting female babies and now taking away their pets, oh Lord that hits me so hard, dear God, please do something. Lord are all these suicides going to Hell? Can we not stop this? My heart is breaking for these creatures and how devastated everyone will be. Please speak to me about what is on your heart and forgive my overreaction to mere animals.

And Lord, for so many that is the only place they receive love. Oh, my precious Chinese believers, my heart cries out for this cruelty against the little ones so dear to your heart.

Blessed Mother began, “This indeed is heart rending, and devastating to some. It is the nature of the beast to destroy all hope and all love, stripping mankind down to an obedient loveless machine, to be subservient to the Elite. It is truly a heartless call, and many will commit suicide to be with their pets.”

Mother, please do something to stop this atrocity!

She continued, “Pray for the souls of these people that they will finally receive the Lord and cry out to Him and not be lost.”

And so, Scripture says that you cannot come to the Son unless the Father calls you, so I prayed to the Father. I said, Oh Father only You can call a soul to Your Son. Please have mercy on these souls that are so despondent they do not want to go on living.

Jesus began, "You received a mandate to teach on suicide, now would be a good timing to put that forth. They really need to hear that, but I have something to say. My precious ones of the Orient, how deeply I grieve for your loss. What is being done is needless killing of innocents that brought you joy, joy that I intended to touch your heart daily with. My Heart is torn asunder by this cruel injustice. I want you to know that Satan is one hundred percent against you and has calculated how many of you he can take to Hell by this act.

"So I am asking you, do not take your own life, because you will be reunited with your loved ones very soon, along with all the female babies that have been torn from your womb. I need you to be sober now and reason with your mind and My wisdom which I am giving you. Do not destroy this life I have given you, rather unite your sufferings to My Passion which is this week, it is a special time to be remembered.

"Offer your beloved pets to God in reparation for the scourge of Communism and its total annihilation off of the world. This tear in your heart that is most painful, can be applied to saving souls and bringing them to Heaven. I promise you, they will be with you again, very soon. Give your life to Me, repent of your sin, and ask Me to wash you clean and reestablish you as citizens of Heaven.

"I say reestablish because you were begotten in Heaven, coming from the Father, and Our desire, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, our desire is to have you back with us for eternity in the most perfect world, where love is the rule, there is no death or sickness, you will be the same age I was at My death, thirty-three years old, for eternity. There is no aging in Heaven, and all you have ever wanted to accomplish or do will be made available to you without cost. You will be given tutors and many angels to help you accomplish your dreams.

"If you do not come to Me, you will never see your pets again, because when they die, I take them lovingly into My arms and to the wonderful habitat I have created for them in Heaven until you arrive to keep them with you. Please do not throw your life away, rather offer it to Me in reparation for the sins of the world and unite your sufferings to Mine on the Cross. In this way, when you are Raptured or fall asleep in Me, you will immediately be reunited to your precious friends.

"This is a call to conversion and a call to sacrifice so that this tragedy can be turned into salvation for many souls. Again, Satan has done what is foolish in bringing so much pain upon you, because it will work to be his downfall. Trust these words of Mine, they are true and reliable. Repent of your sins, turn to Me, ask forgiveness and I will make you a citizen of Heaven, my own child, where you will soon hold in your arms, the joy of your hearts.

"Too long you have labored under the lies of Communism, too long you have been deprived of My great love and affection for you, and the many wonders I have created to help you in your journey back to the Father of Love, from whom you came. Come to Me all of you who are weary and broken and I will visit you with My rest and comfort."

Tiger Taken to Heaven

April 12th, 2022

Calm our hearts God, and keep it away from the spirit of fear and anxiety. You are the only one who can comfort us now. Surround us with Your peace. Amen.

Mother Clare began, "Our Lady put her hand on my arm. "I'm sorry." I know how much he meant to you, it is a very big offering and I know you were willing to make it. Find your comfort in the Lord alone now and soon you will be reunited with this precious, little soul."

And here Mother Mary is consoling me because a dear pet of ours was recently taken to Heaven.

"Thank you, Mother, thank you. I do understand much better how He feels about just one soul who is hurting, who dies, who He will never see again. I am thankful for that; I believe it opened up my heart."

Blessed Mother continued, "Jesus hates death, he did not create His creatures to die, but this is a mystery most will not understand until Heaven. Nevertheless, He is greatly troubled by one sparrow that falls to the ground and nothing will make Him happier than seeing all alive eternally in Heaven. So do not grieve, you do not have long to wait."

"I sense that Mother."

"As you said, those who live by the sword, die by the sword."

A rooster was calling from the chicken coup, in the background.

"What shall I do with all these roosters? But I was informed that we had too many roosters since they were purchased at a young age, we had no way of knowing."

"Keep them, they will come in handy. You are a brave soul Clare and I love you and all my children."

“Mother I only want to get messages that will help others, I don’t want to be focused on me.”

“I know this, but this is a very special occasion and deserves to be mentioned because others are grieving and in sorrow due to the loss of loved one or beloved pet.”

“Mother, I’m afraid we are going too slowly with wrapping things up.”

“It is good timing to be involved in that now and not put it off for weeks. Progress steadily but do not panic or push, just do each thing as it presents itself and move on and this goes for all my precious ones. You have all been given assignments from my Son, please continue to do His work and move forward. Many things are still up in the air and not predictable. You will be ready when the time comes, this I believe.”

Father Ezekiel had a vision of a Russian missile, shot by a rogue group, not Russia, headed directly for us on the mountain. All of a sudden it slowed down and made a hard turn going northwards and missing us.

“Did it resemble a trial for us or was it about the nation?”

“The nation,” she responded.

“But it was headed directly towards us?”

“It was meant for your nation, but your prayers diverted it. The Lord wants you to know how powerful your prayers are, that is why it was shown to you that way.”

“Oh! Wow. Really?”

“Really. You will see in Heaven exactly how many disasters were averted by your prayers. It will shock you. That is why We continue to ask you to pray. Trust in these words, be encouraged to press into prayer, with this new understanding.”

Seek Out The Truth in Scripture

April 13th, 2022

Lord Jesus, please help us to be sensitive to the truth and discern rightly. And please give us the courage to live the truth, no matter what the cost. Amen.

Mother and Lord, what is on Your hearts?

Jesus began, “The light is overcoming the darkness in certain places. The proliferation of this Divine Mercy prayer is very, very important to the conquering of darkness. It is a keystone in My plans.”

And I had to look up keystone, I wanted to get that right. A central stone at the summit of an arch, locking the whole together. And a central principle or part of a policy or a system, on which all else depends: the guiding principle, the core, the heart, the center.

Jesus continued, “The Mother of Mercy devotion is also important, It, has a role to play in bringing My Mother to the separated brethren.”

And that is the way some of the liturgical churches call people who do not understand or practice the same devotions.

“I designed the intercession,” He continued, “I designed the intercession of the saints to back up those still on Earth with their many struggles and challenges. It is a real truth and a great threat to Satan, whose head is crushed by My Mother.”

“This is why there is a viewing room in Heaven, it allows the saints to see what manner of prayer is needed in real time. And those of you who do not believe we can pray from Heaven, are mistaken and have been taught error. You do not have to take this vessel's word for it, study the Scriptures for yourself and see if you can find a precept that forbids prayer from Heaven. In fact, everyone in Heaven follows My example of prayer and praying at all times. This error was encouraged by Satan to stop the those in Heaven from being engaged in praying behind those on Earth."

It did not succeed in doing that, but it certainly did not bring the Body together.

He continued, "I want this restored to My Church and these devotions are instrumental in that.

"There are many such errors in truth that have been passed down as doctrine when in fact it was motivated by opinion and personal preference. I want you, My People, to believe and practice only the truth, not personal opinions of men. I want to restore many things to you, but you must be courageous in going against the peer pressure and public opinion. Open your mouths and I will fill you with courage to go against heresies and lies. You may lose friends, but in Heaven they will be cheering you on and supporting you with their prayers.

"This also applies to My true presence in the Communion host when it is properly consecrated. Research this and you will find places on this Earth where My heart bleeds, because truly the host is not bread any longer after the words of consecration, it is My Body under the appearance of bread and wine. It is transformed when the words of consecration are spoken, by the power of the Holy Spirit. Those who call this alchemy or witchcraft are in serious trouble for condemning that which is of God. It is blasphemy of the Holy Spirit.

" Many have done this out of ignorance, not knowing any better, but others do it deliberately out of rancor to support their ideas. In the sixth chapter of John, I make it very clear, unmistakably clear, that the host is My Body under the appearance of bread and wine. When I spoke those words, the Pharisees and Scribes understood them perfectly, that is why they departed from the crowd. To say that I am the bread of life, and my flesh is true food, My blood is true drink was a serious offense to them, because the life of man is in the blood, and you who believe are receiving it daily."

We are receiving the life of Jesus.

"Please, on that note, take care to receive Me worthily, with adoration, thanksgiving, and completely exclusive attention.

"This and many other things, that are helps to Heaven and holiness have been discontinued and forbidden. There will come a time when irrefutable proof will be given to man, blessed are those who are already practicing these truths and are able to teach others. Great will be your reward in Heaven, but woe to those who denounce them, they will be among those who have blasphemed My Holy Spirit. Search the Scriptures, My Beloved ones and see for yourself whether these things be true. You will find them there, if you set aside your human reasonings and accept the words I spoke at face value. I bless you now the with courage to go ahead and discover and proclaim the truth.”

I Went Astray

April 13th, 2022

May we remain steadfast to the end of our lives Lord and live the way that You would have us to live, knowing that we are made in Your image and likeness. Amen.

“Lord I miss you, but I also feel very unseated, kind of like a limbo,” Mother Clare began, “Please bring my head back to where it belongs, and if you want me to embark on something please make it very, very clear.”

“My Beloved spouse, thank you for coming to Me and trusting Me to speak to you. This means a lot to Me. Stay steady in your convictions, do not allow yourself to be thrown into confusion which is what the enemy would like.

“Numerous times now, I have exhorted you to TRUST in Me and My plans for you. And no, you will not die if you stay on the path you have begun. I want to see consistency, not on again off again or I will take you. It is sad that I must come to this place with you, but you have not stepped up to be strong in your convictions. Eating, news and such have devoured so much time I had given you for music, I simply had to call a halt to this once and for all, so you are on probation. If you want to be raptured, you must be worthy by proving yourself faithful to choose My will over yours with no compromise. I love you and will always love you, but you must be a better example to the community and stay on track, no excuses about your age, because that has nothing to do with it. You make a conscious self-will choice, that is rebellion. This must stop.

“Now you are moving forward and more and more joy will come to you as you continue to move forward. I hate to scare you, but understand, I am quite serious about this. I will love you all the same, but it will be a great disappointment to you when you see what you COULD have done if only you had obeyed. Your husband has been trying to get your attention about the news for a very, very long time. But because of your pride, you would not listen. Now I am telling you, he is right and you were wrong. So wrong that you have wasted a lot of time and gone down rabbit trails, not nourishing the flock as I wanted you to.

"I hope in days to come that your focus will begin to include the precious teachings of bridal experiences, because in the days to come, much hope and focus on Heaven will be necessary to all souls. I hope you find it in your heart to truly repent for this."

"Lord, please will you help me."

"I am helping you now by telling you how you have failed Me and the channel. If that is not enough to make you contrite...what can I say."

"I'm afraid to look at how bad I have been."

"And you should be, but in this moment a real turning away from the things you know I do not approve of, needs to happen. I am more lenient now because of the times you live in and the enemy's attacks against you."

"Do you want me to listen to Anna Rountree?"

"Yes, this would benefit you greatly, she obeyed Me, where you went astray. Clare, My deeply loved one and all My loved ones who have gone astray, I want you to forgive yourself and keep going in the right direction. I have forgiven you, and what you did only accents how very weak you are, and this will give others hope.

"I forgive you; I love you so very much and I sympathize with your desire to know and understand things. But it is not necessary to your calling to make music, other than portraying evil when it is called for, such as in the China Cry song. That was inspired by Me to warn My people how very serious the threats are. You did well with that.

"You know how your blood sugar drops when you hear something threatening or very disappointing? Well what you need in those moments is something sweet to offset the crash. It is the same way with your channel, they have been steeped in the bitter with very little hope, now it is time to feed them the sweets and bring their hope back up. They will be crushed under the weight of bitterness if it continues...they need hope from you, not doom and gloom.

“As concerns, the projected and upcoming events, they are all written in Scripture and it is good for you to study that as you have with Pastor Paul’s presentations. I approve of them. You will see just how serious the near future events are. However, I am Sovereign and will intervene at critical times and in critical places, so please keep that in mind. I will not allow everything in Satan’s agenda to be done to Earth, I will intervene.

He very tenderly leaned into my face and said, “Clare, do not be sad and discouraged. Come on, pick yourself up and keep going. There is much to be learned from your time of distractions. Most of all right now, I want you to know you are forgiven, and I love you dearly. I want you to feel this love, grasp it tightly to your heart and keep on going.”

He kissed me and said, “Let’s keep going. You can do this; I am with you and together we will do many wonderful things. Just grab hold of the rope of grace I am offering you and let’s move on.”

“Okay Lord, thank you. But my heart is heavy.”

“That is not such a bad thing considering your mistakes and pride. It is healthy to grieve over lost opportunities and progress.”

When I went on the internet to find Anna Rountree, this Rhema popped up:

“Simon son of John, do you love Me more than these? Feed My lambs.

In The Storm Song of Hope

April 14th, 2022

God of hope, fill us with all joy and peace as we put our trust in You.
Amen.

Jesus began, "Do you know how much this song means to Me?"

"Lord I guess not; I'm getting weary with it."

"It is way important for those who will have no hope whatsoever. Don't you trust Me to get it out there when it is most needed? Let Me put it this way, if your life depended on this song, would it then be important?"

"So, you see, so many will commit suicide when their loved ones are taken from them. This song, will turn many back from that course of action. I have My plans, which no one can ruin and this song is one of My courses of action to convince others how much I love them, how much hope there truly is, how much they are forgiven, and how much I am with them."

"Without this song, many souls will not make it into Heaven Clare. So, do you see now? This song is very, very, very important to Me. Please, give it your best, don't grow weary of it, it means so very much to Me. Certainly enough that every time you work on it your husband becomes very sick. For his sake, give it your all, believe in Me, believe this work is Mine."

"The anointing is on it. Don't be concerned that you don't sound as good as so and so. Rather be concerned that compassion in your heart links to your voice and convinces souls of My undying love and devotion to them. Enough said, let's work on it."

"Lord, I'm sorry. I am so sorry. You are dealing with my rotten unbelief again."

"Do you know, so many composers worked in a vacuum just like you do? Did you know that rotten produced, sometimes found its way to their faces? What I have given you is not safe, not easy, not full of merry companionship. Rather it is My portion of scorn and contempt, because you are My Bride, I share this with you."

"I know it is hard. I know all about the loneliness, that's why we are so close, I hope to fill the gap that Christian fellowship should have filled for you. This is My promise to you, you may not find much consolation from others in this lifetime, but when it is all said and done, you will garner much happiness and satisfaction knowing that your contribution was important to Me whether anyone else recognized it or not.

"Indeed, that is so often the stumbling block good, holy and anointed musicians fall over; the opinion of others. I have spared you that grief, for now. So just apply yourself My love, and continue to put others in the place of the song, especially people like your children. This is the incentive that will ground you to the song.

"I love you precious, precious woman and all My Heartdwellers, I adore and dote over you, don't for a minute think you are ever alone in your work for Me, I am in it and with you all 100 percent!!"

"Thank you Lord Jesus."

Eleven Year Old Child Tortured

April 14th, 2022

The Lord bless you, dear Heart Dwellers.

Lord, please teach us Your ways and how to be yielding to one another.
Amen.

So, this prayer came up because -we had a little-conflict, I guess you could say, about building a little shed. So, I want to make sure I am not too stubborn and overbearing, and that I am in the Lord's will when I ask for something. So, I was really searching my heart and Him for the right answer, and I was very, very leery about getting any kind of confirmation that I was doing the right thing, because, you know, when you are attached to how things turn out, you could make things up or the enemy could come in as a familiar spirit and insert something that will justify you. We do not want to do that, we want to stay in God's will, we do not want justification for our will.

So, I said, I am here Lord.

And He replied, "Peace."

Lord, please guide me in Your ways, and please pray for the community. I am open to correction if what I am asking is not Your will. Please show me the way I should go. Blessed Mother please help me to do the right thing.

And I heard a voice that said, "You are doing the right thing."

And I thought, I do not trust you. So, I discounted it, got the holy water out and I said, Please Lord do not let a familiar spirit come in, I want to do what is right according to Your will.

And then I thought, you know, this is something that may take a little time to settle so I am going to move on, because there are things that are important for all of us, and for the world in this message today.

So, I asked, what is on Your hearts today?

And the Lord replied immediately, "These atrocities are only the tip of the iceberg."

Now what He is talking about here is, a young girl, eleven years old that was- had her hands tied behind her back, they put a swastika, carved a swastika into her skin, and killed her. Who knows what else they did, but it was really terrible?

"These atrocities again," as He said, "Are only the tip of the iceberg. There are more than you can number, cry out to Me for them and I will show mercy."

My God! My God! Oh, dear Lord please protect the innocent ones. Jesus, mercy, we desperately need mercy for these souls, and sustain me in prayer for these poor victims.

And Jesus answered me, "Pray in this way and many more will be saved. These are things that just do not get out, but they need to so that others can pray from the heart with mercy.”

So, I asked Him, you know, if He wanted me to do a message on it and He said, “Not quite yet.” because there is more that He wants to reveal to me.

And He continued, “Prayer is a deep responsibility I want all My People to shoulder, especially for the Satanic spirit behind these events. These events are hateful and senseless, and they show the true nature of the enemy, which has still not been recognized by the masses.”

It is not the countries or the people, it is the devil and people who give in to the devil.

“They do not see what you see because they are wrapped up in political loyalties, which blind them to the truth. But every once in a while, crimes such as these are brought to light, but many shun them because they are so gross.”

Speaking of political loyalties, the Russians have been accused of leaving Kiev, being forced out of Kiev, and shooting every civilian in sight. That is a total lie. First of all, the Russians have surrounded Kiev and are begging people to leave down a safe passageway corridor. And second of all, a private in the Russian army, who identified himself by name, has disclosed that they had nothing at all to do with that slaughter that took place. That was the Nazis that are in Ukraine, it was Ukrainian soldiers who murdered all those people on the way out. And because of the political loyalties of certain news agencies, they are not telling the truth, they are blaming it on Russia. And Russia has been extremely humanitarian about helping the people, but none of that is getting out, and they did not lose Kiev, they have surrounded Kiev and are moving in to take it. They just want to reduce the kind of casualties that can happen, so they are begging people to leave, ‘Please leave Kiev before we take the city.’ So, it is a good thing for all of us to remember every time you hear a Russian smear, you can about guarantee that it is coming from a biased source and that the reverse of what they are saying is true.

“Clare, this same evil force is already in power behind this country and is coming to America. In war men do irrational things, they give full fury to the evil fantasies of their hearts. Many things are implanted in their minds to do great wickedness, through electronic media. Then when the moment comes and no one can see them, they give full vent to Satan’s hatred for God and everything and everyone He created. War is a time of great demonic suppression and wickedness because these things can be hidden under the guise of violence. Prayer short circuits the demonic impulses and helps to prevent this.”

So, just to clarify, He is saying here there are demons behind these horrible acts and the way to short circuit it is to pray and bind the demons, pray against that, the demons' impulses being put onto men to do such things. I said, Oh Lord our God, PLEASE have mercy on the innocents. Jesus, it is more terrible than we can imagine. Please let our prayers put a stop to it. Please count our prayers for these little ones. I am not giving you the full scope of what was done to the eleven-year-old girl, but you can imagine it was pretty awful.

"The wickedness of the world," Jesus continued, "Is being brought to the light of day so My People can invest their hearts in their meditations while they pray. Please do not be daunted by the number of them, I promise you each one of your prayers has an impact on souls, even on their salvation."

Now what is interesting about that is Ezekiel just told me that he was told by the Lord that every Hail Mary was going to be a soul that was added to the Kingdom. And, you know, it is the Lords' choice as to exactly how He moves on our prayers. So, it is not beyond the realm of possibility that a Hail Mary would loose the graces necessary for them to receive Jesus and be saved. And I want to be very clear on this, the only way to the Father is through Jesus Christ. He is the One who paid the debt for our sins, but graces have to be released to deliver the truth to people so they can be converted, so what He is basically saying here is that a Hail Mary said with intention and meditating, of course, on the mystery, but a Hail Mary, He will honor that and loose the graces for someone to be saved. That does not mean that Mary saves, it is not about Mary it is about Jesus, so let us get that one clear just in case someone might misunderstand. Ok, moving on.

He said, "What was said to you about concessions given for each Hail Mary, was absolutely true. Embrace it, use it, teach it, these are exceptional times in which I am giving exceptional graces for every soul who takes on the role of their brother's keeper. This is what brotherly love is all about. Looking after the needs, circumstances, desperation of your brothers and sisters around the world. What a great grace has been given to you all, who can truly embrace their dire straits."

And it is a grace to be able to connect with their plight, you know, it is not just a rote prayer, you really feel it in your heart.

He continued, "This is the kind of love and compassion I want all My Christians to take on and operate from. It is needed by the hurting ones of the world."

The hurting and the injured.

"Those who are lost in their souls, have nowhere to turn, and they have been betrayed by those who were supposed to be helping them...but only harmed them. For this reason, your prayers are very powerful because this is an exceptional time, so please, My People, be faithful and remember- someone, somewhere is suffering, and they need your intercession.

“Bless you now in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.”

Chronicles of the Bride - Sister Therese Nightly Sky

Sanctified Imagination:

Nightly Scene at the Shore with Jesus

Hello, dear ones, may the Lord bless you all. I had gotten a Rhema when I had this encounter, and it said, “Accept the kingdom of God like a little child.” Then, as I was listening to worship songs, there came at random an audio message which was, “Casual Day with Jesus in Heaven”. It popped out at shuffle, which h made me wonder, this is the second time He seems to bring this up. So, I was thinking “Lord, are you wanting me to be with you?” [using sanctified imagination].

Having Jesus (the Monstrance) near me, I laid my head on the chair and just settled down and close my eyes. . .

I found myself sitting on a calm beach, with pastel sand. The vast ocean waters before me were calm and peaceful. Jesus was with me at my right, sitting on the sand also. We stayed there in the presence of one another, ever so calmly. I felt like a rose who enjoys the warmth of the sun, soaking in the presence of my Jesus—cheerful and smiling while having my eyes closed. Words were not said then, just worship songs in the air. Suddenly, a cute turtle baby makes his way out of the water and passes between us. It was so cute as it emanated cheerful energy off itself, seen in its blueish eyes, as it nodded its head in a greeting. It seemed to be smiling—so little.

Then the gentle waves brought to shore some water glasses. It was strange seeing them there, but I picked them up and tried them on. I looked at Jesus who seemed amused seeing me with those funny-shaped glasses.

A song was playing now, and Jesus picked it up to sing along with me, “How deep the Father’s love for us...” The way he sang, the gentle tone yet passionate about his Father... Who can sing like Jesus?

I took up some lyrics and I sang, holding his hand as he listened and soaked in the moment before his tender eyes. As I finished the song, I had my eyes on his pierced hands. Holding his open hands into mine made this act of his love for me so real – his holes, right before my eyes. This image became so solid in me. They spoke loudly—His wounds, this act that He did—even without words said.

After some moments, I lean on the Lord’s left shoulder, as before us was now a nightly sky. We began gazing at the stars. It was a clear night sky—bright with many stars. I noticed Jesus pointing at one specific star and He makes a move and simultaneously, to His moving of the hand, the star up in the sky began to move, following his movements—descending on the horizon, passing through the calm nightly water, making a trail on the water by its soft fast flight— and the star stopped before us, hovering gently right before our eyes now. I extended my hand, my left hand, and it moved toward it, and I noticed some tiny legs of light hand on my hand, with little hands appearing from the light – it seemed like a little fairy but made me think— a tiny little angel. I wondered, “Is this even possible, stars in heaven are like this?” However, it was sweet to gaze at this little star.

Sitting and hanging onto Jesus’s arm, we gaze at the distant bright light in the sky as it reflected light on the water, and I wondered, “Is there a moon in Heaven, Lord?” thinking how it is said that the Lord will be our source of light (taken out of context here..). To this, a thought came to my mind, and I soon see that from that light— moon-sized light came out tiny little light, as [if] from a dimensional portal. The little lights softly flew all over the scene. They resembled fireflies, but white in light beautiful in this calm nightly scene, as they went up to their way to our left, somewhere up in the sky eventually.

Having my eyes back to the waters before us, I noticed [out of] the corner of my eyes there was a bright-looking thing from beyond Jesus’s right side. I looked and there was a house, a modern-looking house, uphill. It had its lights on. The whole house was lit up with its lights, and I sensed there were some people over there, gathering and enjoying an event. The front of the house was facing the shore. On the left side of the house, which was toward us, from there I noticed that there were long stairs leading to the beach Jesus and I were on. I could spot also that the stairs ended in a little environment here below, with cut-out bushes and some flowers, which then led the way to the sandy shore—to the opening of the sea. Behind me and Jesus were some tall trees. Everything was quiet. The only sound was cheerful noise— cheerful energy coming from the house uphill. But where Jesus, and I were, it was quiet. We were taking a refuge escape by coming down here—just the two of us.

Still looking at the scene around us, on the far end, on our right side—more likely a hill going into the water—up there I noticed a Bonsai tree. It was rich in foliage—in pink, light colors and each leaf was shining. The tree possessed soft white, pinkish light from the foliage. And then I thought, “The moon, the remaining fireflies, and now this shimmering tree...” In the far distance was a contrast of a dark navy-blue sky and water.

Normally, there is no cold in Heaven, but I now see a fire before us, and Jesus and I are covered with a light blanket. This blanket, I sensed, was a spiritual covering, one that helps the soul calm down.

An aside:

Because to be honest with you, as I was going through all of this, using the sanctified imagination, there was obviously some opposition against my mind. The Lord, I remembered, as I was pushing forth to still be there with the Lord on that beach, I noticed Jesus was telling me—suggesting to my spirit, to discern between the fruits of everything that I see. To this, I went back, and I tried again from the place where I had stopped—discerning that if it was a good thing, I kept it and continued. If it was a bad/ill scene, I disregarded it and tried anew from the last good scene.

So, let's continue:

The fire before us had some dry wood as its flame crackled a little, releasing some little sparkle in the sky. I reasoned, "Is there dry wood in. heaven, Lord? Since there are no 'dead things', how then is it burning dry wood?" The Lord speaks inside me, saying "Well, nothing is impossible in heaven, right?" making me realize there must be a substance resembling dry wood, [in order to have a fire]. He has his ways, I guess.

The fire gently swirled here and there, releasing glimmering little lights in the sky. And I noticed, quietly observing the fire—"The fire is dancing for you, Lord," I said to him in my heart. And He seemed to smile at this thought while gazing at it. Somehow, I found myself now holding a hovering flame in my hand, the size of a tennis ball. Jesus had one also. The little flame gave off such caring love for its master and Lord—it caressed Jesus' face. It did not burn us, it did no damage to Jesus' beard or his hair. A pure flame, in love with its Lord. I looked at the little one in my own hand and it felt so alive. We lingered with them for a while, and we ended up putting them back in the fire where they joined the whole "family"—in the fire.

Being there and leaning on Jesus, the songs were still playing, and I fell into a peaceful rest of mind, soul, and body—being wooed into a state of almost falling asleep.

But soon, the song, "Victory in Jesus"! It brings me out of it and opened my eyes. I stopped the worship songs, and I went to discern if what I had seen was from the Lord, — I got, "Joy." And my heart leaped. I was encouraged to know that everything that had experienced was actually from the Lord.

Chronicles of the Bride - Little Gabriella Grandpa's Valley

April 15th, 2022

Hello Heartdwellers Family,

This is little Gabriella. As the Lord has been having many of our brothers and sisters share their experiences with heaven, I felt the Lord wished for me to share a few experiences that I had myself.

I found myself on a grassy knoll like the one at the beginning of the Sound of Music with mountains at my back, forests to my left, and a big lake at my right while right before me were rolls and rolls of grassy hills as far as the eye can see. Almost at the horizon were mountains near the sky. I was about 9 or 12 with bare feet and wearing a long white sundress with my arms bare and my golden hair to the small of my back, wavy, curly, and free. It never got into my eyes even though a soft wind was blowing.

The grass was like a beautiful carpet soft and inviting to my feet. And hidden, if you looked closely, there were all sorts of small flowers; forget-me-nots, violets, clovers, dewdrops, and buttercups. I had been to this place before and was thankful to see it again. As it was, when I was very young, I was here in dreams. Seeing this in Heaven confirmed that the dreams and visions before had been true. This was the place where I would feel so free, safe, and at peace that I would sing and dance for the Lord worshiping Him in His creation. So, I went singing and dancing and skipping to Jesus down one hill to another. I then heard a call behind me and looking, saw Jesus where I had started.

I raced down the hill and up another to reach Him and on top of one of the knolls we reached each other, and He twirled me around and around, threw me up into the air as I turned into a little 5-year-old and then held me close in a big embrace as I place my head on His chest, His beautiful young bride. Jesus' beauty has always captivated me in a star-struck way. Like seeing someone in person who you have watched on the TV. Whenever we have been together, I never remember what we have talked about for His very face puts all thoughts out of my head and all I can think of is that He is here and how beautiful and wonderful He is. So, I know as usual we walked and talked for a while, but I have no idea what was said.

Probably a conversation that we had later when I hear His voice but do not see His face, I need that veil, so I don't get distracted. We were walking by the sea when we heard two Neighs behind us. We turned and there was Jesus's horse Lightning and my chestnut Cinder. I ran to Cinder greeting her and giving her a big hug. Jesus smiled and greeted Lightning. His horse is the most beautiful, strong, and vibrant horse you have never ever seen yet will only allow Jesus with His humility to ride him. "Care to go for a ride?" Jesus asked.

“Of Course,” I replied. Always a gentleman Jesus helped me to get onto Cinder’s back and then vaulted Himself onto Lightening.

We then raced across the sand neck and neck, the horses going as fast as they could (or at least how Cinder could, I’m sure Lightening could go faster but always the gentleman held back for our sakes). We were riding bareback and yet we felt one with our mounts with no jarring. It was like flying over the landscape, yet it was with our favorite equines. Jesus guided Lightening to the left and I followed as we raced over the hills and then raced into the forest, jumping over anything in our way.

Over time we stopped and meandered through the forest as Jesus found us a trail that was big enough for both of our horses to walk with each other. It was then that all sorts of forest animals came to see us pass in honor of their Lord. Even a magnetic stag with a big rack came out of the forest and bowed in honor to the Lord Jesus. We left the forest and were again traveling over the grassy knolls when Jesus stopped on top of a hill and looked down into a valley. I looked down and saw a huge wooden cottage. Beside the cottage on one side a river flowed and beside the other was a huge workshop. Joined to the workshop was a huge stable and behind the stable was a barn. I gasped in delight for there, below in the workshop was my grandfather.

In an instant Cinder responded to my desire and galloped down the hill into the valley with Jesus behind. My grandfather looked up hearing the hoofprints and smiled coming out of his workshop as I faulted off Cinder to give my grandfather a big hug. My grandfather was a Carpenter and all that we saw he had made with his own hands, most of it with Jesus’ help. They were now working on furniture and things for my mansion as well as those in our family that had not yet come to Heaven.

They were looking forward to us enjoying the work of their hands. They both smiled saying that they enjoyed each other’s company and working together. I could see this knowing smile of intimacy between them as they talked, knowing what they had planned for us but keeping it a surprise for now as I was not invited into the cottage or the workshop, stable, or barn for a closer look. As I looked around, I saw Amy my grandfather’s favorite horse peek her head outside the stable door.

The stable was big enough to hold at least fifty horses and the barn seemed to hold all the chickens, cows, pigs, and even my bunny that my grandfather had gotten for me. This time my grandfather placed Bunny into my arms. “Take her home with you.” He said. “She will like your garden.” I was so thankful that now Bunny would be staying with me. I then asked. “If you’re here where are my grandmothers?”

My grandpa smiled and said. “If you saw your Grandmother Ruth you would never want to leave, and if Grandma Bacon saw you, she would never let you leave!” We both laughed at that for it was soooo true. Jesus then said. “It’s time to go.” I gave my grandfather a big hug and getting back onto Cinder Grandpa placed Bunny in my arms. As we were about to go Grandpa called out after me. "And tell that son of mine that I love him!" "I will" I promised. And that was the end of the trip in Heaven.

Pray There Will Be A Remnant For America

April 18th, 2022

Lord, please give us the courage to live through what is coming and pray for the lost. Amen.

Today's Rosary Mysteries of course, being Good Friday, were the Sorrowful. And really, before I had a chance to ask the Lord anything, I heard, 'The Agony in The Garden' being announced for us to pray, the mysteries of The Agony in The Garden.

And then Jesus said, "This is exactly where I am in this moment, in great agony..."

Then I heard, "My soul is sorrowful unto death."

Then the Lords' voice again, "These are torturous times when the death of billions hang in the balance."

Lord, I get the feeling....

He interrupted me, "Plans are being put into motion to annihilate your country."

And I said yes, that is the feeling I get.

"It is not just about NATO Clare."

And then I heard, "Father if it be possible let this cup pass from Me...yet not My will but Yours."

Jesus continued, "It is about America because her crimes cry out and reverberate to the Heavens. Heavy, heavy, and weighty are the punishments she has coming, because she is behind so much of the death, rioting, disease, and chaos that has been spread around the world with her assistance, training men how to rip open pregnant women and rape children. All this and more is taught at that school."

The School of The Americas, they are a scandalous place. And they are teaching how to turn the people against their legitimately elected leaders and replace them with Communists.

"Oh, how sorry a state you have fallen into America. I gave you freedom only to see you turn around and enslave the world. How bitter is this cup?"

"I brought My people here so they could live a free and unfettered life, only to see them turn around and plot against the innocent of the world, destroying seed so poor farmers must buy it from them, overturning good governments, installing butchers where men of peace had ruled. How very horrendous America, are your sins that cry out from under the Earth all around the world."

"What she has coming Clare, is more than what you can bear to see. Pray for this nation, great will be her demise. The great ones are coming down."

Meaning the great nations of the world- China, Russia, depends on who their allegiances are with.

He continued, "There is a plan in motion and waiting, to take down all who do not support the black hats. There will be no room for dissidents, therefore the dark ones are bent on destroying every country that has a different agenda than their One World agenda."

"So many lives will be lost, pray deeply from the heart for the survival of a remnant of your nation, and for so many unsaved souls that will cry out to Me in their last moments."

Lord, mercy, mercy, mercy please for those who are asleep.

He continued, "That is My Heart and what I overflow with. However, it is quite difficult in the face your nations' crimes against humanity."

And that was the end of His message.

So obviously we really need to pray for our country and the world, because it is coming.

And just as a note, dear family, the Lord really, really needs to be comforted That is some of the reasons why His messages are so short, because He is got a lot on His mind, and He is in such agony over all the innocent people and children and things that are going to be destroyed. His Heart is just breaking. So, and for those of you who are new to the channel, this is about America, that our Lord is talking about.

So please pray, pray that our leaders of the nations will do the right thing, and pray for a repentant America, that she will survive this chastisement.

Thank you, God bless you, Heart Dwellers.

Repent America! Judgment Cometh

April 18th, 2022

Lord, grant America a repentant heart and turn us away from sin and unrighteous and back to you. Amen.

During the fourth decade of the Divine Mercy Chaplet, I saw Jesus carrying His Cross along the Via Dela Rosa, there were what looked like lifeless, bloody bodies piled up high on either side of Him, as He slowly and deliberately walked towards the place of execution. The Lord would frequently stop before one of the bodies, lean down and lift their chin and whisper something to them and then kiss the top of their heads. After He did this, then the body would be instantly surrounded by hundreds of people all praying in their Heavenly language for the soul. I noticed the bodies that Jesus touched would move ever so slightly and then go still after this large group of people would pray, and this touching and precious scene was repeated over and over again as the Lord made His way toward Calvary.

I felt like Jesus was bringing us deep, deep into His heart, showing us how He feels when we pray for a soul moments before they pass away and they turn to Him in the last seconds of their lives. Some taking their last breath and unable to speak, but in their hearts, they acknowledge that Jesus is their Lord and Savior.

I also could see thousands of bodies didn't accept Jesus into their hearts, how terrible and devastating to our Lord that these souls still turned away from Him at the hour of their death. You could feel the anguish and heartbreaking pain Jesus was experiencing.

Father Ezekiel also had a vision of a huge soccer stadium in England and there were multitudes of people in the stands, but no players on the field. All of sudden the vast number of people came running down from the stands and rushed the field running from one goal to another, but before they could reach the other field goal they instantly dropped dead.

America's and the whole world's chastisement is coming very soon, God's judgment will fall on us if we do not repent of our sins and turn to Him for forgiveness and His merciful love. If we do not turn from our wicked ways and forgive others, there will be hundreds of thousands of souls destined for hell. Repent, forgive and run into the waiting arms of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Father Ezekiel just pulled a Rhema which said, "Many will be saved though not all, and some will be saved as going through the fire."

Our Journey of Purification

April 19th, 2022

Lord Jesus, please help us to trust and be willing to be purified and made ready for our wedding day. Amen.

Mother Clare began, "Well Heart Dwellers, what an amazing story in Anna Rountree's video, The Priestly Bride. What a revealing story of being purified in Heaven and made ready for our Heavenly Spouse, so very, very beautiful.

"Jesus, I am so ashamed of the way I have treated You, put You off for some earthly advantage...to finish this or that project. I want to love You with all of my heart, and respond instantly. I will no longer excuse myself saying I am weak, rather I confess that I am presumptuous and disrespectful. My God, My God, please help Me."

He proceeded to give me a quick answer, "That's the idea. We want to purify you for this mission, there are many stages to this purification and you have already begun to embrace them. How I love your response and what you are noticing that needs to be changed.

"You are not alone Clare, My Beloved, the whole Body must also undergo this transformation. Do not be afraid to recognize yourself, when she reveals her sins, this will give you the advantage to recognize them which is the first step to conquering them. The more candid you are with yourself, the better.

"I wish for all My Brides to prepare themselves by cleaning the world out of their environment, and most of all out of their hearts. This is why I brought forth this video, so that all of you could see where you might stand now and how to remedy it. I am waiting patiently to assist in this process. The sooner you identify your faults, the faster it will go. Do not be afraid to confront these things, you will find great freedom in this cleansing. Beloved, remember when you left your stylish lifestyle in Annapolis?"

"Yes Lord, I do remember."

"Truly that life change was a renaissance and the entering into a new level of holiness. This will be a refresher course for you with new equipping. You have fought long and hard and truly you are in need of a refreshing. And as you get rid of the things that are dragging you down, you will spring to life and flourish, in body, soul and spirit. Do not be afraid of this radical and hard work, for the labor will be truly rewarding, and you will lead others in this process. Don't worry you will not be alone, We (Father, Son, Holy Spirit and Mary) are with you.

"My dove, you will be greatly relieved when this restoration to purity comes about. Yes, you will be purified, snow white and ready for Heaven. This must happen for all who are to be raptured. As circumstances change in this nation, there will be ample opportunity. We are doing this together, and those who wish to join us, you may. You are invited to follow this in your own homes. I will honor all your efforts and visit you, of that you can be sure.

"Clare, I want you to keep a daily log of what sins you discover in yourself and it will help so very many to tackle theirs as well. I speak courage to all of you My Beloveds, have much courage and honesty with yourselves and others. Every effort you make to purify your motives will accelerate the time when I will come for you in the Rapture. Trust Me."

As He finished speaking, I remembered my second deeper conversion in Annapolis, Maryland. I had been an Evangelical, Charismatic Christian for about seven years and I still felt I was not living the Gospel. I longed to walk the dusty roads of the past with Jesus and His disciples, and middle-class Christianity was really lacking. I didn't see the humility and poverty that Jesus lived. That's when I discovered John Michael Talbot's music, which led me to a deeper walk which I wanted with all my heart.

Where I had been for seven years, just didn't feel right, attending church on Sunday was like being part of a fashion show. The poor were shunned and the beautiful people were well connected. Something just reeked of the world. Around this time John Michael Talbot had put out a couple of albums. A friend introduced me to them. The very moment I heard his album, I knew I had found the path of Christianity that was pure of heart and void of the world.

When I found out he was Catholic, a Franciscan 3rd order friar, I became very embarrassed because I was taught and repeated, that Catholics were idol worshippers. Nothing could be further from the truth. Rather I came to the conclusion that contemporary Christianity worshipped lifestyle and was full of idols, nice cars, houses, the latest fashions in makeup and clothing, and worst of all shunning the poor and lower class. That profile did not resemble my Jesus at all.

When I began to study what Catholics believed, I realized they were right in many things, especially the communion of saints...meaning that the Body of Christ is One, whether on earth or in Heaven, and the Holy Spirit who knows and permeates all things makes it possible for the cloud to hear petitions from earth. I have searched and searched and found that there is no place in the Bible that says, in Heaven you cannot pray for a soul on earth. Where this foolish doctrine came from, I don't know, but the fruits of engaging Heaven in our battles has proven that the great cloud of witnesses is very real and willing to pray for us, who are still on the earth engaged in life and death struggles.

Aside from this proof, can you imagine being in Heaven, seeing your granddaughter cross the street when a bus is coming and just cheering her on. Of course, we would call out to God to save her.

In 1 Timothy 2, we get a very clear distinction between mediator and intercessor, starting at chapter 2, verse 2.

"Jesus Christ gave Himself as a ransom for all, therefore He is the only one who can mediate between God and man."

NOTE: Many people assume this means that no one else can pray for us in Heaven, intercede, or make supplication. However, earlier in the paragraph we are told to pray, intercede and make supplications for all men.

So obviously to be a mediator is not the same as to be an intercessor, in this context of first Timothy, or this statement would negate the opening line, "First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people,"

So what distinguishes a mediator from an intercessor? The Blood of Christ which paid the ransom once and for all for our sins, He is the Mediator. The rest of us are intercessors. And there is no scripture in the Bible prohibiting prayer from Heaven. This clarifies Mary's role as an intercessor. Jesus would not turn the water into wine at the wedding in Cana, until His mother asked Him. Though He showed no sign of wanting to reveal His mission prematurely, Mary knew His Heart of Mercy and that He would do it anyway. And what did she say when she turned to the servants who were anxiously looking on? "Do whatever He tells you." And guess what...she is still telling us, "Do whatever He tells you." Mary is all about facilitating the saving of souls and preparing the Bride for her groom. And who would be better to prepare the Bride...than His own mother? Anyone who thinks Catholics worship Mary is grossly misinformed. They honor her, but worship God alone. So, to come full circle, I recognized myself when Anna confessed.

God bless you and keep you dear Heart Dwellers, and let's continue moving forward in faith and call upon our heavenly intercessors to pray with us while we intercede for others in need.

Going to Heaven at Will

April 19th, 2022

Thank you, God, that You are always with us, that Your presence is mighty and you hear and answer our prayers on behalf of others in need. Amen.

Mother Clare began, "Blessed Mother, tell me, what is on your heart today."

"Truly my heart aches for the people in Sri Lanka, and all that will suffer in this very same manner. It would be good to share with the channel that this is the way the government will get control of them. When they can no longer obtain necessities, riots will be set off, there will be chaos and then the government will step in to save the day.

“My children, unless you know you are called to the facilities, they offer you, please do not go in. For many it will mean death. Better that you should forage in the wilderness than be taken prisoner in these infamous places.

“I want to speak to you about your second mind. I want you to realize that you have a place to retreat to. This is not for physical comfort, that should already have been put in place, but for spiritual comfort and fortitude. We have encouraged you to take trips to Heaven with the Lord, and this activity will be a saving grace for many. Music is not a necessity to go to Heaven, so do not abandon this practice if your music is not available just then.”

And here Mother Mary makes a good point, when communications are cut off, we will not have electronics available to us, so it is good practice NOW to visit Heaven in the spirit. It is wonderfully refreshing and it revives us when we are feeling the pressures we currently are living under. If you haven't already, start today to take a celestial visit. Enjoy these precious moments of heavenly delights.

Blessed Mother continued, “Still your soul in a quiet and uninterrupted place, set aside at least an hour to be with Him exclusively, and wait on Him. Your imagination has everything to do with this endowment, do not discount what you believe you are imagining because the imagination is the stepping stone to the presence of God. Would your father give you a snake if you asked for a fish? Of course not. The only time God would allow a deceiving spirit is if He was working with your pride and presumption, and you had been judging others. Keep your hearts pure and clean and you have nothing to fear.

“The Lord will come and take your hand, but it is also permissible for you to go back to the place where you and He have been before, but on your own. Understand my children, Heaven is your home, therefore you may go there.

“In these most treacherous times, it has been decreed for you to be allowed to go to Heaven at will. In this way you will not be overcome by the complete darkness all around you. This is your medicine, a place where you can be rejuvenated and the reality of your true and eternal home can be refreshed. You are high above all dark forces, and when you are in Heaven this becomes apparent.

“In Heaven you will be shown many wonderful things and come to truly deep understanding that Heaven awaits you and in a very short while, many of you will be taken there. In the meantime, visiting is the next best thing, and it helps to adjust your reality about what you are living for. Look up my dear ones and fix your mind upon My Son and on the gloriously, divine eternity that awaits you.”

Angels Among the Dying Victims of War

April 20th, 2022

Lord God, please use us to bring comfort to those who have no hope of salvation. Let us be instruments of your Divine Love. Amen.

As we came into the Rosary, I asked Our Lady, beautiful Lady, tell us what is on your holy heart?

She answered me, "The very great need for mercy, all around the world. Clare, everywhere you go there is violence and death. Ezekiel has responded to our request that during the Rosary you are to go to those who are dying, especially in the Ukraine although it is this bad everywhere, cradle the heads of the dying in your hands, and show them the tender love of Jesus. He was not told to give them absolutions or communion, but just to love them tenderly."

Dear ones, we are the hands of Christ, all He wants from us is to show them tender merciful love and He will do the rest. We are praying the Rosary now and each member of the community is being taken to a dying soul to show them the love of Jesus.

I had a vision of the Blessed Mother covering each lifeless body with a gray and white woven blanket. Just now one of the mothers saw Padre Pio in the holy Eucharist that is exposed for adoration and prayer. He is taking each of us, in the spirit, to those who are most in need of God's mercy in their last moments. We appear as angels to them, and graces are clothing their souls.

Oh Lord what a beautiful work You are doing.

Jesus began, "My daughters, there is nothing more significant you could be doing right now, for the kingdom of God, than these great acts of kindness, which bring them to Me. This is a hidden work but very, very precious in the eyes of all of Heaven. This is a work that will form you into saints. It is all about love, unconditional love, even to those who have done these atrocities to others. They are not exempt from redemption. In many cases they think they are doing a holy work by getting rid of the immorality of the West.

"How mistaken they are. They will only be able to see this in Heaven because the indoctrination is so deep and from such a tender age, that they do not have a concept of what is right and what is wrong.

Therefore, you must bring them unconditional love to prove to them that there is another way. When you do this, I accompany you with great graces that cut through their conditioning and they finally are able to feel true unconditional love, instead of constant unconditional hatred. Now they have a chance to be saved. The conditioning power of love must open their hearts before they can receive Me.

“Truly you are at the hub of the wheel and being taken to the rim...spanning the globe, because this agenda of death is being enacted in every country. There is much more to do here My daughters, My Brides, and I will refresh you with My graces as you pour yourself out on them, regardless of who they are, good and bad alike. You will be surprised how many were passionate about killing Westerners but repented in the last hours of their lives because of the many kindnesses done to them by Westerners.

“You cannot out give Me; I will restore you because of your obedience. I love you dearly...soon now you will be home with Me.”

And that was the end of His message.

The Lord bless you, Heart Dwellers. And please, where there is hatred, sow love. Amen.

Chocolate Chips and Coven Attacks

April 20th, 2022

Jesus, we put on the full Armor of God to protect us from the fiery darts of the enemy, because we are no match for the enemy without You, Lord. Amen.

Mother Clare began, “Jesus, we are here. Me too if I can stay awake with Ghirardelli dark chocolate chips.”

“They take away from your fast Beloved, but I understand what you are dealing with. I know you love them and they pick you up...what will you do when you don’t have anymore?”

“I have no idea.”

"Neither do We."

"Lord please help me. I want to be awake for you, Jesus."

"They have you thinking about yourself again... oh how I wish you could just dispense with this. So far, your prayers have helped deter the nuclear option, but that is still on the table. The time of Jacob's trouble is coming Clare, it is very near. You know what that means, right?"

"The Rapture?"

He continued, "Keep working on your faults. Keep your head down and make a quick apology if you blow it as you did this morning. They work very hard to set you up because they don't want you to get messages. However, I am not stopping, because there is much to say."

Oh Lord, please say all you want me to hear. I am sorry about the chips; can you please help my body stay alert? Please?"

"You are being oppressed. You could stop it you know. The chips really help, but that's not the best way. Right now, you are with your family, what will you do to give a good example when you are not. Love one another and do not judge. You are under attack from several different covens and they think they are bound and determined to stop you. But I am bound and determined to keep you in the saddle."

"Thank you."

"For now, do not worry about the chocolate chips, but I would like to see that go eventually. You need to craft a prayer to put a stop to this, and all my dear ones who have addictions they have not yet conquered. I will help you overcome these unhealthy habits in your life. Bind the enemy in My name and use the Rhema of authority I have imparted to you." And that was the end of His message.

In the Name of Almighty God, Jesus the Christ, I bind you demons of distraction, weariness and temptations. Amen!

Secret Weapons of Communication

April 25th, 2022

Lord, teach us to guard our hearts with all diligence, for out of it flows the very issues of life. Teach us to speak the truth in love to one another. Amen.

Mother Clare began, “Recently, in the community, there was a mishap with communication and the Lord has asked me to clarify how this happened and how to prevent it in the future. Not enough sleep was part of it, impatience was another part, the need for clarity, another. Two members had a misunderstanding due to lack of communication on one part and lack of listening skills on the other.”

Jesus began, “There is great wisdom in perfecting the communication cycle. Many do not understand the importance of that and presume the other got it. This is an open door for the kind of wounds that was contracted today. When everyone is present, you should do a message on that.”

“Children, no one is fully equipped to read your mind, that is why I gave you the gift of speech. But in order to use the gift effectively, there has to be a recipient who gives a response. You would be very surprised at all the people who don’t pay attention to the detail of receiving an answer. The devils exploit that fault to widen the gap between people who need to work together. They have even attempted it between My mother and I.”

“The point is, keep all the doors shut tight against the possibility of any misunderstanding and be extremely lenient when misunderstandings arise, you can be sure that Satan is working on the other soul to be impatient or irritated with you. When you gently work things out in love, then the enemy loses.”

“The bond of peace and brotherly love is what life thrives on. Consider well what you find fault with and ask yourself if it is really necessary to talk about, or is it better left alone. Especially be sensitive to the other soul's disposition. Have they had a bad day? Then it is wisdom to wait until another time to share your concern.

"My Beloved Brides, there is very little in this world that is as precious as the bond of brotherly love and what it can accomplish. Peace preserves your strength. Remember, Mother Clare talked about how her peace along with her ability to function were both disturbed over a minor misunderstanding. Her day was cut short because her emotions got involved.

"Who do you think engineered this distraction? That's correct, the enemy of your soul. And if one thing doesn't work to make you irritated, they will try something else, or pile it on thick with several communication glitches, until they find the combination that takes you down. If they never succeed the enemy beats them and sends in another. If that one fails as well, they will have a problem, and that's a good thing.

"They will also use body cycles by saving up confrontations and making them go off at the time of the month when you are weakest and most vulnerable, or even have an appointment that you are not looking forward to, such as having a tooth pulled. If you know they are opportunists, you can better keep a watch over yourself and not react but recognize. When you recognize where things are coming from, then you can pray against them and keep your peace in advance.

"One rule of thumb is to always assign goodness to the other person and defend their honor. Think the very best of them, look for those thoughts, because Holy Spirit will send them to you to head off a confrontation that is unnecessary to stop your prayers and holy work."

"I would like to add, that if you are ashamed to apologize, you desperately need to do it anyway. Be the first person to admit your fault and apologize, even if it is the other one's fault. And please, we must not lay blame or make excuses. When you take away all the supposed justifications for why you did what, it still boils down to pride and the need to be right, without fault.

"This is the hardest thing of all. We must humble ourselves and be willing to take the first steps to restore brotherly love. Once you sit down with the other person and talk it out, peace and brotherly love are restored and Satan loses. Then you become acutely aware of the enemy's tactics and you can spot them in the future, even helping those who have fallen prey to their own pride and self-righteousness."

The Lord Jesus continued, "Pick up your cross My Bride and follow Me to the abuse and slander of the cross. There you will enter My Passion and together we will experience this degradation, that is proper to the earth, but exalted in Heaven. Do not fear, I will stand accused beside you."

The End of Satan's Reign

April 27th, 2022

Lord, please help us to understand what is really happening in these confusing times. Amen.

Jesus, I do not understand how the order-the black hats- could be installed when so many have been executed. It would seem that many if not all of their plans have been compromised or failed because of all the arrests and executions- supposed executions. Please, would you help us to understand?

Jesus began, "Many are still alive and many more have been trained to take the place of others. In some cases, the spirit-soul has been put in new bodies, so that no one will recognize them, or even in cloned bodies that greatly resemble the original. You were right about the left eye being blackened. Spirit-souls when they are taken out leave the left eye black. So, they have been transferred to other bodies. In this way, they live on to create more evil. Satan of course is behind all this."

I am trying to think- I think it was the King of England who had a big black eye before he died? What about President Trump? I asked the Lord.

He replied, "His hands are tied in many ways. There are those who he could not have executed, Obama is one of them, and as I told you before, he is the Anti-Christ."

"Beloved, what has been written in the Scriptures, must happen, and now is the time for that. If it did not happen now it might have to be in another two thousand years with the return of Nibiru, and My Father in Heaven cannot tolerate any more of this evil."

“Do you realize, this is the wrap up, the end of Satan’s reign of evil on this Earth? This is the end for him and his demons. Atlantis and other civilizations were not privileged to see the end of evil, but you are. You are the last generation to see these blackest of crimes. He is soon to be bound and punished. This is why this generation is so very, very wicked, he has gone all out to destroy mankind and this planet because he knows that he will not have another chance, and indeed he has done much irreversible damage, but I am God and can do all that I wish with nothing, and so I shall restore.”

I said, Lord, I thought the final battle was after the thousand-year reign?

He answered me, “That is correct, but this time now, is the beginning of the end. You will witness the absolute end of him after Armageddon, never ever to rise again.

“Now it is up to you all to pray for the unsaved, so their fate is not the same with his. It is only by your prayers that this generation that has been taught error, can be saved. It is very much in your hands, and I have enlisted thousands of artists and musicians and teachers to bring the harvest in.

“These are the times everyone has been waiting for. We are moving towards the end of the age. The outrageous ways of evil will be exposed for all to see. Those who have bought into Satan’s lies will become more and more blind and distant from hope of their salvation. You see, they are convinced that Christians are the ignorant ones, just as you were when you left the New Age. And it was not until you saw the miracles and felt My love for you that you realized you had been duped.

“I still hold out much hope for you Satanists. I still love you, in fact, I love you more than ever and I pray for each one of you daily that you will come to see the truth. I long to have you in Heaven with Me and truly, I miss you. That is why so many Christians are praying for an end to the covens. They have felt My pain and My love for you, and they daily make sacrifices for you so that you will be saved. It is the cruelest of horrors that have been reserved for you by your master and with all My Heart, I pray you will wake up and see that nothing good can come from Satan, any deals you make with him will in the end in tragedy for you.

“Driven by hatred, jealousy, bitterness and power, your lives have become an ugly tangled mess which Satan has authority over until you renounce him and call upon Me to save you. Not a hair on your head will be harmed if you call upon Me. You cannot do this alone; you must have Me to ensure your safety.

“But I want more than anything for you to call on Me because of love. This is your sure ticket out of this evil covenant, your healing, your equipping and arming to live the life you have always wanted to live. Call upon me because I love you.”

When Agony Becomes Ecstasy

Dear Lord, thank you for a hope and vision of life that transcends all human pain and suffering as we join in Your suffering on the Cross. Thank you that now our anguish and the anguish of the whole world will be smothered with Your love and joy. Amen.

Father Ezekiel began, “When the trumpet sounded there was a sudden blast and my whole body was transformed. I thought, it’s so beautiful, so very, very simple, I’m flying and dancing with Jesus, it’s all soooo simple, it’s real and I can see it. While Jesus and I were dancing He was showing me new steps. The Lord does this every day with us, He arranges and orders our steps anew each morning, it is up to us to decide whether or not we follow them. There were no more veils, no more filters, it was so very real, where humanity and divinity meet and the two become one. One Church, one body in Christ, when we are one in His agonizing, suffering on the Cross, we become one in His joyous, euphoric glory for all eternity. He truly completes us.

“I suddenly saw a big bowl of soup and had a ladle in my hand and heard the Lord telling me to take a big scoop from the bottom of the bowl as this would feed and nourish us body and soul.

“I got, experienced true love of the Cross, both sides and understood that the participation of His great martyrdom of love suffered during His passion, leads to the joy of understanding the love He poured out of His heart for all of us. And the beauty of all this is, we get to experience this NOW with no barriers, no filters, no veils, it’s real and it’s forever.”

As it is written in Nehemiah 8:10, “The joy of the Lord is our strength.”

When Father Ezekiel shared what he had seen and experienced through the revelation and grace of God, this reminded me of the story of 16-year-old, Robin Graham.

Robin is the youngest person in history to ever sail all the way around the world alone. He decided to try this incredible feat when he was only 16. Little did he know all he was getting into. His voyage took three years and, in that time, he was smashed broadside by ocean storms, one time his mast was snapped in two by a wave; another time he was almost totally destroyed by a waterspout. Robin's worst experience, was near the equator, in the doldrums, that windless, current less part of the ocean. He became so discouraged that he completely gave up. He covered his boat with kerosene and set it on fire right out in the middle of the ocean. Robin quickly changed his mind, jumped back on board and had to put out the fire with his bare hands.

After three years, Robin Graham sailed into the Los Angeles harbor as the youngest person ever to sail around the world alone. He was greeted enthusiastically by boats with banners, crowds and news reporters. Cars honked and steam boats blasted their whistles as he came sailing through the channel. The joy, the ecstasy of that moment was unlike any he had ever known. No return from another sailing trip had been as glorious, but no other sailing trip had been so agonizing. The investment, the pain and the agony of this round the world trip were essential ingredients in the ecstasy of this dramatic homecoming.

This is one of the great truths of Scripture that we may come to appreciate anew through our trials and tribulations, involving pain, disappointment and even agony, that deep sense of joy, real fulfillment and true maturity and trust in our Lord Jesus. Paul says in Romans 5, "that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope."

And in James 1:2-4 reads, "the trials and agony of life are the indispensable building blocks of human character, the essential road to be traveled if we are to be "mature and complete."

It is finished! Let the celestial symphony scratch out its last mournful notes of discord, before it bursts into joyous and glorious song! Amen!

Turbulent Times Approaching

April 29th, 2022

Lord, grant us peace of mind and help our hearts to not be troubled during these difficult and uncertain times. Give us the strength and grace to trust in You. Amen.

“The winds! The incredible ecstasy experience Ezekiel had! Jesus and Blessed Mother, how very amazing.”

Jesus began, “Yes, it will not be very long now. Prepare yourselves for a radical stripping down of freedoms and access to things. Soon it will begin and all will be amazed at the changes in the world. Things they never expected to cease will be taken from them overnight, including people and children. You will no longer hear the song of the Bride and the Bridegroom. It will be dark, gloomy as if the whole world stood still.”

“Lord, I know you want me to speak about Heaven and upbeat things, should I share this message?”

“I am giving it to you to share so that they will not be shocked. It would be good for everyone to get used to very plain food and be grateful for it. Society as you know it will disintegrate. There will be looting and shooting, desperate people searching desperately for their daily bread. Clare?”

“Yes Lord?”

“Don’t for one minute allow yourself to think you have been abandoned by Me. Just when your heart feels like it is breaking, I will come through. Do not worry about anything, I know exactly how things will unfold and My angels will surround you and the refuge and everyone here.”

“Forgive me, I am worried they will steal our goats to eat them.”

“Let them go,” He continued, “Do not try to hold onto anything, let it all go I will cover and protect everything. Cease your worrying, I will not forsake you nor forget you in your needs. Cleave to Me and worry about nothing.

“I sent you that Rapture dream to alert you to the closeness of the hour....you know and understand what that means. So many changes and equipping for those not taken, that I do not want you to grieve or lose hope. Everything is planned out; you needn’t concern yourselves with any of it. Be more concerned about the souls who are going to Hell if they do not repent.

“Make this time, one of ministry and repentance...releasing all cares to Me. Focus on the souls My Beloved ones, I will send you souls who need you. You are prepared for that; you will bring them comfort and hope. Remember, first and foremost you are an anointed prelate of the church, a bishop and your concern is not about money or goods, but souls. Oh, how I cry for souls. Please focus on souls and be there for them. So many feel condemned for what they have done, they are deeply in need of forgiveness and understanding. Some will become saints. Those I am sending you are a mixed bag.

“Don’t worry My precious ones, I will send you the anointing when it is needed the most. You will not be lethargic and uncaring. On the contrary, you will be able to minister to all their needs. Do not allow yourselves to grow weary in well doing.”

“Lord, I am having a hard time connecting the dots for the Rapture.”

“Yes, I know. You have much conflicting information and impressions. But as I told you earlier, you do understand what is about to happen and you will be prepared. You have been prepared for this time for decades, even your birth situation was designated to prepare you.”

I was an only child; my mother was constantly gone working or going out with friends. I led a very, very lonely childhood. I had to entertain myself and sometimes with the wrong things. Thank God for His forgiveness.”

Jesus continued, "Yes, you were well prepared and whether you understand it or not My very own Mother was a STRONG influence on your childhood. She too, knew your destiny and so she made arrangements for you to learn what was necessary."

"Lord, what do You want to say?"

"My Sweet Spouse, I say to you, PEACE...I have cared for you from the cradle to the event soon to come. You are obeying Me with your music and for this I am happy. Keep it up until the very last minute."

"But what about caring for the people so wounded that you are going to send us?"

"You will know when to work and when to stop, the anointing will be there for everything."

"I feel like You are saying, I will be here after that event to help the people you send us."

"No, you will not be here after the Rapture. But there are several events leading up to it which you will live through and participate in ministry in. Please do not concern yourself with the details, I have covered that. My Dove, you are coming home soon."
