

These Are the Good Old Days

I been thinking 'bout leaving,
I'm not ready to go.
I been thinking 'bout heaven.
I'm not ready to know.
Lying here beside you
Listening to you breathe.
I could stay here forever
I believe
These are the good old days.

These are the good old days.
Living forever in your memories.
Forget the bad times.
Remember these.

I've been having trouble sleeping,
I can't waste the time.
I've been having trouble thinking.
Can't get this off my mind.
Lying here beside you
Listening to you breathe.
I want to stay forever
And, never leave.
These are the good old days.

These are the good old days.
Living forever in your memories.
Forget the bad times.
Remember these
Good old days.

Morning sunlight through the trees.
The brilliant colors of the Autumn leaves.
The enduring love of close family.
Friends that stay friends in times like these.
The comfort of a fire on a cold, rainy day.
Sunlight breaking through clouds of grey.
The precious laughter of a little child.
The eyes of a loved one when they smile.
Sunset over an ocean blue.
Every time you say, "I love you".

These are the good old days.
Living forever in your memories.
