Immaculate Conception Parish Mission

To proclaim the good news of the Gospel; to build community among the parishioners that we may journey in our faith together, giving witness to love and unity; to serve the needs of others in whatever form they may exit in our midst and to celebrate the realities of our faith together.

St. Patrick Parish Mission

As a church community here at St. Patrick, we want to know, love and serve Jesus in our efforts in: Christian formation/faith development; worship; social services; and stewardship of resources.

On Becoming Human

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Sometimes human beings seem to be evolving into more than what we have been. Gradually, we become capable of experiencing more than what we pick up through our five senses. We listen to our intuition; we pay attention to our sixth sense; we discover a spiritual side to our personalities. More and more, we notice people in need. We find ourselves becoming better listeners as people unburden themselves to us. We may be more aware of some stirring deep within ourselves. All such moments may be seen by people of faith as God bringing us to a new place in life.

Just as Isaiah speaks of God doing something new among the Israelites in distant exile, God continues to guide us to becoming more completely human. By his life, passion, and death, Jesus shows us most clearly what sort of person our God is drawing us to be: compassionate and just, generous and merciful, loving in a wasteland of indifference. So, when we hear the story of Jesus not condemning the woman caught in adultery, we may find ourselves becoming conscious of our own need to stop judging, stop condemning. Most of us have not yet evolved to the point of doing what Jesus would do. Instead, we condemn others while overlooking our own culpability. We are still in the process of learning to follow Jesus, to act as he would act, to love as he would love. It is God at work in us. ●

Reflect

Am I a condemning or a forgiving person?

Do I accept forgiveness when it is offered?

[Jesus said,] “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?” She replied, “No one, sir.” Then Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you.”

JOHN 8:10–11

Dear Padre,

A friend of mine told me he was looking forward to celebrating the Triduum. What does that word mean?

The word triduum is a Latin word meaning “three days.” In this context, it refers to the paschal Triduum: the three days of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, when we celebrate Christianity’s most sacred events—the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

The official beginning of the paschal Triduum takes place the evening of Holy Thursday, when we celebrate the Mass of the Lord’s Supper. This day is also referred to as Maundy Thursday, because Jesus gives a command (mandatum) to his followers to be an example of love and service to others. The Mass of the Lord’s Supper ends in stillness as the tabernacle is emptied, and the altar is stripped bare. The priests, ministers, and congregation then exit in silence. Good Friday is a day of somber quiet as we relive the passion and death of Jesus. The service centers on the solemn veneration of the cross. Holy Saturday is characterized by a spirit of waiting and quiet anticipation until the festive Easter Vigil, celebrated in the evening, when the Church comes alive with the new Light of Christ and catechumens are joyfully received into the eucharistic community. These are the Christian high holy days. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

We can always run the risk of...having [Jesus’] name on our lips but denying him by the way that we live.... How, then, can we prove whether or not we are true disciples of the Master? We do so by the way we regard our neighbor and the way we regard ourselves.

Prayer for Pope Francis

O God, shepherd and ruler of all the faithful, look favorably on your servant Pope Francis,
whom you have set at the head of your Church as her shepherd;
grant, we pray, that by word and example he may be of service to those over whom he presides so that, together with the flock entrusted to his care, he may come to everlasting life.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus.
Philippians 3:3b-14

There is no sin so great that God would ever turn away from us. Through the grace of reconciliation, we are blessed to receive his mercy, which fills us with greater joy in serving him and pursuing the prize of God's eternal kingdom.

Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her. ~Ephesians 5:25

Congratulations to all of the newly confirmed students of our parish (our three eighth graders plus three former ICS students)! Thank you to Beth Roesner for organizing the reception and to all those who provided refreshments. Thank you to Ruth Ann O’Keefe for taking photos during the Confirmation Mass.

Safe and Sober is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in Springfield, Missouri. We use their free prevention-focused videos and curriculum to engage and educate our middle-school aged students about the dangers of drugs and alcohol.

We will be sending six students to the Diocesan Spelling Bee on Thursday at St. Martin school in Jefferson City.

We have three students who are preparing to receive the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist. They are using the Blessed program from Dynamic Catholic.

A high school counselor will be coming to visit with the 8th grade students about scheduling for their freshman year. They will also do a tour and have lunch at MCHS on April 17.

Virtue of the Month: Obedience
Obedience: saying “Yes” to God and those who stand in His place
How can you show obedience to God?

Saint of the Week: Our Lady
Even as a little girl, the Blessed Virgin Mary prayed a lot and loved God. She knew that when she obeyed her parents, this was pleasing to God. When God sent His angel to ask Mary to be the Mother of Jesus, her heart was open to say “yes”. During her whole life, Mary always wanted to do what God wanted. Even when Jesus suffered on the cross, Mary said “yes” to God’s will. Now she is the Queen of Heaven and Mother to all of us! (Virtues in Practice, The Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia Congregation)
