A Note from our President

Summer Greetings everyone, I hope you have many fun things planned for the summer, which kinda looks like we might be in for another "hot one".

I cannot thank our Spaghetti & Noodle Dinner helpers enough for handling all aspects of preparing, serving, and cleaning up for as many as 450 dedicated guests who evidently love our dinners. I want to hold off raising our prices as long as possible so we can continue to be the place to bring your family for a delicious, affordable meal.

The Ox Roast preparation is well underway. Steve and gang are getting some great new ideas for our "big day". I believe our past members are smiling down on us!

There are 2 actions taken at the last business meeting that speaks volumes about who we are:

1) We voted to allow Hospice Children's Camp to use our facilities for the week of June 23rd at no charge. Hospice representatives are so grateful to have a place that matches all of their needs for this wonderful event for the children. Therefore, there will be no Social Meeting June 25.

2) Members also approved a $1,000 donation from our club, along with $250 in donations from 3 generous members, for a total of $1,250 to those who lost everything in the tornadoes in London, Kentucky. The donation will be sent to Hometown Bank in London (who will match up to $200,000) then will be dispersed through a local church. I had the opportunity to speak with a church representative who asked me to convey, "God Bless the Newark Männerchor". Our acts of kindness truly says a lot about who we are as a club.

I also want to thank all of our Section and Committee chairpersons for all that they continue to do despite the long hours and terrible wages. To our members and families, EIN PROSIT!

As always, God Bless Us All, Everyone.

Your President,
Mike

Singers News by Cara Noyes 740-877-2722

We are preparing new music for Ox Roast. The national Sängerfest is in San Antonio in 2026 and we will be getting new music soon. New folks are always welcome to join on Mondays from 7:30-9.

Ladies Section by Marty Werner

The ladies met for their Tuesday June third meeting at 6:30 pm. We are working and preparing for the Ox Roast in August. We are going to have some brand new flowers for the tables. And of course, we are going to be preparing our cream puffs ourselves again this year.

We made $284 for desserts at the spaghetti dinner. We thank everyone that donated desserts and appreciate your continued donations of cakes and pies to help support our club. Our next meeting will be July 1 at 6:30 p.m. Be our guest at a meeting. We are always looking for additional members. Our hostesses will be Cathy Tierney and Cindi Yost. If you are interested in any additional information about becoming a member or would like to donate cakes and pies for our monthly dinners, contact Marty Werner 740-739-3146.
