

MARGARET CRAIG

Margaret (Morse) Craig, age 80, died Tuesday, Feb. 18 at the Blake Hospital, Bradenton, Fla., after a short illness.

She was born in Pigeon, taught school in Huron County and Detroit. She was the widow of Elmer Scane Craig. They resided in Lathrup Village until their retirement.

She was an active member of the Community Congregational Church, was past president of the Lathrup Village Womans' Club and was an avid golfer.

Surviving her are one daughter; Barbara Jean Thompson, Oregon; one son, Douglas Craig, Michigan; seven grandchildren; one sister, Harriet Chappel, Bad Axe and one brother, Alford Philip Morse, Laguna Hills, Calif.

Cremation took place in Florida at the Griffith-Cline-Gardian Funeral Home.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society.