

Towards a national housing strategy for Australia: The key requirements

Professor Dave Adamson, OBE
Compass Housing

Sign up and keep updated:
everybodyshome.com.au

Like the campaign on Facebook:
facebook.com/EverybodysHomeCampaign

Housing solutions
for all Australians

The nature of the housing crisis

Barriers for first time buyer entry to housing market

Rental stress for 40% of renters in private sector

Chronic shortage of social and affordable housing

Rising levels of homelessness

Housing solutions
for all Australians

A broken housing system

Towards a National Strategy (2016)

A collaborative report

Housing organisations, academics, peak bodies

Identified key problems in the housing continuum

10 point action plan

Coalition to campaign for change

Improvements since 2016

Federal budget of 2017

‘Comprehensive Plan to address housing Affordability’

Superannuation reforms to promote saving and downsizing

Restrictions on foreign investment

New National Housing and Homelessness Agreement

National Housing Finance and Investment Corporation

No National Strategy

A civil society response

A coalition of peak bodies and providers in housing, homelessness and social services

Self funding of a national campaign

Research on public concerns

Essential Media appointed to manage

Currently 18,000 members of public signed up

National Rally in Sydney in March 2019

Everybody's Home Plan

Develop a National Strategy to meet Australia's identified shortfall of 500,000 social and affordable homes

Prioritise first-home buyers over property speculators by resetting the tax system

Nationally consistent protections for tenants

Immediate relief for people in rental stress by increasing Commonwealth Rent Assistance

A bipartisan national plan to end homelessness by 2030

Campaign Video

Support the campaign by:

Joining the campaign as an individual: everybodyshome.com.au

Joining the campaign as an organisation: everybodyshome.com.au/org-signup

'Like' the Everybody's Home Facebook Page:
facebook.com/EverybodyshomeCampaign

'Follow' Everybody's Home on Twitter: @_Everybodyshome

Sign up and keep updated:
everybodyshome.com.au

Like the campaign on Facebook:
facebook.com/EverybodysHomeCampaign

Housing solutions
for all Australians