BISMARCK: The Blizzard (2016: 7-1-1 Overall; 6-0-0 NDLeague) will host Williston on Saturday, Dec. 19 for its final game before the holiday break. Bismarck has won its last three games, all at home. It defeated West Fargo, 3-2, and Fargo North-South, 3-1, and Mandan, 7-0. Against WF, Britta Curl scored all three Blizzard goals. Against FN-S, Bismarck trailed 1-0 before Curl, Haley Wald and Lara Wentz scored. Against Mandan, Curl factored in on six of Bismarck's seven goals, scoring three times and assisting on three others. Curl has 11 goals in ND League play.

DICKINSON: The Midgets (2016: 1-6-0 Overall; 1-5-0 NDLeague) are off for the holiday break. Dickinson is coming off a 1-2 stretch that included its first win of the season, downing Devils Lake, 5-3. The team dropped games to Grand Forks, 7-0, and then Sidney, MT in a non-conf. game, 5-4 in OT. Against GF, goalie Breanna Chamberlain made 37 saves. Against DL, Kennedy Kuntz scored once and assisted on two other goals. Against Sidney, Taia Klamann netted a hat trick. The loss was the Midgets' third in a row to the Rangers.

JAMESTOWN: The Blue Jays' (2016: 1-4-1 Overall; 0-4-0 NDLeague) have three games before the holiday break, beginning on Thursday, Dec. 17 at Devils Lake. Jamestown will then travel to Grand Forks on Saturday, Dec. 19. The Blue Jays return home on Monday, Dec. 21 to face Mandan in a non-conf. game. Last week, Jamestown dropped two games on the road, falling to Minot, 7-1, on Dec. 11 and to Williston, 7-0, on Dec. 12. Elly Milender netted the Blue Jays' goal against Minot.

MANDAN: The Braves (2016: 3-2-0 Overall; 3-2-0 NDLeague) host Williston on Friday, Dec. 18 and then will travel to Jamestown on Monday, Dec. 21 for a non-conference game against the Blue Jays. Mandan is coming off a 2-1 record last week, including a victory over Grand Forks, 3-2. A night earlier, the Braves topped Devils Lake, 9-1. On Dec. 15, Mandan fell to defending state champion Bismarck, 7-0. Against DL, Mandan's Mariah Marsh had a goal and two assists. Against GF, Paige Lillis netted the game-winning goal with just 1:26 to play. Against Bismarck, goalies Chelsea Norton and Lucy Morgan combined for 79 saves.

MINOT: The Majettes (2016: 2-3-1 Overall; 2-3-1 NDLeague) are off until Crookston Holiday Tournament. Minot went 1-2 over its last three games. Following a 7-1 win over Jamestown, the squad dropped a 3-1 decision to Fargo Davies and 5-4 shootout loss at Williston. The Majettes did, however, pick up one point in the loss to the Coyotes.
