The Path to Peace and Happiness

9.1.25

Beloved family, so very dear to the heart of Jesus, God writes straight with crooked lines, follow with your feet in His footsteps, and you will attain to the goal of true holiness. Forsake your road maps, crucify your self-will, and follow Him alone. Worship was so good today and my heart longs to be with Him in Heaven. "Oh Lord, I just want to stay there with You." He replied, "Now you're getting the right idea. This is where you belong, My bride. This is where your music must spring from, truly. Thank you for coming back to the charism I've chosen for you. Do you think you can hold on to it now?" "Oh Lord, I've been so flighty. I've wasted a lot of time." "That is true, but I have used all of it anyway. It just wasn't the pinnacle of who I created you to be. Now that you see more clearly, the demon forces aligned against Me through you. Do you think you can sustain your true destiny?" "Lord, I know I can do it as long as You're with me."

"My people, I have so much more for you that you're not expecting. It all requires you to climb the step ladder of obedience. The enemy is very clever at seeking out your hidden vulnerable points. He has had thousands of years of practice, so you are no puzzle to him. He reads you like a book and sets you up like a deer for dinner. The only way you can avoid his draws is obedience, unwavering, untiring, blind obedience, without a thought for your own concerns. You see, he uses your concerns, your attachments, your fears and ambitions to lead you off course. It's taken a long time to return you to what I have always wanted for you, Clare. Now that you are here hold on to it for dear life so I may increase you and train you up. He drives you like a race car and moves you wherever he will to keep from arriving at your destiny. Truly his main sphere of operation is to distract souls away from their destinies and keep them searching for what I've already given them.

It is like the friar who came to the monastery and was given a cross. He carried that cross for years and it became too heavy for him, so he went to the abbot and asked for a new one. He was taken into the warehouse and shown the entire inventory of crosses, even allowed to try each cross on to see how it fit. Disappointed, he began to leave and there at the door he saw a cross that looked perfect for him. He tried it out and it fit like something tailor made just for him. Satisfied, he stepped towards the door smiling. The abbot said to him, "Brother, you know that is the cross you walked in with." And he realized that the cross he had been given was perfect for him, but being tired of that cross, he sought another. In the end, he realized his foolishness and wanting something different, and apologized, saying, "Forgive me, Father, in pride I thought I could make a better choice than you. Now I see my folly and presumption, please forgive me." The abbot replied, "My son, I forgive you. Understand that God and His wisdom guided me to give it to you. All the novices that come here go through the very same ordeal in their self-will and pride. They look at other crosses and find them attractive, rejecting what was given under holy obedience. But rather than contend with them, I allow them to wear every cross in the warehouse until they discover the one they left at the door fit them perfectly. This is why God led you here so that you would learn to abandon the purse of your own opinion and self-will. Do not fret. Soon you will outgrow this cross and God shall give you another to carry in your journey to holiness." That was the end of His message.

And I just want to say that's what we do here on the mountain. We learn to detach ourselves from our own will and to embrace God's will, to discern God's will and to embrace it. You can't embrace God's will if you can't hear from Him. So, first you have to learn to hear from Him and then you will embrace your cross and carry it, wanting always to carry it perfectly and not drag it behind you. So, that's what the mountain is about.

And I share this with you because this is a very important part of our life to prepare us for the gifts that the Lord has for us. To be prepared we have to patch up all the leaks in our vessel, self-will, passion, distraction. It goes on and on. Once that vessel is fit to hold the Holy Spirit and the graces of God for your destiny, then He gives them to you and you can walk into it without being snagged by the enemy. But there's a long process of dying. It must go on first in order for you to be clean and clear enough to receive His cross and His cross alone and to forsake your own will. And everything that is done is done according to Scripture. So, the Lord bless you dear family. I just wanted to share that this is so typical for what goes on here on the mountain. God bless you until we meet again. God loves you so much. Amen.

Procrastination A Deadly Weapon

May the Lord bless you with His sweet, sweet peace and lift your hearts above the cares of this world and the doings and goings on of government. In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen. So, yesterday I fell. Last night I was watching Kevin Zadai, he was saying some very, well, kind of inspiring things, although his videos are so long. After I was done watching that, something else popped up and grabbed it. Ah! The Lord has been encouraging us to look at the example of people in the military. They're highly organized and dedicated, and they're different than civilians. Very different. They have to be, because they work with life and death. So, I ended up indulging in three of those. And when I got done, I was tired. Father and I had a good time together listening, but then remorse set in because I didn't do what I really wanted to do last night and pray for me to continue on with music because the Lord has given me some really beautiful songs. I just have to get my throat in order. I've been dreading that because I've let it go for so long and I've been eating dairy and any of you who are singers, you know you can't eat dairy, or let your throat get dried out with strong coffee, or hot liquids.

So, I'm having to amend my ways. So, I came to the Lord in contrition really feeling badly that I let him down after He had just dumped so many graces on me. I said, "Thank you, Lord, for forgiving me. Jesus, I don't know what to say. I so want to hear from you. I know I am scattered and not sure what to do next. Please, Lord, take over all my faculties to submit to Your perfect will." Then I heard Him say, "Heaven, let's get back to Heaven. I want the whole community to enter in. I am doing something new Clare and I really need your help and cooperation and I do mean really. I have given you certain perspectives that My body is longing for." "Jesus, please keep the demons off of me and I promise I will press in and stay on track with your guidance and protection. Without your protection, well, you know." He replied, "I promise you My help and My protection, but you must stay with it and not allow yourself any distractions. When you finish a piece, then you can settle in with Father. This will take a great deal of discipline to not give up or walk away when you feel like you hit a brick wall."

And I have to say here guys that we've discovered python spirits at work squeezing off our relationship with the Lord. And I'll probably do a message after this one about it. But know that the two things you need to do to get rid of that python spirit which cuts off your connection to the Lord and your ability to hear Him, even your ability to dream, holy dreams at night. It's extremely serious and on that note I want to refer you to Jennifer LeClaire who is a wonderful, anointed teacher about spiritual warfare And that's where I got this information about the python spirit. So, that's been going on, He's been cutting off, and these are marine spirits, cutting off my connection with the Lord and making me deaf almost to what He's saying. Sometimes we get deaf when we want that chocolate chip cookie and the Lord says, "No, I've had plenty of those occasions." But other times, it's far more nefarious, calculated to cut you off from God, because you know that any branch that's cut from the vine is not going to produce fruit.

So, that's what they go after. Now I'm sharing this with you, knowing that the Satanists are going to listen to it and goggle about it and say, "Hey, thanks for telling us where you're having trouble. We'll fire you up and give you some more trouble." But the bottom line is they are doing me such a service.

It's like being in a university. Every time they come along with more ugliness, the Lord exposes it and shows me what has to be done. And first and foremost, my dear ones, we have to stay clean. We can't hold bitterness, anger, or resentment against anyone, even ourselves. And then we need to pray.

And of course it's better to pray with several people than just pray by yourself. Some people are loners and they miss out on the connection and the power that's given when two or more are gathered in His name, so don't let that stop you.

Okay, the Lord answered me because I said, "You know, without Your protection." He answered and said, "I promise you My help and My protection, but you must stay with it and not allow yourself any distractions. When you finish a piece, then you can settle in with Father. This will take a great deal of discipline to not give up, walk away when you feel like you've hit a brick wall." "Yes, Lord, I know that. I know better." "Beloved, part of your problem is a lack of confidence that it is I who am doing the work through you. Please try to relax with Me and let it flow, just as you do with these messages to My body." "I believe, Lord, please increase my faith with breakthroughs that convince me it truly is You."

He replied, "This I will do, but pay attention and do not get exasperated or run away. When you hit a wall, wait on Me. Pray and wait on Me. Take a walk, stretch, change what you're doing but stay away from the YouTubes. I shouldn't have to tell you that. You should already be convinced."

"Dear one, you have it in your heart to do what I want done by you. There are souls waiting and hanging in the balance that desperately need a refreshment from Heaven and you are oh so good at this. We've done it before. We can do it again. But are you willing?" "Lord, I know I need more grace to break through." He continued, "When you receive this special grace, you must move forward with it. It cannot lie stagnant or the enemy will steal it. Procrastination has made many marks in this community. Hear Me, My brides. No more procrastination or sliding back for a better day. Press in right then and there. Do you realize that procrastination is covert rebellion?" Covert means masked or hidden. "The enemy uses procrastination to throw a wet blanket over your assignment and distract you with other seemingly more pressing things. And that's a lie. I need what you have been given now. Not hours or days from now, but today, now. Please Clare, this is no time to relax."

"Yes Lord, I hear you and I will obey." "That's My girl. I will indeed help you to stay on track. And finally, remember the former works in your life no more. Much greater are the works you shall do now with My help. And don't forget your choir and orchestra of angels. This could be the most exciting time of your life, Beloved."

"Amen Lord. Let it be so." Now of course I've got to ask myself. Well I don't really ask myself, it just pops up. What about the rapture? And I know He's tired of hearing that. And He's told me that I would finish my work even after the rapture. The songs that I've been given, they'll happen after the rapture as well with our glorified bodies but I want to get as much done now as I can and I just have to go with it and believe that I'm gonna be busy about His work whether He comes or delays and not allow that to cause me to slack off because right now guys He needs every man on board everyone everybody together pushing praying and working to bring a revival in. So, that's His message to us today. Please don't procrastinate when you're given a gift. God wants you to move forward with that gift before Satan has a chance to compromise your feelings about that gift and steal it from you. The Lord bless you, dear ones, and make some comments about procrastination if you have a moment. Let me know what you found interesting in this message. The Lord bless you. Amen.

Our Mission Who Are Heart Dwellers

Beloved Heart Dwellers, attacks on our community here in New Mexico have been very challenging. There are some misunderstandings about who we are and who we are not. I want to clear this up for you so we can go forward in unity. First of all, we are not a church. Rather, we are souls in love with Jesus, and we strive to dwell and bring comfort to His aching heart for the souls that have abandoned Him and those who are not yet saved. We are a loose fellowship of souls all around the world that embrace the qualities of the early Church, especially in Philadelphia, that Jesus began in Jerusalem in the upper room in 33 AD. The call to follow Saint Francis comes to a soul who wants to live exclusively for God, a life of simplicity, detached from the agendas of the world, longing to live more like Jesus when He was in the world, and to learn humility through detachment from the purse of our own opinions, and to be teachable souls as we learn more about His ways. Obedience is guided by faithfulness to the Scriptures in our own conscience. It is never forced upon a soul, and it is never heavy-handed.

Our ministry cultivates intimacy with God, intercessory prayer, penance, and repentance for ourselves and the whole Christian body around the world. We share our intimate relationship with Jesus on social media to acquaint men, women and children with His desire to be an intimate part of their lives, to convince them that He longs to share in their lives, to guide them, to sanctify them, to nurture and protect them no matter how dark their past. He offers them a new life cultivating the gifts they were born with so they can become all that they were created to be. For instance I was a nationally published nature photographer and when I dedicated my life to Jesus He led me out of that world, turning my focus on to art and music, so I could draw all men to Him through songs and images. Oh, what a wonderful world of creativity He brought me into. But I had to be willing to leave the other behind. I have no regrets. I had dreamt about these gifts that I didn't have, and He awakened and empowered me to create with them.

Those who want to live their life for Jesus alone may choose to take vows and enter a community, but there are many who are called to operate in the secular world while they devote themselves to God in whatever capacity He calls them too. For those who want to embrace the depths of the faith, there are three Franciscan vows. Poverty, chastity, and obedience. These vows, also known as the Evangelical Councils, are promises made to God that help Franciscans imitate Christ by living in the married state, keeping the marriage bed pure according to the Holy Gospel, or if they are single. They're called to a life of celibacy, giving up that prerogative to be more closely united with the Lord. The vow of poverty involves detaching from unnecessary possessions, and in the life of celibacy. We nurture the pure intimacy that comes from our union with the Lord. Obedience involves trusting in God's will and in the guidance of the community.

We also follow the example of St. Francis of Assisi, living a very simple life, forsaking the values of the world. Wearing a simple brown habit and vowing to live a life of evangelical poverty, chastity for our state-in-life and obedience to the mother or father of the community, the vows a religious takes are three ways of imitating Jesus. Who is poor, chaste and obedient, the Vows are the response to God's invitation of love to each person to be consecrated totally for his glory and the salvation of souls.

They are a radical living out of the Gospels by committing to live as Jesus Himself lived.

Some of our dear ones had a different vision of who we are supposed to be. God bless them and may they thrive in their own terrorism. We never were told to have a strict international structure. The Lord has called us to be a simple, independent company of believers in love with Jesus and to share with one another this calling and all its challenges. Others may take the proactive of going beyond and building up their own unique vision, but we are simply in love with Jesus and the souls who do not yet know Him. Because we never claim to be a Church, it is our choice to remain under the covering of the Church Jesus began with the Holy Spirit in the upper room. 33 AD. This is the early Church 300 years before Rome became involved. We acknowledge the wondrous workings of the Holy Spirit through that Church and others that follow the Holy Spirit leading to the very best of their understanding. We believe that is the one Church, but we do believe that the early Church that Jesus instituted has been infiltrated by the enemy and severely compromised. So, we are carrying forth the work of the Holy Spirit what He began and the continuous moving on the hearts of all people around the world with His truth.

Precious Family, our sweet Lord Jesus has a place for everyone in the body of Christ, and there is simply no limit on how wonderful your life can be when you let go completely and give it to God. May your heart be one with Jesus and the destiny He has for you. Amen.

"Lean not on your own understanding in all your ways, acknowledge Him, and He will direct your path".
Proverbs 3, 5 through 6. Amen.

Patience and Kingly Virtue

Dear ones, let us embrace Jesus in His sweetness and the all-consuming love for us. Today at prayer time I ran into a glitch with the music and display so everyone could see the lyrics and sing along. It was tedious to say the least, and everyone had to wait until I decided that I needed time to problem-solve this glitch later. Jesus began speaking to me immediately. He said, "You are learning that I write straight with crooked lines. If in your heart you insist on straight lines, you will never stay aligned with My perfect will. It is a great accomplishment to learn exactly how to follow Me. No man or woman will ever conquer themselves if they cannot let go of their own agenda. That's what this interpretation is all about. It will not always be this way with all these glitches, but this is boot camp to teach you how to follow Me. Better a patient man than a warrior means that self-control and inner restraint are more valuable virtues than physical strength or the ability to conquer others. True strength lies in mastering one's emotions and desires, which requires greater power than any external act of aggression or conquest like a warrior capturing a city. Inter-strength versus external power."

"A warrior's power is external and often used to conquer others, whereas a patient's power is internal, derived from self-control, self-mastery. True strength is not the ability to defeat others, but the ability to rule one's own spirit and emotions. In ancient times, warriors were highly esteemed for their strength and ability to conquer territories, suggesting that even a greater feat is mastering oneself. Patience and self-control are presented as virtues that lead to greater wisdom and harmony, contrasting with the folly and destructiveness that can result from a quick temper."

Why do I know about that? "Thank you, Lord, you're changing me. God values patience and self-control, and that these spiritual traits are more significant than achievements in the physical world. Okay, that was the definition from the internet that I thought is very appropriate. He continued. "When you make the effort and shut down the narratives of the enemy, you are making great strides in understanding My ways." This world is full of randomness. By that, I mean situations can change in a heartbeat. We may never know when these things are going to happen, but the Lord knows. And

He prepares us to make the switch quickly if we are listening carefully. However, if our mind is stuck on our own agenda and what we want, we may miss the opportunity to stay in sync with Him and become frustrated and those who can adapt quickly are the winners.

"The others fall into a pit of misunderstandings and complaint because they cannot let go and allow Me to lead them to victory. They become the booty of war for the enemy, trapped and chained in their blindness to what is really going on in that situation. My people perish for lack of understanding. Wisdom and restraint together mean having a deep understanding and good judgment to control impulses, actions or words, especially in a situation where one could act impulsively. Wisdom provides the insight to see a situation clearly and make sound decisions, while restraint is the ability to apply that wisdom by holding back from certain actions or expressions to ensure a more positive outcome."

And we talked today about that with a particular situation that came up and we looked at the situation and I decided that using wisdom in the situation would be better than just overpowering the person by correcting them and the wisdom would be to make a sign and show them where certain things have to go hint, hint, so that they don't put them in places where they can be very destructive. Okay, that's wisdom and action. The other way is like the warrior coming in and saying, "Now, you know, I told you. How many times have I told you?" Et cetera, et cetera. That does nothing for the person but make them feel ashamed. But showing them a positive alternative reminds them that this is the way it has to be without putting in criticism and rancor and causing them to have a reaction. And when people have a reaction they don't remember the really important nugget which is put it here and up there because you're all wrapped up in their anger and their reaction. They don't get it so we want to try and work on ways to help people get it, help us to get it, and that's wisdom.

Okay, wisdom provides the insight to see a situation clearly and make sound decisions, while restraint is the ability to apply that wisdom by holding back from certain action for a more positive outcome. Wisdom is defined as the quality of having an experience, knowledge, and good judgment. I agree with that. Now this is AI, not the Lord. A way of walking through life, seeking to understand and live out truth. More than just accumulating knowledge, it's about taking a wide view of life and making decisions that make sense. Restraint is defined as the ability to hold back from doing something. The power or right to act, speak or think as one wants to without hindering or being hindered. A form of discretion or self control that prevents one from acting on certain thoughts or desires. When wisdom and restraint are combined, they create a powerful ability to sound judgment and action.

Wisdom helps you understand the situation and make the right choice. While restraint ensures you actually follow through on that wise choice by not giving in to the impulses or immediate gratification. One place where I'm learning that with you guys is not to interrupt you at mass. Self-masterly. It involves understanding one's desires and motivation, and then having the discipline to choose the best course of action, even if it's difficult or requires delaying immediate satisfaction. And I can see that. It's like my first reaction to a situation might be like, "Well, why did they do that? That wasn't right." I want you all to learn to go deeper, the Lord, continued. "The people of the world operate on the surface of their own understanding. They rarely perceive what is really transpiring at that moment, but you, My children, are learning how to follow Me into the depth to understanding" the workings of those who control the world's narrative. When you make the effort to shut down the narratives of the enemy, you're making great strides in understanding My ways. Because this world is full of randomness, things changing quickly, changing directions, unexpected things coming up. And those who can adapt quickly are the winners. The others fall into a pit of misunderstanding and complaints. They cannot let go and allow Me to lead them to victory. So, they become the booty of the enemy of the war, trapped and chained in their blindness to what is really going on in that situation. My people perish for lack of understanding. Wisdom and restraint together mean having a deep understanding of what's going on, not shallow, superficial, and good judgment, and self-control, and not acting on our impulses, our emotions, and wisdom provides insight to see a situation clearly so you can make decisions based on what's really going on."

Not on your emotions, but what's really taking place here. The enemy, he abuses us by the way he feeds us narratives and frustrations, right? This way you get that short circuit if you stop and really look the situation. You can see how the enemy has set you up to get your emotions involved and ruin your day. It's a way of walking through life, seeking to understand the truth about things. It's not about knowing everything, it's about knowing how to work with everything and make decisions that are for the benefit of all. Power or right to act, speak or think as one wants. Without hindering or being hindered can be very destructive. So, a form of discretion or self-control prevents us from acting on certain thoughts and desires and putting things into chaos, really, because once you bounce off with your emotions, they're going to bounce off with theirs. When wisdom and restraint are combined, they create a powerful ability, sound judgment. You understand the situation, you make the right choice, restraint holds you back from being foolish. This is where the Lord said, "I want you to all learn to go deeper. The people of the world operate on the surface of their own understanding. They rarely perceive what is really transpiring in the moment. But you, My children, are learning how to follow Me into the depths of understanding the workings of those who control the world's narrative. You don't just see the superficial things going on, you actually see there's a dynamic behind it. And that's what you begin to understand instead of popping off at the surface of a situation."

He continues, "They rarely perceive what is really transpiring at that moment, moment, but you My children are learning how to follow Me. To stay within My will, you must be able to see the truth and the happenings in your life. So, you've got to go deeper to understand what's really going on and what is God trying to do here. "Many sins are offered up to you when you become impatient. I am training you in ways to overcome these snares. Here are only a few pitfalls of impatient. Judging the person delaying the situation, a loss of concentration on what I'm trying to show you, your mind becomes captive to the endless loopholes of judging another person, and you miss the point entirely. You come away not understanding the lesson, you become critical of those who are not in agreement with you. You carry forth the wrong lesson and are left weak, so in the future you will repeat that same action, never learning the truth about yourself and why you lack understanding. There is real and true reason I use Mother clear to sift you in these situations. But if you are critical of her, you've missed the point entirely. Better a patient man than a warrior." Proverbs 16:32.

"Restrain the impulse to pass judgment. Rather ask the Holy Spirit, "What are you doing in this moment? What are you trying to accomplish through this and then work with Him and pay close attention to the lesson. Beloved ones, I am with you in this reordering of your mind. To be in sync with Mine, I will give you the grace to overcome your hasty inclinations." And that was the end of the message.

Many blessings and may the Lord's divine and merciful grace be upon you. Mother Clare began, "Oh Lord, I want to be better. I don't ever want to hurt anyone. I want to be like Your Mother, in compassion and kindness. I've failed myself and my children miserably, even with all the help You gave me." "I don't want you judging yourself that way. Just repent for wasting time on foolish and vain things." "Lord, I don't know how to handle this." "You must love them and look out for their best interests."

"Well, would you please tell me what they are?" "Whatever they choose, support them in that. You are right about one thing, they is not ready for this life. There are many subtle things you have not picked up on, an undercurrent. They are not totally honest with you but they seek to twist narratives to hide what they are truly feeling. That is why you must love them and pray for their well being. You are right on target with your discernment. I want to send you capable people but you mustn't pander to those who are not truly sold out and committed to Me, you cannot accept anything less." The Lord held me to His Heart. "I cry with you, I suffer with you, you have had a rough time, but Beloved, I am always with you to strengthen and uphold you. Those who wait upon the Lord will renew their strength, they shall mount up on wings like eagles."

"Lord, I want to do great exploits for You." "Do you think My Mother did great exploits?" "They were so hidden...but yes she surely did." "Exactly. And you, do you think you have done great exploits?" "I've done great follies." "I didn't ask you that." "I don't know Lord."

"Much of what you do is hidden from you, but it's critical none the less. The things that you do, fall between the cracks and go unnoticed. I must keep them hidden or you will become vain and arrogant." "I can already be that way."

"That's why you do not have much fruit to show, I keep it hidden. On the other hand, you can be reluctant to step into the battle when I need you. Mostly because you don't realize the good you can do, or should I say, the good I can do through you. Do you understand?"

"Please, bring me back from sleepy, please." I made coffee but I was still soupy. "Okay I'm back, but not too sure about how long I will last." "You will last long enough, I am supporting you with My grace, My Bride." "Thank You. And thank You for healing Papa."

"You're welcome. I want to acknowledge to you that things get hard. They do. But I am always beside you, waiting for you to call upon Me, but My Love, sometimes you forget." "I thought I wasn't calling on You enough, Jesus."

"Here we are, I've held you and danced with you and you are still reluctant to believe it is truly Me? What shall I do with you My loved one?"

"Convince me?"

"I have already done this countless times before. You need rest, quiet and prayer which will help to restore your faith. Indeed I will heal you."

Thank you so much dear family for praying for us, as we pray for you. We can definitely feel the effects of your heartfelt prayers. May God bless you and keep you in the palm of His hand.

Love Letter From Mother Clare
9.17.25

I have been pondering and praying for you dear one, because of the struggles you endured. I see great beauty and even more potential for you to rise to sainthood. Of course that is the last thing the enemy wants so he frames narratives of sufferings from the past, I believe blinding you to the wonderful opportunities for your future. Dear one, you have been virtuous all your life as you struggled with decisions and attitudes in your belated spouse. I so understand about that kind of mind set because I too went through it with my first marriage. In the years I was married to him he was very controlling and critical of me. He downplayed my inspirations and squeezed me into a mold that suited his own needs, not my will or heart at all. So, I understand how a spirit of control can oppress and cause us to loose heart, incentive and be dominated by fear in our decisions.

I reacted in rebellion and was a very real wild one. The things that could have helped me in my life, I avoided at all costs. As a result of that it took me 33 years to find the Lord and seven more years to discover what He really called me to be. The idea of being controlled by a church caused me to be reckless in my decisions and to be fearlessly independent from any man's or body of believer's opinions and agendas, after the Lord truly saved me. The Lord had pity, great pity on my rebellious nature until I could come to understand how Satan was using that very attitude to guide every choice in my life that could threaten my freedom and what I wanted from life. We have a great deal in common dear one.

Advice I got from believers and churches always felt wrong and clipping my wings so I could not fly. Then the Holy Spirit taught me about seeking God's opinion. It all began with my first class at church called, "Lord Change Me." A book from a very well grounded in the Word, older teacher. Immediately I recognized the potential of being freed from status quo Christianity where peer pressure was being used to cause me to fit in with their lifestyle. After three years in that church I reached a state that was still fearlessly independent and hadn't found the Jesus of the Gospels. I wanted the freedom to be who He called me to be, something more authentic like the way Jesus and the first apostles lived and were wholly devoted to Him without the restraints and trappings of the world. My mother was very much into the world of fashion as a makeup artist. I knew I didn't want to conform to that which would draw me away from Christ.

Then through the class I was taking on Wednesday nights, God gave me the tools I needed. An independent way of hearing from God with no interference from man. He led me through the Scriptures, by opening randomly and listening to His voice in between the lines. It taught me to take Scripture more seriously and how to hear God's direction for my life with no human intervention or controlling narrative that fit other's pattern of thinking. I desperately wanted direction for my life, but nobody could help me. I was so confused and lost because I couldn't find the authentic call of Jesus for my life. Then I found a little breadbox shaped object that was filled with Scriptures, that you pull up randomly and thought to myself, "I could make my own breadbox tool with index cards containing Scripture and words from the Lord as well as prophecies spoken over me." And so the Rhema box came into being. That was wonderful, but I really had doubts, would God honor this or was it divination? I sought the Scriptures for precedent. I found serious examples where this method was employed to determine the cause of a ship sinking (Jonah) and the selection of the twelfth apostle, Matthias and there were many more under the heading of casting lots. So, I realized the Lord had given me an ancient tool for discernment that He could use to lead me into His perfect will, with no one else trying to control me.

Then the next hurdle came, “What if He told me things I wasn’t ready to obey? What if I had to do things contrary to sound reasoning? What if I lost control of my life, the way I thought it should be?? What if a familiar spirit misled me?” These things troubled me deeply and I realized, the hidden truth behind my doubts, I wasn’t ready to let go of controlling my life by my own wisdom and fears. Then He gave me the Rhema Scripture, “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths. Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord and depart from evil. It will be health to your flesh, and strength to your bones.” Proverbs 3:5-8

That was exactly how He wanted to lead me. I knew I had seen in myself insurmountable pride with no way to conquer it. Now I had been given the way, but was I really able to let go and let God? Did I really give my life to Him without any conditions? Was I ready to see what was at the heart of that authentic life of Jesus, or would I be disobedient or ignore His direction and continue on in my own way? I began to realize, I wasn’t ready to do all He might ask of me, but in His incomparable mercy, He allowed for my cowardice and began working in the depths of my heart, with endless patience and love. As I applied this new technique, I began to see real results, my journey to freedom from my flesh had begun. It was far from easy, interpreting how my Rhemas applied to the current landscape and purpose of my life. There was a lot of trial and error, because when I didn’t like His direction, I tried to twist His words to suit my own agenda. But He never let up or turned away from me, even when I was trying to manipulate Him. Oh Jesus! Your love never gives up on us. You are so, so good to us. As I progressed I began to understand that His ways and thinking were way different than my ways. And I began to find my heart and what was really necessary for me to change. “Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding, in all your ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct your path.” The Holy Spirit was leading me and I was beginning to feel secure, even when I had to give up things I thought were important by the world’s standard.

The direction of my life changed radically in ways I had never imagined. The nice things of the world no longer appealed to me. I just wanted Him, more of Him. I began purifying my surroundings, wanting it less complicated and demanding. That opened up God’s treasure chest for me and I began to break from the Matrix so to speak, the status quo, what everyone expected of me. I only wanted more of Jesus and the worldly things involving money, stole my time and I couldn’t get rid of them soon enough.

Then Jesus brought a wonderful man into my life, a man that also wanted to live free from the world and other people’s agendas to serve only God. Ezekiel began to show me unhealthy things that still had me chained to the world, he challenged me to live only for God as God wanted me to live. Very much the life of a missionary, working only for souls, no more self, for comforts the world can give and for the security the world offers. I know I am still on this, living by faith alone journey, but I also have the peace of knowing He will never abandon me in my trials, and every day we draw closer together, of one heart, one will, one true and glorious destiny. Jesus walking by my side, loving me when I am unlovable, cheering me on when I feel like a failure, giving me new hope and restoration to continue on until the day He comes for me and says, “Well done My child, come enter into your Master’s joy.”

I hope you understand dear one, Jesus has led me into my destiny. A destiny Satan wanted to steal from me just like he steals from others so they will die in a weak whimper, wishing they had done more for Him. Yes I am weak, yes I struggle, but I cannot lose hope because He is beside me and pulls me out of the enemy’s pit just in time, sets me back on my feet and puts a new song in my heart. This may not be what you truly want dearest, but God sent you a holy spouse and it is what their heart needs, to follow God’s plan for their life. And I believe that if you wrap your life around God’s call for both of you, He will give you the grace. God bless you and give you the wisdom and courage you need for His Kingdom. Love, Mother Clare

Ups and Downs of Life

9.19.25

Blessings dear family, "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up." That's Galatians 6:9.

"Lord, I am tired of the drama please help me to not be weary in well doing," Mother Clare cried.

"I know exactly how you feel. There are not enough numbers to count all the times I have been in the very same place. The truth is, the souls that reject My will are like the stars in the sky. The ones who love Me more than themselves are like the planets and the moons in a solar system, but to answer you more directly, you cannot understand it in this moment, because you have never experienced it, war is like hell on earth and it's coming to your country." "Lord...?"

"I know what you are asking and the answer is yes, true to My word you will be taken when war hits, and Brandon is right, I'm not a wife beater. He is right about many things but sometimes his zeal is a little overwhelming. Stand firm Beloved of My Heart, this too will pass. All of the ups and downs, joys and disappointments you have experienced in this community, all of it, is being used to form you into My image. This truly is what you must undergo and experience, work through and hold your place, in spite of the many obstacles, betrayals and attacks of every kind, this is what it takes to form a leader. Detachment, detachment, and even more detachment is what is needed with the double minded souls. When the heat gets turned up, and they no longer want what I offered them, let them go to make room for others who are able to handle the heat.

"Satan works on each one according to their weaknesses, and when self will is stronger than trust in Me, I let them go their own way so they can mature through their mistakes. I love and care for them and try to protect them within the boundaries they have set, until they discover that My will was better for them than theirs. Pray, love and pray some more. I have been with you in this journey. In the joy and in the sadness, I feel even more sadness than you can comprehend, because I know what awaits them, and it breaks My Heart. This is why I ask you to pray for them, and it keeps you clean from bitterness and resentment which are truly lethal weapons of the enemy.

"Stand fast My Beloved, I will bring you more vocations that truly are committed to obedience because they TRUST ME. You see, this has nothing to do with you, this is the most powerful will of self interest and how to follow the wisdom of their own minds rather than trusting Me. It is not a rejection of you Clare, it is a rejection of Me, but even then I never abandon a soul, I always keep a watchful eye. I want you to be fully confident that what I have promised and even more is coming to this community from My Heart. Yes Beloved, I love and approve of this community even with all your bumps and bruises. Why, you ask? Because in your own insufficient way, you have given Me your all, as much as you are aware of and you are still growing, still willing to give more and more and more, determined to give your all till nothing of you is left, and these good vocations have done the very same thing with determination, and to pray with their learning leader. I adore these souls steeped in humility and fighting with all they've got to remain in My Will, and because of that, I will do marvelous things through them." Amen!

We Shall Work Together Restoring the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth
9.22.25

May the blessings and favor of the Lord be with you, dear family. Mother Clare began, "Jesus, you are so beautiful in the portrait with Your mother reflected in the background." "I'm glad that caught your eye My Love." "And the incredible moment when a beam of sunlight hit Your left eye! Amazing and what a supernatural sign!" "Tell Me, why did it take so long for you to be here with Me?"

"I didn't feel worthy or prayed up enough to listen for You." "Haven't I been consistent in telling you that I love to speak with you? I love it when you come to engage Me as My sweet Heavenly wife." "I can't say I feel that way about myself Jesus." "Does that matter, when I do say this is who you are to Me? Beloved, I want you to feel more secure in My praises and acceptance of you than the lies Satan laces your mind with. Please stop believing their lies and concentrate on My Sweet presence in the portrait, for when you look at Me that way, My Heart goes THUMP-THUMP-THUMP. I fall in love with you all over again, just like our first days together."

"I feel that way too Lord Jesus, Spouse of my heart." "You should because it is far more real and accurate than those dark ones who defile your heart with their lies. They spit on you because they are detestable and cannot tolerate your pure and sweet love for Me. Ignore them Clare. Do you know what I am thinking right now?" "No Lord, I don't." "I am thinking about the first time I take you into My arms with your wedding dress laced with pearls and how perfect that moment will finally be with your warm hand in Mine hearts beating in one accord. Oh I so look forward to that first dance."

"What will it be like Jesus?" "It will be the most glorious moment of your existence when I receive you as My forever spouse and My betrothed is finally My irrevocable and eternal completion to My Heart. You see My precious, precious, Heart Dwellers, We will be joined in holy matrimony and all our dreams will come about through this endless consortium of My Brides, the Citizens of Heaven and assisting angels." I had to look up consortium, I didn't know what it meant, but this is one definition: the right of association and companionship with one's husband or wife participating in a common activity or pooling their resources for achieving a common goal, and Jesus finished the sentence, "The goal of healing and the building of My Kingdom on the Earth. My Beloved, this work will be glorious and you shall not be denied any tool or resource in this work, and together we will be building up this glorious kingdom. You shall use all the talents I have given you plus many, many more you have never dreamt of having, all for My glory and the glory of My people whom I have longed to reward for their dedication and sufferings on Earth as they work to restore My Reign."

"Oh My Precious Brides, truly eye has not seen, nor has the mind of man conceived the glory reserved for you in My Kingdom as it is built up as an everlasting habitation for My people. Ingenuity will flow as living waters through your hands as you prepare this habitation as a reward for the faithful. Clare this only the beginning of a world of possibilities. You will be inspired by the accomplishments of Heavenly gardens and habitats which sing the praises of the Eternal Father and bloom each day to provide new wonders for My faithful chosen ones."

"Okay you are tired, we will proof this together tomorrow. I love you and I love working with you, let us create music and vocals to highlight the wonders ahead of you." And that was the end of His message.

God bless you dear ones and may you be free to explore the endless world of possibilities with our Lord Jesus.

Rapture Timing - The Bride's Stained Wedding Dress

9.25.25

The Lord protect your minds and give you his clarity and peace in these violent and misleading times, my sweetheart-dwellers.

My dear ones, as Paul warned us, foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you?

My very dear heart-dwellers, ever since 2015, The Lord has told us that the rapture would come when America was attacked. I know that could happen at any time, and that is a sign I'm waiting for. But because of our prayers, God has had mercy time and time again.

So here we are with social media flooding the internet, and the years of supposedly discerning Christians, giving way frantically to rapture predictions, deliberately plan to deceive the elect and throw them into confusion and later despair and unbelief.

My precious ones, the Lord has asked me to withdraw from all prophetic voices on the net. Even Brandon, whom I love, and listen only to Jesus and Father God, although most of the time that's the way it's been for me. But when he recommended Brandon, I listened. I abstained from others anyway, which I usually do, since I don't want to be influenced by their messages.

So please, I give you the very same advice. There are all kinds of twisted narratives popping up here and there, and they are all, all so believable. Just to be clear, I'm not including Brandon in the twisted narratives. But we don't listen to stale bread. We don't eat moldy bread. We dwell in God's heart, where the bread comes straight from the oven of his love. and from Him who created the universe.

Go deeper, my heart-dwellers. Abstain from the internet and spend time with the Lord repenting. All this week, He's been showing me more and more about repentance and how the difficulties in our lives are directly tied to the sins of our past. In other words, we're paying off our purgatory on earth. Repentance is what he is still waiting for. In fact, I wouldn't be surprised if he brought on the moment of truth we've all been waiting for.

Where the airplanes and all vehicles are suspended in the air, all activity is halted so we can see what God sees in our conscience. That we are in need of deeper repentance. and acknowledgment of our sins. Most of us are still on the surface in repentance. Beloved ones, don't be afraid to go deep. Rather, be afraid that you might miss something because you have avoided looking at your sins with God's magnifying glass.

Let me tell you that in this past week, I have felt searing conviction for all I have done and excused myself for. But Holy Spirit is not allowing excuses. He is exposing and convicting and needs us all to go to the root of our rebellion, greed, and false piety. Self-righteousness and how we have made ourselves look. so clean when underneath is the stench of dead man's bones. He needs deep, soul-searching repentance from us, and especially an end to gossip, slander, and judgment.

How can we be raptured or equipped when we are still doing these things? Repentance brings revival, Please let him go deep with you. Pray Psalm 51 and look into your hearts. Ask him to show you what you have skipped over and refuse to see. You will feel so clean before him when you are brutally honest about your shortcomings and sins, especially a lack of brotherly love, fault-finding, and judgment that is devastating to the unity of the Lord's body.

Don't you know this hatred is planned, a planned attack on our country to start civil war?

The media are well-trained, well-paid demonstrators, are fleshing out the narrative to divide the country with civil war, and they are doing it using your mind, my mind, and our lips. Meanwhile, our enemies are lurking in the shadows, waiting until our nation is in complete turmoil. These people who plan these things are university-trained psy-ops operators. who are paid to manipulate your minds, to divide and conquer, which works every time.

No one but the Holy Spirit should have any influence on your mind. God help us. Stop the wicked narratives and correct them. Judge not lest you be judged. Remove the beam from your own eye before you try to get the sliver out of your brothers and do not allow others to defile you with their failure to love and bring unity to the body.

My dear ones, these supposedly Christian pastors who are ripping away at the body and a martyr for the faith are just as guilty as the one who pulled the trigger. How many more enemies will you incite to kill innocent Christians, even children, just to make your ungodly statements of hate?

How many times have you spoken false doctrine, you yourself, out of ignorance? Do you really think you're innocent before God? So what if he makes a mistake in doctrine? We have all done it. The world will know we are Christians by our love. So where are the Christians?

And yet we all think we're ready for the rapture? This is a time, unlike any other, that is screaming out, Repent, Christians, repent. You are being weighed in the balance and found lacking. Reform your hearts to resemble the love of Christ, not Satan's manipulations to destroy America.

Be wiser than the serpents coiled at your ears, already hissing and devouring your soul. Stand with Jesus and correct a brother or sister who is divisive and destroying.

Stand with the Lord and pray for them.

The Rapture, Lord's Sequence of Events

9.26.25

Beloved family, The Lord has spoken clearly about the sequence of events leading up to the Rapture. He began, "You've been hit with a truckload of condemnation that is why you are feeling this way. We'll have to strengthen your helmet, but you have gotten the message from the songs, please keep it tenderly in your heart. This is real Clare, it is NOT your imagination." "What about the Rapture Lord? Please I am begging You not to give me over to a lying spirit."

"You have been with Me now for how long?" "Since the messages began, 2014, 11 years?" "And you still don't trust your inner knowing when I speak to you for the channel???" "Lord, I trust You but I am not so sure about myself, mainly because of a bottomless pit of pride." "You have been overlooked, cut to pieces for your charism, hacked to pieces for your allegiance to the church, all because I chose it to be that way for you, to help you with this pride that often times plagues My prophets. Keenly aware of your lowliness in the Christian Community, I have ordered all things to keep you humble. Even this is part of My plan to humble you. Yes, yes, I know you are tired so you hope for an early Rapture, you are attached to the outcome so you are afraid to ask lest your own mind tells you what you want to hear, but I promise you, I will not let you down. There is still a place for you. You are still relevant and living within My will, so why do you doubt Me? I am coming for you, much sooner than you think. Now, let's get on with the message."

"There is much deception in the Christian community, which is quite deliberate. Not only are My Prophets being swayed by public opinion, but the media is doing a masterful job at misleading people. I have asked you to stop watching the current day prophets. Now what does your gut tell you?" "Well, if I am basing it on Your messages to me, which I continue to trust, there is soon to be a war and when that happens you are taking us immediately afterwards." Jesus replied, "Very good. Stick with that narrative and do not be led by any other. How much clearer can I make it?"

"Jesus, I miss You so. Oh God I love You, but how could you ever love me and trust me with such great riches for Your Body?" "That's easy. Many discoveries will be made after you are gone. I needed it to be that way to protect your innocence. And you are innocent. You have not fallen for any of the Christian idols you've been offered." "You are right Lord...even now I am thinking of Benny Hinn and his remark that he is coming here to see us, more vain glory." "It is his loss. Oh My Beloved Bride, do you see how vulnerable you are?"

"I feel rather hopelessly attached to human praise, to tell the truth." "Yes My Love, you see yourself quite clearly." "What about the dream Ezekiel had?" "It will come about in My timing." Jesus said, "And what about that letter to the President?"

"What about it Lord?" "I want to write it, I will dictate it to you."

Last night Ezekiel had a dream about alligators surrounding us. We were all grouped together in a circle, the beasts were closing in. All of a sudden the Lord came down from Heaven and snatched us all up and away to safety.

I want to repeat what the Lord told me about the Rapture in sequence with other world events. Since it seemed that the Muslim temple may be destroyed and the Jewish temple reconstructed.

1. World War III in Europe
2. Civil war in America
3. World War III in America
4. Within days, The Rapture, extracting Christians from world chaos
5. And what are the qualifications? Deep Repentance and they lived for God, not themselves.
6. Repentance. When? Now in this time frame 9-26-25, the Lord is calling for penance to pay all our debts so we don't have to stop over in Purgatory to be cleansed before Heaven.

My dear Heart Dwellers, I am deeply grateful of your continuing support. Thank you a thousand fold. As happens when schools open we sometimes come up short on funds for firewood for the poor living in cars and buses out on the Mesa, as well as the Taos Pueblo Reservation where we buy new shoes and coats for the winter. At this point anything would help, firewood has gone up since gas prices also went up, and we need to supply many on the mesa as we have in the past. Please earmark your donations for boots and coats or firewood, otherwise we will put the donation to the most pressing cause. God bless you, dear ones, and thank you for your loving support and prayers.

Jesus Loves Even the Wicked

"Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner. O Lord, please have mercy on me, a sinner. Lord, have mercy. Jesus, I know I do not deserve you, nor have I ever deserved you. But please, love me with your powerful and unconditional love anyway." Jesus began, "I will have mercy on whom I choose to show mercy and even the most vile of men I will embrace with My mercy if only they will ask." We have a lot of witches in the neighborhood and they're here every single night setting up their juju against us And then the Lord tears it down and protects us and we keep going. And part of the reason I have found out, and this is going to be a real eye-opener for you guys, is that we have some homework to do, some purgatory to do. In other words, we've repented, God has forgiven us, but there's still work to do to make what was done wrong, to make it done right. And for that we suffer. And purgatory is a place where we all find the mercy of God and see our sins for what they are. And we're cleaned up so we can go into heaven.

I don't know if you guys remember that message I did on Faustina when the Lord took me to the Carmelite Monastery in heaven, Saint Faustina, it came to the table and I was jealous of her from across the room and everyone in the room knew immediately what had happened and she came running to me and knelt beside me and said, "Oh mother, don't don't feel bad. We've all had to struggle with this very same thing." Well, when we go to heaven permanently, we don't have those struggles because they've been cleaned off of us. So, there will be more on this message pretty soon because a lot of things that we are suffering right now have to do with the debt that we owe. Even as the scriptures say, we will not be let out of jail until every last penny has been paid. That doesn't mean we're not forgiven. It just means that we have homework to do to clean up our attitudes so that we can walk into heaven. And this is a hotly disputed issue in the Christian community, but there's plenty of scriptural evidence of it and I'm going to be releasing a message soon about that. And lately He's been showing me that all these difficulties we're having with the witches have to do with our purgatory. There shouldn't be open doors. They shouldn't be landing here. The problems we have with them shouldn't be landing here. But because of some unfinished business from our lives, there are few open doors. And the Lord is most graciously helping us to close them before He takes us, so we won't have to go to purgatory. So, moving on.

The Lord said, "I will embrace them with My mercy if only they will ask. My precious local witches and warlocks, do you think I hate you?" No, I do not. Rather, I grieve for all the ways your minds have been twisted so you can no longer see the truth. I am making a provision for you. Yes, in spite of all you've done against My servants, I still care for you and desire to see you in the kingdom of God with Us. Very simply put, you are precious to Me. I knit you together in your mother's womb and fashioned you to become a living reflection of my dreams for mankind. Each one of you are uniquely knit together in your mother's womb with uncalculable gifts, talents, and abilities to represent the glory of your Creator and lead you forth in victory, not succumbing to My enemies plan to destroy you, before you can ever manifest My glory. I have been tugging at your heart in very subtle ways inviting you to try Me and see if I do not deliver something beautiful to the inner sanctum of your hearts. I know you staunchly push Me away, but I also know the signs of your lingering curiosity. Could it really be true that you believe lies about Me? Could it really be true that I have already forgiven you and planned an escape route for you? Seek Me and you will find Me. You will know the true and it will set you free. Do you really believe that Satan can breach My protection of you?

"Some of you are meant to survive your past and bring healing and deliverance to tortured souls, setting them free from their fate of burning in hell. Some of you, I have marked "free redemption" so you may enter into a life so much better than what you have lived in with Satan and his wicked plans to destroy you. He has sculpted many lies to keep you in bondage, but I will deliver you from them. Please share this testimony when I have set you free from the fate you have been dreading. Come to Me and I will make you free, forever free from the wicked fate Satan has engineered for you. And remember, I created you and I love you and I can recreate you if you come to Me and give your hearts to Me." Amen.
