Why do we have the Festival?

The Atchafalaya Basin Festival is the major fundraiser for Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church in Henderson, La and Sacred Heart of Jesus Chapel in Butte La Rose, La.

All of the money raised helps fund projects at the churches. Past projects include parking lot improvements, building upgrades, maintenance and repairs.

The festival began in 2007 and has always been a FREE admission event .

The festival offers live entertainment, posters, t-shirts, raffle, live and silent auctions, car & truck show, cooking contest , camper parking and great food.

The annual festival is always held the second Saturday in November.
