

OH NO YOU DIDN'T!

Rachael Martin 11,5,2015

Genesis 50:20 – But as for you, you meant evil against me; but God meant it for good, in order to bring it about as it is this day, to save many people alive.

I'm exhausted and it's only Wednesday! I feel like I've been hit on all sides. There have been things that have come up this week that I NEVER saw coming. There have been feelings that I've had to sift through to make sure that my end result was not sin or that I wasn't responding in the feelings but instead, waiting for the feelings to completely do the run-through before I made any moves. I'm still not through it but I've come to a place where I'm able to calm down enough to sit quietly and hear from the Lord and I have to laugh because knowing the Bible says the enemy means evil against me means that I also know the next part of the scripture that God means it for good.

THIS made me say "Oh, no you didn't devil!"

So because the enemy didn't win in this situation, I'm choosing to remind us what the Bible says when surprise attacks come our way. I hope that you are encouraged to read these scriptures and remember WHO is on your side – always.

Psalm 91:1-16 – He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say to the Lord, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust." For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler. You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day

Psalm 3:1-8 – O Lord, how many are my foes! Many are rising against me; many are saying of my soul, there is no salvation for him in God. Selah But you, O Lord, are a shield about me, my glory, and the lifter of my head. I cried aloud to the Lord, and he answered me from his holy hill. Selah I lay down and slept; I woke again, for the Lord sustained me

Proverbs 25:26 – Like a muddied spring or a polluted fountain is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked

1 Peter 5:8 – Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour

Job 5:12 – He frustrates the devices of the crafty, so that their hands achieve no success.
