

RCAS used book sale in the works

Randolph County Animal Shelter's Spring Book Sale is Saturday, April 18, and Saturday, April 28, from 9 a.m. to 1p.m. at Chris Mitchum's Ole Cotton Warehouse on Main Street in Roanoke.

Randolph County Animal Shelter has been chosen as the recipient of the Modern Woodmen of America Matching Fund Project. Modern Woodmen of America is a fraternal financial service organization that will match funds up to $2,500 to a deserving organization in the community. The shelter folks are so appreciative of this opportunity. All they have to do is get all their friends in the county to come and buy many, many books that will amount to the $2,500 that Modern Woodmen are willing to match, so our shelter keeps being one of the Best in Alabama.
