

Hebert, Kenneth J.

Kenneth J. Hebert, 62, of Las Vegas, Nevada, went to be with his Lord and Savior on October 28, 2005. He passed away in his sleep as a result of pancreatic cancer. He was born November 27, 1942 in Caseville to the late Ernest F. Sr. and Mary Berneice (Leneway) Hebert. Ken grew up in Caseville and moved to California in his early 20s. In recent years, he moved to Las Vegas, Nevada. He enjoyed his family, singing and playing music, being a jokester, but is best known for loving and helping others. He is survived by his wife, Amparo (Ramirez) Hebert, his sons, Kenneth Jr. and Patrick, his daughter, Cherie Lynn Sakschewski; and their mother, Victoria Hebert; six grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; his brother, Dale (Priscella) Hebert; his sisters, Patricia Young, Evelyn (Robert) Samuel, Marjorie Opanosenko, Joann (Robert) Senter, Joyce Deering, Jerri (Paul) Bassett, Judy Shadburn, Audrey (Gary) Boehmer, Elaine (Steve) Evans; and his half-sisters, Carol Hebert, Sharon Hebert, and Wanda Thibodeaux, and their mother, Margaret Hebert. He was preceded in death by his brothers, Alfred Hebert and Ernest Hebert Jr. A memorial service will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Saturday, November 12, 2005, at Valley Funeral Home, 3919 Raymert Drive, Las Vegas, Nevada 89121. Cremation has taken place. For further information or memorials, contact the funeral home at (702) 257-2826 or his son Patrick at (702) 458-7673.