

21-DAY DANIEL FAST

THE TRANSCENDENT FAST OF TRANSITION & TRANSFORMATION

NOVEMBER 1-21 2021

BISHOP C. SHAWN TYSON SENIOR PASTOR

The Transcendent Fast of Transition & Transformation

21 DAYS OF THANKFULNESS

PRAYER & FASTING GUIDE
MONDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 2021 –
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2021

Theme Scripture: “And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God”. (Romans 12:2 KJV)

PASTORAL PERSPECTIVE

Shalom and Supernatural blessings to the (Calvary & Christ Church) Family.

By the mercy of God, we are coming now into the final two months of the year 2021.

We must pause and attribute our continuance in the land of the living to nothing more and nothing less than the grace of God! We owe Him great praise!

As we enter into the holiday season with expectations for a powerful and productive new year, we must begin NOW to prepare ourselves spiritually, mentally and physically for those things which God will both reveal to us and require of us. After nearly two years of abnormalities of all sorts, we must re-center and refocus ourselves with the Kingdom agenda and proper personal and corporate spiritual alignment. I am godly proud of the way you have “stuck together” as a church family in the midst of circumstances that caused many churches to fracture break apart and literally cease to exist. This is a tribute to our spiritual foundation upon which we stand and a tribute to your personal commitment to the kingdom and house of God. But now we must advance the process of being more intentional and insistent upon reassembling ourselves together lest we find ourselves in a state of laxity, when the church must be moving in the Spirit with high precision accuracy, relevance, and urgency.

Thus, the Holy Ghost has called the church to “The Transcendent fast of transition and transformation”.

I will be sharing with you about Transcendence, Transition and Transformation, the rest of this year. But this entire year end process must begin with the proper attitude. And that more specifically is an attitude of gratitude! We want to enter into Thanksgiving with transcendent worship, adoration, prayer and praise!

Certainly, we all have challenges, tests and trials, but we are making a decision to BE THANKFUL and bless His name.

Both individually and as a church we need this time of cleansing, washing, Word and worship to place us in the proper mindset for a spiritual Thanksgiving and holy holiday season.

I urge you to join me in the pursuit of God! And if you will I can assure you both a successful transition into the new year along with a transformed mind to fulfill the will of God in 2022.

Let the transformation begin!

General Purpose of Fasting

Excerpts from How to Get the Most Out of Fasting
by Bishop Norman L. Wagner

Fasting is one of the most enjoyable experiences a saint can encounter when it is attitudinally conceived correctly, spiritually implemented and naturally followed. I strongly urge you to actually make a chart for your fasting.

State your primary goal, then your secondary or natural, or a temporal goal. Remember, temporal goals are those for the present world which shall be abated when He that shall come will come and rapture us away. It is very important that during your fasting, you pray. Fasting without prayer is nothing more than starving the flesh. You must learn to pray while fasting.

During this week of consecration, we will have set times of prayer, However, I strongly urge you to try to pray not less than three times per day. First, pray in the morning; second, pray sometime in the afternoon; and finally, pray sometime in the evening. If eating three square meals per day is good for your health, then certainly praying and feeding your spirit three meals per day has to be better for your spiritual health and wellness.

The Bible is the Bread of Life. When one is fasting, he should read the Bible more at this time than he does any other time. Therefore, if you read the Bible ten minutes a day, when you are fasting you should read it not less than 30 minutes a day. If you read your Bible an hour per day, when you are fasting you should read it not less than three hours per day. Fasting embodies prayer and scriptural reading. These are not two “nice” things to do, they are necessities. To get the most out of your fasting, read the Word of God.

Now reading the Word of God should always be done at random. Allow the spirit of the Lord to dictate to you a course of scripture to follow in your fasting. An example, of the same would be the Sermon on The Mount. It is within the Sermon on the Mount that you will find the Beatitudes which mean the blessedness of the Lord. The Lord teaches us how a man will be blessed if he follows certain axioms. When you are fasting, this will become more real and more alive to you.

The study of the Gospel of John during the days of a fast is always edifying. It is in the study of John that you will learn the deity of Christ. It is there that you can see Christ as the Almighty God.

Reading the Book of Acts is also beneficial on a fast. Here you will see the mission of the Apostles as related to the church. There are many places both in the Old and New Testament that are inspirational in fasting. The assigned scripture reading normally will follow the purpose of the fast. Above all, make sure that you READ THE BIBLE.

Next, I would like to suggest to you the memorization of a scripture during a fast. Each day of a fast carry a scripture with you. Write it down, put it in your purse or pocket, put it in your desk at your office; put it in your car; or place it on your refrigerator, but have a scripture that the Lord has given you that stands out above every other scripture for that day. Meditate on it throughout the fast and allow the Lord to bless your soul through the Word of the scripture. You will find this to be an invaluable resource of strength.

I trust that you will walk with God and enjoy fasting. Deny this old man so that the new man can live forever. Fast so that you can learn the mysteries of God and understand who He is and what Christianity is all about. Fast so that you can say NO to temptation and have no frustration or anxieties plaguing you when you know “...all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to His purpose (Romans 8:28). Fast just to enjoy the Lord. The more you fast, the more disciplined you will become. The more you fast, the more you will learn to use the power that is in you and the freer God will be in you. The more you fast, the more joy you will have. The more you fast, the more power with God and man you will have. My dear Christian friend remember the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, “*This kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting. (St. Matthew 17:21)”.

It is God's will that you triumph over the devil and every evil force, and that can be done by FASTING!

Before, During, and Breaking the Fast

Planning Your Fast

“Then Joshua said to the people, ‘Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you.’” Joshua 3:5

Pray—Spend time reading the Bible before the fast. Ask the Holy Spirit for guidance in your prayers. Write down your faith goals and specific prayer requests for your family, friends, church, and nation.

Commit—Pray about the kind of fast you will undertake and commit to it ahead of time. Ask God for grace to help you follow through with your decisions.

Act—Start eating smaller portions a few days before the fast. Avoid food high in sugar and fat. Plan to limit physical and social activities for the week of the fast. Ask someone to be your prayer partner throughout the fast.

While Fasting

[Jesus] answered, ‘It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’” Matthew 4:4

Focus—Set aside time to work through the devotionals. Be ready to respond to God’s Word and the leading of the Holy Spirit.

Pray—Join at least one prayer meeting in your local church. Intercede for your family, church, pastors, nation, campuses, and missions throughout the week.

Replenish—During mealtime, read the Bible and pray instead. Drink plenty of water and rest as much as you can. Be ready for temporary bouts of physical weakness and mental annoyances like impatience and irritability.

Breaking the Fast

And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of him. 1 John 5:14–15

Eat—Reintroduce solid food gradually. Your body will need time to adjust to a normal diet. Start with fruits, juices, and salad, then add more vegetables. Eat small portions throughout the day.

Pray—Don’t stop praying! Trust God’s faithfulness and timing. Carry your newfound passion for God throughout the year. Be in faith for God to answer your prayers.

- Check & return all pertinent business-related messages

- Watch the news so you may know how to pray – you may watch religious programming

We encourage you to avail yourself to God in this special time of consecration. Make a special effort to press your way into the presence of God each day thru prayer and teaching.

CONFESSION

The Apostolic lifestyle of holiness embodies the practice of confession which is clearly outlined in both the Old & New Testaments. Consider the following scriptures:

“And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall confess that he hath sinned in that thing:” (Leviticus 5:5)

“If we confess our sins he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” (1 John 1:9)

You are urged to utilize this personal time of reflection as a time to cleanse your spirit from any weight and sin which does so easily beset (Hebrews 12:1).
