

Where Did the Time Go

I look at you
You look at me
Where did the time go?
It wasn't so very long ago
Just yesterday

A music man
In a music town
Where did the rhyme go
Strange how the time passes
Oh, so slowly fast

The sunrise; the sunsets
They just come and go
The cycles of the moon
They just ebb and flow
So far away
And yet so near
Another day
Another year

I smile at you
You smile at me
Where did the time go?
We were going to live forever
Or, at least that's what we thought

A pretty girl
From a little town
Where did the time go
Now precious memories
Are all that last

The sunrise; the sunsets
They just come and go
The cycles of the moon
They just ebb and flow
So far away
And yet so near
Another day
Another year
