

Sr. Ann Cecile Albers

If you are a “regular” at our Sunday Community liturgy at St. Clare Chapel, you have likely seen Sr. Ann Cecile Albers wiz by you. You see, Sr. Ann is viewed as the “jack of all trades” of just about anything and everything. Sr. Ann was born and raised in Cranberry, Ohio in Mercer County. As one of seven children, she no doubt had plenty of practice handling every farm chore under the blazing sun!

As a Sister, Sr. Ann first ministered as a dietitian and later as a nurse. Both these ministries were good preparation for her to take on a variety of other ministries over the years including managing a shelter for those in need of housing, working as a surgical liaison with families in a hospital setting, sharing her gifts with Hospice clients and families and even serving the Congregation in leadership as Treasurer.

Presently, Sr. Ann serves the local community as the Minister while also overseeing the needs of the entire St. Clare campus. In her “free time”, Sr. Ann loves to read, enjoys nature and is a master quilter. Her goodness and generosity have no limit. In 2019, Sr. Ann will celebrate her 60th Jubilee year as a Franciscan Sister of the Poor. We thank God for her special presence among us!
