Biography

Clark J. Eidt 85, of Pigeon, formerly of Sebewaing, passed away to his Heavenly home on Tuesday, July 27, 2021 at Scheurer Hospital of cancer. Clark was born February 17, 1936 in Owendale to the late Orville and Bernice (Scheile) Eidt. He graduated from Owendale High School in 1954. He served in the US National Guard from 1954 to 1962. He married Barbara J. Scheiwe on September 5, 1959 at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sebewaing. Clark was a self employed auto technician/Amsoil Dealer and also owned Clark's Custom Cuts smoked meat business, both out of his home in Sebewaing. Clark had many hobbies and interests including boating, snowmobiling, motor cycling, riding golf carts, traveling, camping, cooking, listening to Gospel, Country and Polka music. He enjoyed making Gospel and Blue Grass CD's for his friends. He had developed his own recipe for making donut holes which he shared with anyone he met; he was given the name of "Donut King" by his friends. Clark would talk to a stranger the same as he would speak to a best friend, and at the end of the conversation, Clark would be their friend.
