CIT 2 - $300 per four week session

Application Procedures

1. Complete and submit CIT Application form. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis.
2. Apply for a minimum of 4 weeks. CITs must apply for either the first half or second half of the summer. If you are available for additional time (i.e. the first half plus session 3, please indicate that on the application)
3. First time CITs – Submit 2 References (BRDC Character Reference Form)

General Program Details

1. Placement in camper groups and/or activity specialty areas on a rotating basis: two weeks assisting general counselors in camper groups, and two weeks learning skills in one or more activity specialty areas of their choice.
2. Leadership training – including personal reflection through group discussions and individual writing assignments, observing program area staff members and general counselors, and leading and presenting to groups.
3. Organizing special camp-wide events with our CIT Coordinator, meeting with CITs and CIT Coordinator during elective for additional training or team building activities, and being involved in morning/afternoon assemblies.
4. Service project – to benefit the Boulder Ridge community or the larger community

* The age deadline will vary each year as the first day of camp changes. If you have a birthday after June 21st you may not be eligible to apply as a CIT-2 or Junior Counselor in future years, depending on the first day of camp.
