Here are just some of the awesome things Gullivers groups enjoy on a UK - Majesty and Tradition Music tour. Many groups extend their trip to Ireland or take the Eurostar to Paris!

ENGLAND

- See all the sights in London - visit Big Ben, Buckingham Palace, Westminster Abbey, the Tower of London, Shakespeare's Globe Theatre and Tower Bridge. Ride the London Eye, shop at Piccadilly Circus, Harrods and Oxford St, then spend time in the British Museum's musical instrument collection
- Perform in St Paul's Cathedral and take a workshop at the Royal College of Music or the Guildhall School of Music

- See a musical at a West End theatre, an opera at the Royal Opera House Covent Garden or a concert at Royal Albert Hall, Royal Festival Hall or the Barbican Centre, and go on a backstage tour of the Royal Opera House
- Outside London perform in Salisbury Cathedral, York Minster or Bath Abbey. Visit Highclere Castle (of Downton Abbey fame), Stonehenge and Shakespeare's Stratford Upon Avon for a performance of one of his masterpieces
- Further north, participate in the Harrogate International Youth Festival with concerts in historic buildings - Royal Hall, Ripon Cathedral, Fountains Abbey, Harewood House and Newby Hall

SCOTLAND

- Participate in the Stirling Bridge International Youth Arts Festival - perform in castles, market towns, modern theatres and ageless churches, culminating in a gala concert in the world-class Perth Concert Hall
- Visit Edinburgh with its famous Castle and Royal Mile
- See Glasgow, Ayrshire, Loch Lomond and the Trossachs

WALES

- Compete in the Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod, a celebration of music, dance, costume and culture from nations around the world, with competitions for every kind of choir and vocal group, and special categories for instrumental ensembles and dance
- Tour northern Wales, participate in workshops and give additional performances in towns and villages in the region

Before or after your time in the UK, think about extending your tour to Ireland, or take the Eurostar to Paris and beyond ...
