Smithfield High School

Vetted Project: Students addressed misconceptions between cultures regarding citizenship and immigration issues. Immigration is one of the most controversial and inflammatory issues in America today. It is a local, state and national issue. Much of the emotion is driven by misperceptions, misinformation and derogatory stereotypes. Sustainability: Part of my project was "High Skilled Immigrants." Students learned the processes of filing for a Work Visa and a Permanent Resident Card. Driving Question: Why do highly educated people immigrate to the US? What does education have to do with immigration?

I. Authenticity

Performing: Students created an awareness campaign, design, sold and donate to a charity organization in Venezuela to help with school supplies. Demonstrating: Students created a newscast video based on dispelling the fake news about immigration.
