

Author Visit – DATE HERE

Author, Donalyn Kent will be visiting SCHOOL NAME HERE students on DATE HERE to read her debut children’s book titled Painting for Honey Bees and will discuss why these pollinators are so important to our planet.

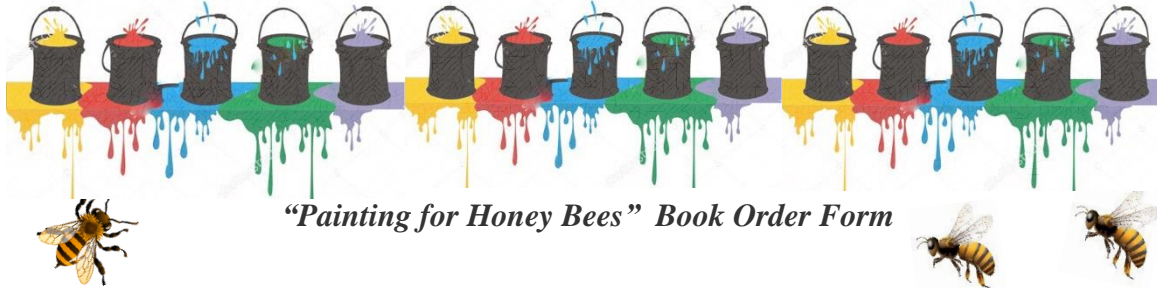

Based on a true story and inspired by a beloved beekeeper, this picture book blossoms with its educational twist on the importance of our busy little pollinators. Throughout this charming story, young artists are colorfully engaged with honey bee knowledge. It’s a delightful tale and visually nurtures honey bee awareness for all readers. This attractive book features additional perks like honey bee fun facts, 10 ways to help protect honey bees and has a thirty-word glossary.

The paperback books will be available for $12.00 each (cash or checks only). Please make checks payable to: Donalyn Kent. For more information about Painting for Honey Bees, please visit her site at www.DKTales.com.

Mrs. Kent will be personalizing each book signing. Therefore, pre-orders are recommended. Please complete the information below and forward to your student’s teacher. Thank you.
