

TRACS SCHOOL GUIDE – INSTITUTIONAL ASSESSMENT PLAN

HOW TO PREPARE THE INSTITUTIONAL ASSESSMENT PLAN

Bayside Projects Consulting Free Download Reference Guide

The Institutional Assessment Plan evaluates the institution's effectiveness in accomplishing its mission and objectives. It reflects an ongoing process of self-evaluation completed annually. It requires first aligning your school's policies, assessments, benchmarks, surveys, and meetings with TRACS standards.

EVALUATION AREAS

TRACS expects the identification of outcomes, assessments to determine the extent to which these outcomes are achieved, and evidence of institutional improvement based on an analysis of assessment results for sections 6 through 19 (as listed above). For each evaluation area:

- Describe evaluation criteria and assessment methods.
- Include an assessment report with the data collected.
- Include an analysis of the assessment and conclusions.
- Establish an action plan to address areas of improvement.
- Distribute to all stakeholders.
- Document all IAP meetings with minutes and revised quarterly action plan.
