The 1st Cavalry Division Association is hosting a golf tournament during the 70th Annual 1st Cavalry Division Reunion to help raise funds for the Foundation of the 1st Cavalry Division Association.

OUR SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION. The Foundation of the 1st Cavalry Division Association is a 501c(3) and offers scholarships of up to $1,200 per year (for up to four years) to children of the 1st Cavalry Division troopers who have died or become totally and permanently disabled while serving in the Division in any war. It began in 1968 to assist the children of battle casualties of the Vietnam War and all previous wars and expanded to children of peacetime active duty Association members who died while serving in the Division. The Foundation has provided more than $1,336,000 in grants to 715 applicants through this worthy program that continues today. Since 1988 more than $269,000 in scholarship grants have also been provided to 265 active duty Division soldiers, their spouses and children. Total money paid out in all programs is over $1,605,000.

The Foundation of the 1st Cavalry Division Association would like you to support the 1st Cavalry Division Association Reunion Golf Tournament at the Courses of Clear Creek on Wednesday, 7 June 2017.
