FEBRUARY 2018

From Your President

By John J. Spiegel

Paying attention.

There is probably no finer tribute than remembering someone. It is an extension of paying attention to the person during life. Everyone craves attention. That attention can be anything from having a pleasant conversation with a complete stranger to being elected president. In a famous experiment conducted in a Chicago area factory more than 80 years ago we accidentally learned the power and potential of paying attention to others.

The original object of the study was to determine whether improved lighting and other changes in the factory would result in increased productivity. This required substantial interaction between the low-paid, poorly educated factory workers and the well-educated, sophisticated sociologists conducting the study. After dividing the workers into two groups, one group experiencing changes, the other group having had no changes made to their work setting; the workers were interviewed before, during and after the study. They were asked questions. Their answers were important. Soon, the workers began to believe they were important, far more so than before the study. Quickly, both groups of workers produced more, made fewer errors and had much better morale. Ultimately, the sociologists determined that the lighting and other changes had nothing to do with the improved performance in the factory. What mattered was that people perceived to be important (sociologists) were paying attention to, listening to and valuing the thoughts of the low-wage, poorly educated workers.

Elton Mayo, the sociologist in charge of the study concluded that workers' performance was improved as a result of increased attention from superiors, clients or colleagues. Mayo's study, originally expected to take a year to complete, was extended over a five-year period to help the researchers understand the causes of the increased productivity.

Paying sincere, positive attention to another is easy and risk-free. Letting someone else know that you see them as someone important can plant a seed from which may grow a forest of hope and inspiration, especially among those whose emotional development has been stunted from an absence of compliments, encouragement and attention. Those whose lives you touch will always fondly remember you, paying you the finest ultimate tribute.

'Dining In' In Eagle Ridge

By Connie Hope

The Eagle Ridge Dining In Group had their December "Christmas" get-together at Connie Hope and Hewitt McCloskey's home. Here are a few photos of the people having a good time.

There are about 14 couples who participate in Dining In. We start in November and go until April. We have dinner at someone's house where they supply the main dish and everyone else brings a side dish. We contribute $5 per person to defray some of the costs. We all take turns "hosting."

If you are interested in joining, please contact Connie Hope at conniehope@comcast.net. We'll discuss how you join and the hosting of an event.

South Trail Fire And Rescue

By Christie Knudsen,

Public Education Specialist

Your South Trail Fire District.

The month of February brings a change in leadership at the South Trail Fire District as Fire Chief William Lombardo retires and Assistant Chief Benjamin Bengston becomes the new fire chief. We thank Chief Lombardo for his 30 years of dedicated service to the district and welcome new Fire Chief Bengston. As we introduce a new South Trail fire chief, this is a good time to re-introduce you to your South Trail Fire and Rescue District.

The Florida Legislature established the South Trail Fire and Rescue District in 1976 as an independent taxing district, governed by a five-member Board of Fire Commissioners elected to four-year terms by the citizens of the district. The district provides fire protection and rescue services to approximately 62,000 residents of a 55-mile square area in South Fort Myers that includes JetBlue Stadium, Hammond Stadium, Gulf Coast Hospital, and Bell Tower Shops. District funding is provided primarily by ad valorem property taxes, with some restricted funding provided by new development impact fees.

The South Trail Fire District operates four fire stations, staffed by three shifts of 22 firefighters, 24 hours a day and 365 days a year. All firefighters are emergency medical technicians, and 26 firefighters are practicing paramedics. Most district fire trucks provide Advanced Life Support (ALS) level of care for medical emergencies. In 2017, South Trail firefighters responded to 9,565 calls – 76 percent of calls were for medical emergencies. The district does not charge for any emergency response, including medical emergencies.

You can learn more about your South Trail Fire District by attending the monthly Board of Fire Commissioner meetings. The meetings are held at 5:30 p.m. on the third Monday of every month, except in January and February when the meeting is held on the third Tuesday. You can also learn more about your fire district by participating in the ride along program. If you are over 18, you can apply to ride along on emergency calls with the firefighters.

All four of the South Trail Fire District fire stations are open for station and fire apparatus tours. You may ring the station doorbell and ask for a tour, or you can call ahead and request a time to visit.

Your South Trail Fire District offers numerous safety programs at no charge. These programs include child passenger safety seat checks, free smoke alarms and batteries, fire extinguisher training, home fire safety checks, used sharps container disposal, disaster preparedness, and fire safety education for all ages.

For more information call 936-5281 or visit southtrailfire.org. The monthly meeting of the Board of Commissioners for the South Trail Fire and Rescue District is Tuesday, Feb. 20, 5:30 p.m., at Station 63, 5531 Halifax Ave. The public is invited.

An Evening With Author Laurie Lico

Wednesday, Feb. 21 – 6 to 8 p.m.

Cost: $10

Spend an evening with Laurie Lico Albanese as she discusses and signs her novel, Stolen Beauty. From the dawn of the 20th century to the devastation of World War II, this exhilarating novel of love, war, art, and family gives voice to two extraordinary women and brings to life the true story behind the creation and near destruction of Gustav Klimt's most remarkable paintings.

In the dazzling glitter of 1903 Vienna, Adele Bloch-Bauer – young, beautiful, brilliant, and Jewish – meets painter Gustav Klimt. Wealthy in everything but freedom, Adele embraces Klimt's renegade genius as the two awaken to the erotic possibilities on the canvas and beyond. Though they enjoy a life where sex and art are just beginning to break through the façade of conventional society, the city is also exhibiting a disturbing increase in anti-Semitism, as political hatred foments in the shadows of Adele's coffee house afternoons and cultural salons.

Nearly 40 years later, Adele's niece Maria Altmann is a newlywed when the Nazis invade Austria – and overnight, her beloved Vienna becomes a war zone. When her husband is arrested and her family is forced out of their home, Maria must summon the courage and resilience that is her aunt's legacy if she is to survive and keep her family – and their history – alive.

Will Maria and her family escape the Nazis' grip? And what will become of the paintings that her aunt nearly sacrificed everything for?

Impeccably researched and a "must-read for fans of Kristin Hannah's The Nightingale and Paula McLain's Circling the Sun" (Christina Baker Kline, No. 1 New York Times best-selling author), Stolen Beauty intertwines the tales of two remarkable women across more than a 100 years. It juxtaposes passion and discovery against hatred and despair, and shines a light on our ability to love, to destroy, and above all, to endure.

This event is presented by the Jewish Federation of Lee and Charlotte Counties. Sponsored by Carolyn Gora.

We have had a quiet month in Eagle Ridge. We have had the sheriff's car at the corner of Eagle Ridge Drive and American Colony for several weeks in December. It seems to have worked and there haven't been any disturbances reported in December or early January.

Cooking By Connie

By Connie Hope

It is February and what happens in this month? We know it is Valentine's Day on the 14th. It is also Library Lover's Month, and National Hot Breakfast Month. It is also American Heart Month so let's do some extra walking to help our heart. It is also Fabulous Florida Strawberry Month and Avocado and Banana Month. The one I am interested in is National Cherry and Cranberry Month. I have a really great recipe for Meatball and Cranberry Appetizer. It's very easy and so good. Let's take a look.

Meatball And Cranberry Appetizer (It can also be done in a slow cooker.)

2 packages (16 ounces each) appetizer-size frozen fully-cooked meatballs

1 can (14-ounce) whole berry cranberry sauce

1 cup Bull's Eye barbecue sauce (also can use chili sauce)

½ cup fresh or frozen cranberries

½ cup onion, chopped fine

1 tablespoon of lemon juice

Combine ingredients except for meatballs in a pot. Heat on medium for about 5 minutes; stirring continuously. Add Always remember that you are the eyes of Eagle Ridge. If you see something that you are questioning and might think there is something wrong, call the nonemergency number, (239) 477-1000 or if you feel it is an emergency call 911. Together we can keep our community safe.

the meatballs and stir to evenly coat meatballs in the sauce. Continue cooking on slow heat for about 30 to 40 minutes or until meatballs are cooked throughout. Serve in a small heated cook pot with toothpicks on the side or small plates.

Cooking The Meatballs In A Slow Cooker

Spray sides of slow cooker. Add the sauce that you have mixed. Stir sauce and add the frozen meatballs. Cover and cook on low for about four hours. Stirring several times to coat the meatballs with the cranberry sauce. Can be served in the slow cooker.

If you prefer you can use one cup of currant jelly instead of the cranberry sauce.

Thank You Christmas Donors!

The words "thank you" cannot express enough how thankful we are for the generosity shown to our clients this holiday season. From individual donors to businesses who organized toy drives and giving trees on our behalf, it was another banner year for playing Santa!

On paper we had 62 donors, but actually many more as one contact name often represented a group of people. We fulfilled the wish lists of 44 families, provided gifts to all 30 kids in our Pine Manor program and handed out gifts to over 160 kids at the East House party. We also provided gifts to over 90 families who shopped our conference room filled with the bounty from various toy drives held on our behalf (for those who came to us for services past the cutoff date for wish lists). CAC thanks all of you!

Random Acts Of Kindness

Thank you to all our wonderful volunteers who help us throughout the year. United Way East House could not run without them – they logged 4,782 hours in 2017. Our Pine Manor After School/Summer program would be unmanageable without them – they logged 3,032 hours.

Our pet therapy and lobby puppy programs would not be possible without all the many men and women who are the backbone of this endeavor. In 2017, our eight lobby puppy greeters logged 658 hours and our 21 pet therapy teams a whopping 932 hours. Thank you everyone!

Marc Dobson: One-Man Band

Picture the opening of Mary Poppins with Dick Van Dyke as a one-man band, except on steroids. The one-man band, Marc Dobson performs "musical illusion" sounding like a band playing a variety of music from the '50s through the '90s. The appearance is a bit comedic playing a backpack drum kit via feet and arms while playing a guitar outputting both guitar and bass parts and harmonica. Seeing is believing, all performances and videos are completely live. Marc may be the most advanced real one-man band in the world. With interactive improv comedy, no two shows are alike.

His original and refreshing material that combines magic, juggling, music, and comedy, has taken him all over the world, performing in theaters, fairs, festivals, comedy clubs, and on cruise ships. The show is all about fun! Lots of fun, and lots of milk. It's a nonstop, quick moving, high-energy show – after all, it's powered by milk! You will learn things about dairy you never knew. There's magic, cowmody, hoofin' around, and banjo moosic. Todd loves performing, and it shows! Milk appears, disappears, switches places, pours, and doesn't pour. Cheese balls appear, multiply, bounce around and juggle. Audience participants become superstars. "Dairy-Ann" the cow keeps a can filled with milk, and at the very end, she's spinning around Todd's head with her barnyard friends. Add some good down-home banjo pickin', and you have one great show! And as always, Todd makes sure the audience leaves his show knowing more about dairy and where it comes from than they did before. Milk is magical, cheese is juggle-able, butter is healthy, and cows are cool!

Mailbox Maintenance And Repair

Mailbox doors have a closure spring that eventually breaks after thousands of openings. It is important to replace them as soon as they are discovered as they usually result in a broken door, which is a much more expensive repair. Call Dennis Shelley, (239) 887-1042. The cost of installing a new spring is $34. If the door casting breaks, it costs an additional $112 to repair the door. Dennis also has specially manufactured flagpole holders to match the lampposts. They are available for $89 installed. Your mailbox and lamppost can also be repainted for $49, which will bring them back to their "like-new" appearance. Dennis also offers handyman services.
