Tekton Contracting Corp. offers its Clients substantial in-house technical expertise in pre-construction budgeting, value engineering, architectural detailing, and CM services.

The principal of the firm is a trained engineer and is very much focused on the execution of the work in field. Unlike many General Construction firms, Tekton Contracting Corp. maintains a large staff of in house trades to handle sensitive projects and control quality.

Safety

Tekton Contracting places the highest value on maintaining the safety of its employees, its subcontractors, and the public at large in any project it engages.

- Studies have shown the safety on a job site saves time, money and lives, which is why Tekton makes safety a priority when planning a project.
