

ALL MESSAGES JULY 2021

Faithfulness Is Our Greatest Gift To Him

July 1st, 2021

My precious family, may our hearts be softened, may our ears be opened to true discernment and our hearts be opened to wisdom. Amen

Blessed Mother is giving us messages every day now to prepare us for our mission for the Lord. I will not always post those messages because some of them will be personal. But even then, I will share as much as seems appropriate for both of us. Please forgive me if I repeat myself, there have been so many messages in the past few days that I am struggling to get caught up and I may overlap some of the things the Lord or His mother has given me.

When I came into the Rosary and began praying, immediately I saw Our Lady. And I said to her, most beautiful lady, thank you, thank you for coming to us. What can I do for you?

She answered me, "Faithfulness, is always the greatest gift you could give your God. I want all of those who love my Son to understand that I love Him too, so much so that I was willing to see Him tortured in order that they could be with us in Heaven. They do not understand, Clare, they think I want all the glory for myself. And nothing could be further from the truth.

"I adore Him and want nothing more than to see Him glorified and happy. This happiness consists in souls finding Him and being saved. He longs for this with all His Heart. That is why you have been called upon. This movement will never end. I will always be Our Mother of Mercy, and all will come to understand that I take nothing away from my Son. Rather I give Him souls, dedicated and bringing forth reconciliation to bring Him more joy." And when she says "I give Him souls," she means she works with the souls that are open to grace.

Our Lady continued, "You see, Satan does not want the Body of Christ on earth to avail themselves of my intercession nor of the intercession of the Great Cloud. He has suppressed the understanding because these are powerful intercessors. None the less, these chosen souls in Heaven do not relent. They continue to pray. Does Satan really think he can dilute or misrepresent my role in the church?"

“The answer is “Yes.” He has been doing this for hundreds of years and now it is time to stop these lies and bring all men into the kingdom reality that we are all alive and connected through the Holy Spirit of God. Once this is grasped the lies will be broken and all my children shall recognize me as their intimate friend and mother. I long to impart so many graces, but people do not want them for lack of understanding. The greatest of these gifts is the understanding of humility and the extremely important role it plays in their walk. And this too is one reason Satan hates me. I guide them away from pride, recognition, taking the credit, accomplishment and so on. If Satan can inspire a good man with pride, he can negate that man’s spiritual gifts and even be a cause for so many others to be fall. Boy, is not that true.

“This pride is rampant in the church, but it is little understood the depth of impact it has on their walk. The enemy is clever and if he can infect others with the same heart attitude and give it good PR, they will follow that example.

“You see they do not understand the tremendous help the saints and angels can help them with, they see themselves as totally separated from Heaven’s influence and yet they go to the tombs of great men of God, expecting their assistance, praying there. It makes no sense, but this separation has been touted for so long it has become a rule that the two can never be one until they die.

“Oh, my children, if only you knew all the riches of glory of those gone before you and how that would illuminate your path. If they could only see what is available to them, they would grow by leaps and bounds.” Boy that is true, I spent seven years as an Evangelical and did not get anywhere. She continued, “Your part is to instruct and encourage them that I am not some kind of idol, but the mother of their Savior, and as such, I too have a role in Heaven and helping you to reach Heaven.

“You see, in Heaven you will have many faculties you do not have here, and you will know all that is necessary for you to know at all times. The intimate connection between you and Holy Spirit will have no more limitations. Oh, how wonderful it is when you understand this.

“Continue to ask people to find in the Bible where it is not permitted in Heaven for you to pray for those on earth. Make a point about this and tell them, “If Jesus had wanted you to think that He would have told you outrightly, in the Scriptures, that no one can pray from Heaven, but rather than this He demonstrated how you can converse with those in Heaven, at the Mount of Transfiguration.

“Oh, my dear children, do not be deceived and separated from those in Heaven. You are one Body of Christ with one head, Jesus Christ. Never forget that you are intimately connected with those in Heaven. And they have been sanctified now and they care about you and will pray for you. They are alive, not dead. The ones that are dead are the ones that will be called into the judgment. But these are the ones that are in Heaven, just like Moses and Elijah. And they are permitted to interact with you, even as I am permitted.

“I bless you now and pray for the sweet presence of my Son to cover you and lead and guide you. Amen”.

All Must Repent & My Sins

July 2nd, 2021

My precious Heart Dwellers may the Lord give us strength to endure the fiery trials that the Lord allows to purify our souls. Amen

I want to share with you that Ezekiel came awfully close to death for two nights in a row. I have been holding onto the promise spoken by Jesus, that we would both be Raptured. But I felt deeply compromised in my thinking when he went through horrific pain. I cannot even adequately express to you what he suffered. I believe it was partly our enemies and partly the manifestation of the stigmata that he gets when the Lord is calling the whole community to prayer for those who are unprepared for death.

But rather than lasting for an hour, it lasted for a good six to eight hours on both nights. Then one of our community members who hears from the Lord told me, “The Lord has given Ezekiel a choice, either to stay until the rapture, or be taken so he would not have to suffer anymore.” When I heard that, I said to the Lord, “You gave me a promise, and I am standing on it.”

My dear ones, I must tell you, I was in agony watching him in agony and I thought to myself perhaps it is better to let him go. But in all honesty, I just could not. He did not want to go either. He had made up his mind, he would endure the pain and stay until the Rapture. It was sheer hell for us both until four in the morning when the pain finally subsided. I went to bed shattered inside as he drifted off to sleep.

When I was beside his bed, my face was buried in the blankets crying out to the Lord, it occurred to me that perhaps part of this was our purgatory. I know there are things I could have done better; I know there are sacrifices I could have made but did not. I know I had not given this life my all, but rather at moments have been indulgent when I could have abstained. So, I began to repent, and repent and repent.

When the Rosary began, I saw Our Lady immediately. She was holding a filigreed chalice that had some substance in it and she extended it me.

She began, "I am here to strengthen you, Clare. Drink this. Not much more to go my dear little Clare. Be a soldier for your Lord. Carry this and keep going, no matter how futile it seems to you. It is not futile, there is still a great deal to accomplish."

Is it true? I asked. You said it was a long dark tunnel...this has not been exceptionally long.

She continued, "No it has not but your repentance is moving His heart. Keep that up and it will deliver you sooner. We are in charge here, not the devils. When He says enough, it will stop. It is up to Him, Beloved."

"Shall we go on?" she said.

Yes mother, with your strength.

How can I go on, I know I have been guilty of so many lapses in charity and outright sin?

"I will not try to justify you," She replied. "Nor should you try to justify yourself, but you have also done a great deal of good. That counts for something."

I am so sorry, Mother, but I do not trust myself not to forget and sin again.

She replied, "These are times where all must search their souls and repent of wrongdoing. Many do not comprehend that they have lived sinful lives. They do not recognize sin because it is not taught as a part of social norms. In these days, anything goes, all passes for good, even the most heinous crimes of torturing children for their body's substance.

“All must repent, even as it was said in the Chosen series. It is not a matter of certain people groups needing to repent. Jesus said, all must repent.

“Heaven’s standards are so much higher than what passes as acceptable on Earth. Part of this suffering you are going through is to demonstrate to all that sins will be paid for, even as Scripture says, every jot and tittle.

“So many Christians do not recognize where they are lacking and such a degree that it is sin. For instance, spending money on superfluties, luxuries, appointments, expensive homes and vacations, designer clothing, extravagant meals, liquor, and cars to impress others. So much is not understood about their role with the poor, and that they will be held accountable for those who were starving and never received what they needed from the wealthy.

“When you went to Ecuador, you discovered a way of living that was the very lowest, subsistence level. There were no big expensive supermarkets, just the local outdoor market, no sprawling homes, just one or two rooms the family shares. When you came back you saw the stark comparison between the two. Jesus, Joseph and I had a simple adobe house. Low ceilings, dirt floor, small windows, and we lived within our means. In this way we were able to contribute to the poor around us. Most do not recognize this kind of poverty in the world or put two and two together that they can actually alleviate it.”

After Our Lady finished her sentence, I saw Jesus come and she faded into the background.

He began, “Did I not make a promise to you that he would not die? When I offered him that choice of not having to suffer any longer, because I would take him, he himself made the decision to stay. I will never force My will upon another. I know you both are crushed to see the kind of pain he has been in. I know it has brought you to your knees. And that is what I hoped to accomplish.

“You see Beloved, my people must be brought to repentance, I am using you as an example, because they see you as a saint, even though you have totally rejected that title. So, If I must do these things with you, what may they expect? Because the time is short, because My Bride needs to be without spot wrinkle, or blemish, I must make an example of you Beloved to help them recognize their sins of rebellion, self-serving, and excess.

“My precious one, it is not My Heart to completely destroy you. It is only My Heart to awaken your conscience, so you recognize sins you have not been acknowledging and refusing to continue in. Your culture is blind to sin, and I have asked you to bring sin to light, because many do not see their sinful actions. This is so important. Please move ahead with this”.

But Lord, I feel so very broken and crushed inside.

He replied, “My mother has just strengthened you with her life-giving elixir, though you did not taste it, you did in fact receive it and it is holding you upright at this moment, able to hear My voice.”

Blessed Mother, are you still here?

I heard her voice, “Have I not said, I am at your side? This is a very great grace to help our vessels unto honor to persevere through their fiery trials. Even as pottery is tried in the fire to harden it off, so must each of my children go through the refining process. Our idea of what a Christian sounds and looks like, is not the same as yours on Earth.

“I will bring you forth from this trial, Clare, I will not abandon you. So, yes, I am here by your side, ever vigilant, ever praying, ever extending my loving comfort to you.”

Thank you, Blessed Mother, thank you.

I know it has been several hours since I got up, going on four in the morning, and I did not expect to do anything tonight, but I have been able to get out five messages, so she has strengthened me. Her intercession, dear ones, is priceless, priceless!

But only the humble can receive it. And I am not saying I am humble, but I am humble enough to be able to receive it. Just barely.

I recognize her exalted position before God in Heaven, and I am so grateful for her helpfulness.

I hope and pray that you, too, will call upon her and allow her to form you into a saint that you were called to be. Amen.

Count on His Grace

July 3rd, 2021

Beloved family, I hope by now you are getting a taste of how the Blessed Virgin leads us. She is so tender, so faithful, so solicitous for our welfare. I pray you will entrust your prayers to her.

When I came into the Rosary this night, she began, “Yes I do wish to speak with you. There is no fault in you asking your husband to stay. It is more a matter of pain. The Lord was trying to give him a way out. But he loves you so deeply, he is trying with all his might to hang on to life.”

Mother, what about the word that was spoken over him? I do not understand. Am I the problem? Please cut through any of my resistance and help me to hear clearly.

She continued, “You have done nothing Clare. Except this is a sort of purgation. You being more and more purified through repentance will definitely aid in this process. How much do you love him?”

Yes, I see I am still very much in self-love and not immediately willing to give certain things up. What should I do?

She answered me, “Give up what you can my child and I will make up the difference. I will.”

But I do not wish to cause anyone more suffering.

She replied, “I have others who are willing to help where you leave off in your weakness. That does not mean you love him less, it means that you are not strong enough, but you could be. Press in dearest, I will help you.”

I always saw that as our marriage mother.

“Sweet Clare, he is doing all in his power to stand by your side.”

Mother what can I do to help him so he will not get this pain so badly?

She said, “Fast as you can, and I will make up the difference. Put real effort forth and pray for his healing.”

Oh mother, help me please.

“Clare I am ever by your side. You know, you can pray the Rosary anytime, you do not have to wait for the group. It would help you to stay closer to me and obtain comfort. Do not give up Clare, do not give up. Hold the line firmly., profess the promise and pray for your enemies. Every measure you take will bring forth good fruit. You cannot out give My Son.”

That made me think of the beautiful droplets after the rain that were touched by sunlight and sparkled like multicolored Christmas lights on the spruce tree outside my window. Thank you, Jesus, for the twinkles in the tree.

Our Lady continued, “Your country is approaching the moment of truth”. My head was down. She said, “Look at me, Clare. I love you; I cherish you and I am sorry your path is so hard, but this is what it takes for the kingdom of God to come forth. Beloved little one, this is so transitory and will be over faster than you can calculate or even imagine. These are truly the last sacrifices to bring in the harvest...”

“Do not fret my child, everything will glorify God and bring you unheard of joy. You cannot imagine what awaits you, just do not despair, fight the good fight down through this long dark tunnel. He is fighting with you, and we are fighting for you, you are not alone.

“There is no comparison in the way of these sufferings for the heavy weight of glory that will assume and overtake you. Do not despair, we will strengthen you. Hold onto the promise, he is holding on for you.

Mother, please alleviate his suffering. Please?

She continued, "There will be moments of mercy, yes, you have many praying for you and mercy is in order here. Continue Clare to offer everything and count on His grace to carry you through."

That was the end of her message and Mother Elisabeth also saw something and received a message from her during this Rosary.

During the second decade of the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary, the Blessed Mother Mary appeared and took a pure white mantle from around her shoulders and place it on each one of us, starting with Father Ezekiel, and then kissed the top of our heads. I said, "Thank you Blessed Mother, we love you. "And her face lit up.

Then she began to speak, "There are many graces woven into these mantles, but my dear children you must cooperate fully with these graces for them to become effective. It is like yeast which activates when added to the dough, so it is with the Lord's graces, there must be full resignation on your part to receive and embrace His Will. Your hearts must be pure and your thoughts and intentions true."

"You must believe and trust in my Son, now more than ever to withstand the coming events. Call on my intercession my children and I will help you and instruct you."

And that was the end of her words said to Mother Elisabeth.

Sin Veils Spiritual Vision

July 4th, 2021

Holy Spirit, come and show us the dark places in our souls, and the sins, so that we may repent and be pleasing to Jesus. Amen.

This rosary night, I could not sense the presence of Our Lady at all. So, I stopped and said a binding prayer. Still, no Mother Mary. Then it occurred to me, I had gotten impatient and angry with my husband about something, and I realized I had sinned against charity. So, I asked one of our presbyters (priests) to give me an absolution. He did and immediately the Blessed Mother began speaking with me.

I am here, Clare. Staying clean is so important. Even though you did not commit a serious sin, still the veil of sin blocks you from breaking through, and that is my message to you today dear family.

Sin darkens the soul, the spirit, the senses. If you wish to see and hear the Lord and His saints and angels it is imperative that you stay free from sin. Immediately when you sense anger rising up, repent and go aside to prevent any further contamination. I speak, but you cannot hear or see when sin has obscured your vision.

All of you my children, must at every moment of every day keep yourselves free from sin. The more intense the times become, the more prone you will be to lose faith, and sense of security, and if you are not properly united with the Lord this will cause you to become anxious and sin. Either against faith or against each other in angry and tense moments.

I want you to make it a habit to deal with your sins immediately and not delay or put it off. Life is much harder when you are out of the state of grace, and ministry too is diminished. What sins should you be especially careful of? Judgment, gossip, slander, covetousness, impatience, lying, rebellion, resisting those in authority or questioning their judgment, entertaining sexual thoughts or actions, jealousy, cowardice and sloth. These are true sins that darken your perceptions, therefore, when you feel these rising up, immediately go aside and deal with yourself, bringing it all to Jesus who is just waiting to forgive and grant you more graces.

If you have an objection against those who are responsible for your well being, there is nothing wrong with questioning in your heart and asking God to reveal His truth. But, if you are objecting out of a contrary spirit, this comes from Pride and Rebellion and Satan has motivated you. Some of you have struggled with that as a lifelong habit, now is the time to conquer this ugly manifestation.

Clare, I know you struggle with this at times and I want you to come immediately aside and repent. Do not just brush it off and keep going. It has caused a layer of darkness to cover your spiritual senses. I want you to be free from those.

Mother, I am sorry, I see that habit, it is truly sinful.

Well, I forgive you, now you must fight against this tendency and overcome it. It stems from Pride and a contrary spirit. Putting it to death will cause your spirit and soul to brighten and receive wisdom from Heaven more readily. Here I have imparted a little secret for you that open the eyes of your heart, soul and spirit to receive more easily from us. There is mercy for you, but repentance is of the utmost importance.

Go now my precious ones and let this lesson sink in very deeply, begin to amend your ways. I am your Mother of Mercy and I care for you tenderly in every facet of your life.

Thank you. Thank you.

The Sins of Excess 1 of 2

June 5th, 2021

God bless you, dear family. Well, I have been under conviction lately, and the Blessed Mother came during worship, she came during the Rosary and spoke to one of the sisters in the room. And I was really beating myself up, but sister said that Our Lady came to her and said, "Stop beating yourself up." Of course, I could not just stop beating myself up, I had to get a few more punches in, but...

Later, after the Rosary she began to speak to me. And the sister that saw her said she came around behind me and wrapped her arms around me, trying to comfort me. And I did not see or feel her, and I said I feel so terrible, mother, the Lord has called me to be someone else and I have squandered money that should have fed the poor.

I heard, "The poor you shall always have with you. Just pick up where you left off Beloved daughter. Go back to where you left off...the Lord forgives you Clare."

It is the gray areas that are so confusing. Show me, teach me the way I should go, I long to be back in that place when I first took my vows.

And then she said, "Shall we go aside?" Because we were in the middle of the community rosary and she was inviting me to step into a quiet environment, which I knew would happen after community prayer.

I returned two hours later due to necessary interactions with those around me. Precious mother, forgive me for being gone so long. Are you still wanting to talk to me?

“I surely am”, she said. “Remember Clare, your charism is to live on the edge of want, but not appear to be wanting for anything, because you have my son. You may have what you need to create, within reason, child. I think you know when you are being dishonest.”

And yes, I do. Sometimes I get too many art supplies. And I went through that when I was working on the portrait of God the Father. And the other thing is, it is so against my nature to be on the edge of want. I want to be on the edge of, ‘we have everything we need, chill, and do it.’ And she is saying no, we need to be on the edge of want and that goes so much against my character, especially because we live out in the wilderness.

Then she continued and said, “Do not stifle your conscience because after a while it will be seared shut. People do not understand, it is the little foxes that ruin the vine. Psalm 51:10. This is how Satan gains entrance in your lives, little by little. Were a demon to make a big move you would be leery and refuse, but in little steps, little gradations, over time, he can gain entrance. This is a universal tactic of evil.

“The secret to stopping that is nipping it in the bud, before it blossoms into full blown avarice. Consider the result, in your mind go all the way down the road to see where it ends. For instance, let us say you are shopping for a refrigerator. As you are looking for them over you see one that is very plain, it has an adequate freezer and ample shelves, plenty of room, is plain white and it will work fine. Then you spot another one, stainless steel, with swivel shelves and drawers, pull out ice maker and water dispenser, and a freezer on the side with an extra-large capacity. This one is almost double the price, but it has all the nice features and is not a big white eye sore. Thank goodness, that has not been my soft spot. I would have gotten the white one.

But she is trying to demonstrate a point here.

“Then comes the kitchen appliances, top of the line blender, food processor, and a stove with a grill and oven, plus 6 burners, a chef’s dream. All you need is a stove with an oven, but this one lots of nice features. Meanwhile in Madagascar children are starving and eating mud to stay alive, they could sure use that extra $1500 you would spend on a top-of-the-line appliance.

“You see it all happens little by little. You see something, and you begin to covet it, you reason with yourself that it is needed and soon you have talked yourself into something extravagant when something simple would have worked fine. You violate your conscience, and it begins to die. The next time you decide about something you have set a standard of getting the best when common would do nicely. So, little by little your conscience is covered over in scar tissue, and you have no moral compass about these things.

“Most of the time, Clare, you choose very carefully and keep it simple. You really have done very well in providing for the community what is necessary. But because you are out in the wilderness and concerned about not having what you need when you need it, you tend to over provide, rather than leave yourself open to not having what is needed when it is needed.

“That also happens with books and art supplies. You have overdone it in the past. I know you are ashamed Clare, and I do not want to shame you anymore, but your lapses in Franciscan poverty are a bad example to others. Better to go without than to have too much. Besides that, St. Francis did not like excessive curiosity, books and learning. He preferred the brothers to serve the lepers rather than delve into the mysteries of the faith. Besides, my Son is fully capable of revealing mysteries scholars have hungered to know, but without the books and endless research.

“Charity, compassion, a heart to supply the basic life needs of the poor, these are the virtues you should cultivate in the community, not book learning. That can and will become a stumbling block if you do not nip it in the bud. Do you understand, Beloved?”

I do mother, and my conscience is smarting right now. We have books we do not need.

“You also have a few sparse books you do need and those are acceptable. But an emphasis on learning will surely kill the vocation suiting a simple brother and sister, rich in love, yet poor in earthly goods. This is the standard you need to set and maintain. There will be unending temptations to go overboard because the devil hates Evangelical poverty. He wants to destroy any monastery that lives by this rule.

“He wants the brothers to be so preoccupied with nice appointments for the altar.”

He would not let me get new linens, or, new, you know, new alter vestments, or anything when father was ordained. They were all hand me downs, and boy, did I have plans and boy, did He nip that in the bud.

“The devil wants the brothers to be so preoccupied with nice appointments for the altar, extensive books for the library, gourmet food, media center and video library, etc. etc. that they are preoccupied with storing, cleaning, watching, protecting, one thing after another. And one is never satisfied with the basics, there is always another book or another video.

“You are not to become cloistered with educational tools, so much so that there is no time for prayer. Don’t you understand that Jesus will tell you all you need to know? You do not need to go surfing for current events.

“The true delight in a monastery is to dwell with God in His holy temple and present to Him the souls that need your prayers. This is where the power and the glory are. Not in learning more about the customs of Jesus day, or archeological findings. Once you become enamored of these things the enemy is leading you away from the holy gospel and its simplicity, into a world of wonders you can never fully know about, thus the hunger for books and knowledge robs you of the sweet companionship of the Lord. You know He is fully able to tell you what is going on in the world and what you need to pray for.

“He longs for your company and even the sweet melodies you make for Him. This is what brings Him comfort along with passionate prayers for those who do not know Him and will soon be dying. Please my children, do not lose your focus, pray for those who will soon be dying. Spend time with those who do not know Him and tell them what your relationship is like and what He has done for you. You would be shocked to know how little, true understanding most people have about Him.

“His humanity is so alluring. To know that He suffered even as we do is so comforting. Most have this notion that it is all about religion, when in fact Heart Dwellers know it is all about relationship. People hunger for authentic love and acceptance, just the way they are. They do not want to have to live up to a bunch of rules to know God, as a matter of fact, they have long ago determined that they are far too sinful to approach God. That is heartless legalism when they are looking for a place to lay their weary heads and be understood and even find help to overcome the problems in their lives.

“My People, those around you who do not know God as you know Him are languishing. They have written off religion as an impossible discipline in their lives. They know all too well that they are sinners, but what they do not know is that they cannot save themselves, nor does Jesus expect them to. Rather He came to save sinners and redeem them from the curse of eternal death. He came to make sense out of their lives. He created each one and knows when they stand and when they sit, what brings them joy, what horrifies them, and they have all written off Jesus as unattainable. Nothing could be further from the truth, He has come in human form to be approachable, to touch them where they hurt and bring them healing, even when the pain is self-inflicted by sin.

“Somehow you must reach inside their hearts and make Jesus attainable, unconditional, and always present to hear their pleas, their sorrows, their frustrations, their failures and their dreams. This is the real Jesus, totally human, totally undiminished deity that created mankind, that knows all about their struggles and CARES, very personally, for them.

“Please my people, reach out to those who are suffering and alienated from God by their own presumption that He does not want to have anything to do with them. Nothing could be further from the truth. It is beyond their comprehension that Jesus longs for them with arms wide open. He desires their companionship, their friendship, their worship. He longs for them. This is a truth that very few will accept at face value. Just like you tonight, could not accept the invitation to listen to the Song of Solomon with Him for your rest time because of your feelings of guilt and inadequacy, and this is how most people feel all the time.

Mother how do we do this?

“You begin by reflecting His love and reaching out to help with their most necessary needs. If you are loving them in your midst, you are reflecting how He treats you, and that will draw them. Love always draws, condemnation always alienates. It is His kindness that leads to repentance. Romans 2:4

“Now I am asking you children to take these words to heart and begin to touch those who have shunned religion. We will be with you as you do. The Spirit of the Lord is indeed upon you...go and set the captives free. That is Luke 4:18.

And that was the end of her sweet, sweet message.

The Sins of Excess 2 of 2

June 5th, 2021

May the Lord bless us with His grace that we may have complete control over our lives and our flesh. Amen.

My dear family of Heart Dwellers, the Lord is asking me to speak about the sins of our culture that will hold us back from the Rapture. And even from growing spiritually. So, I will be sharing on this theme for a while. He really does not want to leave anyone behind. The mother of Jesus has been coming to us regularly to instruct us in ways of holiness. Her entire heart is to prepare a spotless Bride for her Son, and to make her Son's love known to those who are done with religion and have drifted away.

As a Heart Dweller you know that it is the relationship with Jesus, in your heart and by the way you live your lives, what you value, that is most important. In this hour when so many are dying from epidemics and war, none of us is guaranteed another day to change our ways. My heart is also to be ready for Him, but I know I still have a way to go. So, most of these instructions are for my personal sins, but they do apply to all of us.

The Body of Christ is still not ready for the Rapture, and we all need to examine our hearts and see what is displeasing to Him. This is where I am right now as well. I have been struggling with my flesh over food. Foods I love, and I feel like I am still captive - I want so much to be free. When Our Lady started speaking, it was on the heels of a struggle I had just had with food and given into.

She began, "Long is the road to holiness, depending upon each soul's disposition. You can be delivered in a week or in many years, it is your decision to cooperate which determines the amount of time. As you get rid of superfluities, the road becomes shorter". Superfluities-things we do not really need. "You are at a disadvantage being an American where life is covered over with superfluities. Getting to the actual bottom is quite a work."

"So, you are acquainted, you can lead the way. Many here have a sense of what is superfluous and have made an attempt to reach that goal. "That is some of our new members. "You would do well to learn from them," she continued.

"Beloved daughter there is nothing we wish to deprive you of, but we long to see you go back to those days when only the barest necessities were important to you because you did not have an adequate income with four children. And you were very ingenious.

"You have a gift for this, it is still there, just buried over with wants. Would you please think about returning to that life of self-denial?"

Yes, mother, I would love to.

“Well, it is not so easy now because you have resources, before it was done out of necessity, now you don’t have that pressure, but oh what a wonderful witness it is.”

There is a part of me that really wants this, Blessed Mother.

She answered, “Yes, I know. We are trying to rekindle that. In fact, we steer you in particularly good directions through the poverty. We have lost this of late and you are no longer a good example, I would love to see you return to that.

She continued, “Many are in your same position; they are surfeited over with superfluities.” Meaning ‘covered over’. “You would do well to speak of this in your own life to inspire them to go another way.”

I am going to start with my bookshelf, guys. That is a place I need to clean up.

She continued, “Will you consider this?”

Yes mother, I think it would be a joy for me to go back to that.

She replied, “Study the science of sparseness. and scarcity, call it a great day when you must deny yourself. These opportunities to sacrifice are occasions of detachment from earthly concerns. The more detached you are, the better. The freer, the more consumed you will be with Jesus. This will require real effort on your part, but remember how glorious it was in Dog Patch, Arkansas and Analomink?” Those were two places where we were living in substantial poverty. She continued, “When you were that poor and offloaded so many unnecessary things, remember how wonderful you felt?”

I do.

“You can have that again Clare, if you want it.”

What about provisions for the community like books?

“Wouldn’t you rather be healed by the Lord than study all those books on healing? Wouldn’t you rather be inspired as to what to use?” And here she is talking about the herbs that are all around us.

I do not have a lot of confidence in my discernment on that level yet.

And she said, “If I were you, I would not either, but you can certainly count on My Son to be there by your side helping you. He has many remedies not known to man, especially the prayer of faith.”

Yes!

I do not know what it is about me that feels better when I have “THINGS.”

She answered, “It is a security issue that stems from your mother and your childhood. You can easily overcome that and find yourself in pure wonder at what the Lord’s miraculous provision brings. He longs to surprise you and do the unexpected.

“Don’t you see Clare? They are moving into the tribulation and will need to count on Him above and beyond all else, you could not give them a better example than this. It is written into your DNA but so is extravagance, you must make the choice, no one can do it for you.”

I have already chosen, Blessed Mother, I just know how weak I am, and I really must count on Jesus to give me the strength to push things away that I know I should not have.

She continued, With the Lord’s help you could be strong and resolute. Where you are weak...He is SO VERY strong.

“Wouldn’t you like to try?”

I would.

Mother, I am willing to be made willing. This must be a work of grace. I do not have what it takes right now. Please, help me with grace to enter into true self-denial and to be consumed with thoughts of the Lord and serving Him and not thoughts of my stomach. Please, pray for me, please help me to overcome this.

“We are truly with you Clare, cheering you on, and praying behind you. We can do this together”.

Blessed Mother Appearances

June 6th, 2021

Dear family, may the sweetness of Jesus keep your hearts and minds as you focus on Him. Amen. I would like to share with all of you a few of Mother Clare's and Blessed Mother's conversations during our Rosary prayer group.

Mother Clare began, well, my dear family this is a new happening. About two months ago, I began to feel badly that Our Lady was not speaking to me as she used to in Florida where all the apparitions happened. That was a very long time ago. So, I mentioned that to her in prayer. Well, it has been a long time coming, but now she has asked me to receive messages from her on a regular basis.

I admit I was at first reluctant, wanting to make sure it was her and not a familiar spirit. So, when the Rosary began, I saw her over by the computer and she was beckoning me to come and take my position. My Bible Promise Rhema about her was Guidance, which is always affirmative when I get it for discernment. And her presence in the room is extremely sweet. What a blessing! So, you will be hearing more from her.

The Blessed Mother of Jesus began, “All you have to do is believe and it shall be unto you according to thy faith.” She smiled sweetly.

“Oh Clare, you make it far too complicated and inaccessible to yourself, when I would have you just come forward, in peace and deep assurance that I would like to impart encouragement to you and all those who will be listening. It is truly so simple. Purely believe with your heart, and it shall be done to you.”

At that moment we were all meditating on the Ascension of Our Lord back into Heaven. For those of you who do not know the Rosary, it is composed of meditations on the life of Jesus.

Mother Mary continued, “The ascension, what a bittersweet moment that was for me, to see Him rising in glory going back to Heaven fulfilling His mission on earth...wonderful to see...yet I was so torn because I longed to be with Him forever.” Right after she said that, the one who was praying that decade of the rosary, said, “He did not leave us orphans...” Oh how true that is!!

She continued, “This is a moment in time that you all have to look forward to...and not too far off either. A time when you will forever be with Him, in joy, peace and glory, great, great glory.

“I wish for you to prepare for that moment now. You do not have long to wait, and your position and station in Heaven depends so very much on how purified you have become by exercising detachment from your comforts and thinking only of Him and His agenda.

“Very few are those who attain to this kind of circumcision. Yet you can still become so very detached. Truly it is not that hard once you get over a couple of hurtles. Your faith is so important in this process and I know you are tired. I do need your cooperation, there is much I would like to say. Beloved, prepare yourself every day for this time, do this, so that I can bless and instruct you. Because of the treacherous times you are living in, there is much room for instruction.”

She then confirmed that Mother Elisabeth IS my successor, and I was thinking of all the help she will need when the time comes.

She put my heart to rest and said, “And yet the angels in Heaven do they not provide for you to be their mother?” Thinking about that I would say they do help and arrange things to verify my role, they will certainly do the same for her. At that point the Rosary came to a close and I saw her blessing all who were present.

I asked the community if they saw her and one sister said, "No, but I sure did feel her." And I noticed a quiet joy on her face, as though she had just come back from Heaven. Truly dear family, this is what it feels like when she is in the room, absolutely Heavenly.

From June 9th, 2021

I was looking around the room when the Rosary began and my heart smiled. We are truly a sweet and unique group of souls brought together by the Holy Spirit for His work and our comfort and edification.

Just then, I heard Blessed Mother's words..." Cherish them. Each one, a magnificent diamond spreading light throughout the world. Not necessarily by their personal presence but through their prayers and witness even from within the monastery proper. When they go out, illuminated grace accompanies them and touches others without even knowing what they are doing.

"They are Christ bearers. They carry, you carry, Jesus in your hearts as I carried Him in My womb. He accompanies you everywhere. Cherish them.

"Don't look for their faults, look for their strong points. They, just like you, are continually assaulted by lying words whether they are aware or not. So, they must be built up. It is necessary to build them up because the enemy is continually dragging them down. This is now your apostolate Clare, to nurture and grow them in grace. That is why your witness of them must be pure and positive.

"Truly you are their mother, something you didn't really calculate at the onset. But something that has been waiting for you. It is good that you set aside many things just to listen and love them, even with good counsel."

"Thank you for being here Mother, your presence is so comforting."

"I stand beside you beloved daughter of My Son's heart. I strengthen, lead and guide you, forming your heart to be ever more receptive to grace and the tender touch such souls are in need of. Because they are your children, they are the fruit of your union with My Son. Truly, I mean that sincerely. Truly they are yours, and of course, Ezekiel's fruit. Much fruit.

“Each of them have different requirements, and grace from Heaven is dispatched to you to meet their needs. Always sit down with them in complete confidence that we will give you the wisdom you need at the very moment of their trials.

“The more you undertake to guide them, the more grace and wisdom given you.

You cannot imagine that moment when I was taken up to greet him, but you will soon, and then you will understand not just from what you are told or read, but you will feel the same way that I felt at that moment.

“I am knitting you all together in a divine sweater to wrap my Son in, one that shall bring him great warmth and comfort. A blanket of souls to comfort Him for those who walked away from this vocation.

“I really like speaking to you every day Clare and am very pleased that you availed yourself of this opportunity by taking a nap beforehand.”

“How sweet, how beautiful to have this privilege, I am not worthy of.”

Blessed Mother continued, “It is not about worthiness, but willingness and faithfulness. Do not worry about your insufficiency, it is the willing heart, free from personal promotion that He seeks for me to commune with. I know I have said a lot, but I have even more to say when the distractions are gone. Will you stay with me child?”

“I will.”

“Mother, I am back.”

I heard, “Your heart is my dwelling place, Clare, I long to live through you. I love to guide you and see the expressions in the hearts of souls change for the better. Truly you have been given a gift to doctor souls, and their hearts are refreshed by your words. That is why your songs are so important, that carries over through your music, which, by the way, as you already have guessed, comes from music angels in Heaven. They are about their Father’s business and they long to be used by you.”

Mother Clare continued, "Precious mother, the pain in my body throttles my ability. I know there is a reason for it, but is there any chance that it could be buffered when I am working on music? You know I don't last long sitting here. Like now, I feel so sick and weak and it's only a little after seven and I've had my nap." (that night she took away the pain as I worked).

Our Lady continued, "There are many reasons for this pain beloved, many, many reasons. The redemption of souls, the carrying of the gospel to them, the means to bring them to Jesus, and there is also a bit of purgatorial suffering entailed in this."

"I understand. I have tried to arrange my life, prayer first, reaching out and admin, then music. By the time I get to music I am so sick, especially when Ezekiel is suffering, I suffer with him."

Blessed Mother said, "If you will come to me, state your intention and apply yourself, I will help you. I wish for you to be more aware of my assistance anyway."

"Okay. I am coming to you. Please assist me tonight with music, and help me to bear the pain, Blessed Mother. Please." And that was the end of Our Lady's words.

God bless you all dear Heartdwellers.

My Church

July 7th, 2021

May God bless you and keep you dear Heartdwellers. Mother Clare began, "Lord, what is transpiring with Your Church?"

Jesus replied, "It is in shambles. Rife with division, criticism, justified prosecutions, totally buried in scandal." "Lord, you said nothing would prevail against her?"

The Lord continued, “That was indeed a long time ago, but it still stands. What is so disconcerting is the massive collapse of moral integrity. My people Clare, they are so watered down morally that their values are no different than the world’s. It is the apostasy that was prophesied, it is here. No moral compass, but whatever the status quo is. You have known this for a very long time. That is why you were so persecuted when you were a part of the church.

“You, and others like you, will continue on in the church, the gates of hell will not prevail, but only those with a deep devotion to My mother and good discernment will survive what is coming. The rest will become a part of the one world church, an amalgamation of false religions and license to live without a solid moral compass.”

“Lord, I am afraid to write anything down now I am so tired and negative.”

Jesus continued, “Don’t worry, you really should go to bed now. I love you and we can talk more tomorrow. Clare, cuddle up in My arms, I am with you Beloved. I haven’t been far from you even for one moment today.

Come into My rest, you and all My precious Heartdwellers.”

REPENTANCE STILL NEEDED

July 9th, 2021

May the sweet presence of our Lord Jesus be with you Heartdwellers and bring your hearts into perfect alignment with His perfect will. Amen. I was missing the Lord because lately I hadn’t heard from Him and I said, “Lord Jesus, please speak to me. I miss you terribly.”

He began, “I love to hear you say that. And I know it is true, you have been waiting for days, expecting Me at any time, so here I am beloved Bride. Do you see? I am trying to ramp you up into fasting and self-denial because time is very, very short.

“You know this has been very well planned, as I told you before. Much has been mitigated through repentance. But much remains. None of you have any concept of how deeply saddened I am about the prospects on your horizon. My People, I am still waiting for more repentance. And interestingly enough, I wanted to share that one of our brother priests here got a message from the Lord that is very powerful and along these lines and so that will be put up after this one.

“Listen children,” Jesus continued, “You are living for yourselves. When I bless you, the first thing you think of is how you can spend it on your pleasures, when people around the world have resorted to dirt to fill their empty stomachs. Those of you who have thought of others have much to look forward to. But most Americans are about “Me.” And how they can improve their social standing and security.

“As they turn to Me and convert, they begin to get a conscience for others around the world who are not so fortunate. This is the beginning of great favor with Me and with Heaven. Such as these will continue to be rewarded with increase because they are only thinking of how they can help the helpless and starving.”

Lord, please speak to us about other sins we may repent of.

He continued, “Sexual immorality is rife in the Christian community. Do you really think I will overlook your designs on another woman’s husband, or another husband’s wife? Just because everyone else is living with a potential spouse before they are married to them, doesn’t mean it isn’t a sin. It is sin, and I do understand your conscience is not registering it as such. But when we stand face to face you will feel what you were blocking before.

“You say you are a Christian but you are living with a partner and having relations without marriage. This encourages the weaker ones in your church community to do the exactly the same thing, but perhaps not with the lifelong commitment the two of you have made. Fornication is a sin unto death of a soul. Just because your conscience doesn’t bare witness anymore to this being a sin, does not justify it as licit.

“If you are living with someone and having relations, get married as soon as possible, by a minister. Do not remained uncovered. If you are not getting married, put in some new guidelines or separate. I will honor all your efforts to obey this commandment. I understand the emotional stress you are under in choosing these alternatives. May I suggest that an expensive wedding is not important, if you insist on having that, you can still do it after you have a private wedding with your pastor. But please, cover yourselves Beloved, take me seriously.

“Because of materialism, both husband and wife work to accumulate goods and pay the bills. In the meantime, the children are left alone and fall into sin. By the time you find out about it, it is too late. How much more upright and moral would it have been for you to limit your expenditures and raise your children to Christian standards. When they get involved with misguided youth and gangs, then you have a real problem. All because you wanted that nicer car or house, so both of you had to work, and you left your children alone.

“Cheating on income tax or any other transaction, is a stain on your wedding dress. Please do not excuse yourself for lying to the government. However, if you are smuggling bibles into North Korea, you may lie about the contents of your suitcase. My law is higher than man’s law.

“Some of you have children who have chosen to live a holy life and you support them in that. Others have children who want to lead a holier life, but do not want to displease you because you have designs on them to live up to what you want. Parents of these children, you had a chance, you made your choices, do not stand in the way of your son or daughter when I call them. There is not higher calling than to live for Me alone. It’s true, they won’t be able to support you in your old age, but they will be bringing souls into Heaven. You have your own nest egg for the days when you are alone. Do not steal from them and from Me the souls they are destined to save. A Christian parent should be very proud when a child chooses to live for Me alone. What a great honor. What a special child this is.

“Finally, My very dear children, how are you spending your time? How many hours do you devote to your relationship with Me? I am the source of life and all that is good comes from My hand. But in order to have the right values, and not go astray, you must discover for yourselves that there is no greater privilege than speaking to Me and be guided by Me. As you withdraw more and more from prayer you become more and more like the world, until you are barely recognizable as My own. I need your worship. your praise and your very best time to form you into a holy vessel. If you put work first, children first, husband first and Me last, your life will be disordered.

“I have asked Mother Clare to release this information to you because there is still a great need for repentance. Come to Me my beloved family, and bare your soul, release those things you’ve been covering up, allow Me to wash you white as snow and relieve you of the burdens that have been on your conscience.

“I love you dearly, I am for you not against you. I am asking for you to be for Me and not for the world.”

And that was the end of His message.

GOD or Mammon

July 9th, 2021

Hello Heartdwellers this is brother Leo!

I sat down with the Lord the other day in Worship and was hoping to be able to hear His voice.

A little while after Worship, Jesus began,

“My son, many of my children whom I’ve called to be my Brides have been stolen from me by satan. He has deceived them by luring them away from me through the vanity of riches. Ohh how this tears My Heart to shreds. Please, my beloved once, come back to me. Come back to the Lover of thy soul. Riches will pass away. I will remain forever.

I will not know will I even leave you or forsake you. I came to Earth to demonstrate that a man’s life in value does not depend on the abundance of his earthly wealth. I came to offer you the abundant life of righteous, peace and joy in My Holy Spirit.

I came to offer you freedom from the increasing demands of the World and the so-called happiness material wealth offers. I am the only satisfaction of your soul. Why? Because you were made for me alone. And, you were created in My image. You were meant to be mine, and I, yours. And, my love is the only satisfaction for your heart.

Many of you, do not even know that what you are really searching for is Love. You seek a sense of worth, Love, and security. Don’t you see? I am well aware of your pain, your liveness, and your search for unconditional Love and acceptance. I know all the horrible words that were spoken over you and I’m here to tell you that I Love you, and those aren’t my words to you.

I love you dearly with an everlasting Love. I will be a Father to you and I will wipe away every tear from your eyes. I will affirm My love of you and heal all your pain. Come to Me, and I will forgive you of all your sins. However, it must be known that I am a Jealous God, and I will not share your hearts with anyone.

As I have said before,

You cannot serve God and mammon. You cannot serve two masters. You will have to either run to one, and leave the other or love the one, and despise the other. Matt 6:24

This is the truth of the gospel that's been stolen from My Brides, and I am bringing it back to you.

This is the truth that's been over-looked by so many shepherds who claim to have been called by me. I do not want the vanity of the World within My Church. Is not My yoke enough for you?

Are you ashamed of Me? Do you value the praises of men and the glory of riches rather than the precious Cross of your Devine Savior, or are you so in Love with Me that wealth and human glory mean nothing to you? I cannot protect those who compromise the truth and their relationship with Me because of the scorn and contempt of men.

How is it that you fear those who kill the body but can do no harm to the soul rather than the one who can destroy both, the body and soul in Hell? Matt 10:28

It is not My wish to shame you, but because I love you, I must chastise and correct you for you are walking in error and you are not living according to My ways.

PLEASE come back to Me My Children! I will never refuse the truth from those who earnestly seek it. Consult the teachings of the Holy Gospel and the way My apostles live. For I told them to take nothing for their journey.

Consider Paul. One of My greatest apostles. For he was not ashamed of the Gospel. He walked in hunger and thirst, poorly clothed, homeless and buffeted, yet in joy for He was guaranteed the Heavenly Treasure promised to all My Lovers. And, He walked in possession of that pearl of great price!

Open your hearts beloved ones to the Scriptures, ask for the Grace to see the truth of the Gospel and make it your priority to conform your lives to it. This of you who neglected the poor, are neglecting Me, for I live in them and I provide opportunities for you through them to make reparation for your sins. It is not my will that any should perish, yet if anyone is ashamed of Me and My teachings, then the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His Glory.

I am not demanding evangelical poverty from you all, yet I wish that you would suffer the loss of non-essential items and subject your greed and lust for endless wealth to the obedience of the Gospel.

Those of you who are wealthy should think more of the poor, not of salary increases. You may receive your share of scorn and mockery because of Me, for whoever will come My way must indeed pick up his cross and follow Me. However, the joy that will be yours from having Me, is indescribable.

You have only one priority in this life and that is the salvation of your eternal souls. I am waiting by your side to hear your decision.

Do you love Me or mammon?"

Rapture Warning

July 10th, 2021

May the peace and joy of our Lord be with you all dear Heartdwellers. Mother Clare began, "Lord, is it true? Could the Rapture really happen now?"

Jesus replied, "Yes, it is true and it is best to warn your people. Tell them for Me that the world is in a most precarious position and very vulnerable to take over."

But Lord I thought all the Cabal was taken down?

Jesus continued, "All I can tell you is that My Father has indicated that it may happen now. There is no solid word as yet, just a very concerning warning."

“Oh, dear God, I am so tired. But I know You can change that in a heartbeat if you so desire. Yet, I have to say, the Rapture would be wonderful. I would love it, and I think I’m done with trying to do so much more with this worn out heart, mind and body.”

“You are not the only one Clare. This is the condition of My well-worn bride right now. Be on your guard. Watch, pray and be prepared, truly, it could happen at any moment.”

“But Lord.”

Jesus continued, “Things are very tense right now and what has been planned against you and the world is not pretty. There are plenty of thugs to still make a real mess. They can never round them all up. There are too many. Let’s just say there are many more than was anticipated and this is one reason for all the delays.”

“The next question is where will ‘we’ go when things truly begin to fall apart?”

The Lord replied, “People are not ready for what is coming. But I am and I will never let My chosen ones down. And those who are not ready, have not been paying attention and listening very carefully to My prophets. It’s coming down, but those who were not ready will be buried in a landslide.

“This is why I told the Satanists that they would be busy trying to survive and not have time for cursing parties.” And that was the end of His message.

Love and peace to you all dear Heartdwellers.

Let us prepare ourselves to stay focused on the Lord and on heavenly things above.

I'm Laying The Axe To The Root

July 10th, 2021

May the Lord bless you and keep you dear Heartdwellers. Ezekiel began to suffer extreme stigmata pain in his hands and feet. During this suffering, Jesus spoke to him and said, "I am laying the axe to the root in the church. I will bring a third through the fire." The inference here was that two thirds will not make it through the fire.

As the suffering was intensifying, he saw the head of Jesus, which apparently had been ripped from His Holy Body, hanging in the air on a very high pole. The body was nowhere in sight, however, there emerged a huge leviathan like creature resembling a crocodile with fire red eyes and jaws wide open ready to strike. The left side of this creature's head was smashed so he only had one eye.

Interestingly the Lord had given me Psalm 74 earlier in the day:

"Your foes have roared within Your meeting place; they have unfurled their banners as signs, like men wielding axes in a thicket of trees and smashing all the carvings with hatchets and picks. They have burned Your sanctuary to the ground; they have defiled the dwelling place of Your Name. They said in their hearts, "We will crush them completely." They burned down every place where God met us in the land. O how long, O God, will the enemy taunt You? Yet God is my King from ancient times, working salvation on the earth. You divided the sea by Your strength; You smashed the heads of the dragons of the sea; You crushed the heads of Leviathan; You fed him to the creatures of the desert. Remember how the enemy has mocked You, O LORD, how a foolish people has spurned Your name.

Do not deliver the soul of Your dove to beasts; do not forget the lives of Your afflicted forever. Rise up, O God; defend Your cause!"

Today the Lord is talking about a Bride of scorn and contempt. He had a vision of a religious sister, a chosen soul, she had a black veil over her face, her eyes were sunken in and she was barely skin and bone.

The Lord began,

"This is my worldly bride, she responds to My plea for prayer with scorn, contempt and frustration. She is busy about her own business. When I call to her in the midst of her preoccupations, she rolls her eyes and says to herself, "What does He want now? I'm busy."

"My Brides, I made you to stand by My side and comfort Me. I called you to be intercessors who care about nothing more than prayer when it is needed. But you are so tied up in what you are creating that you see these calls as bothersome interruptions. You are breaking My heart with your indifference. When I call you, you are full of unbelief, not wanting to acknowledge the need

I am bringing before you, because you are engrossed in your own pursuits. Rather than tenderness and concern, your heart has scorn and contempt.

“Is this the Bride I espoused to Myself? One who cares for nothing but her own pursuits? I need you My Bride, when you see My head raised high on a pole, ripped from My Body, have you no tears of compassion for Me? Or are you saying, “Oh well...I wonder what that means.” Well, let me tell you what it means. It means I am suffering on an unprecedented scale, suffering like never before because My Body is being devoured by the beast of this world.

“Oh, how I long for your tender caress and words of encouragement. Oh, how painful to see my chosen souls indifferent to My entreaties. Yes, I expect this from the world, but from you? My chosen ones? My heart is breaking from your indifference. I charge you, enter into My suffering with Me. No longer stand at a distance and gawk, come to My side, rushing to comfort Me, in the full awareness of how horrible this suffering is.

“For those of you who have run to My side, embraced Me and cried out for Me, I thank you, you have taken some of the most acute stabs of pain in My heart by your desire to comfort Me. And for those of you who don’t, strengthen what is left before you lose it all. Set your heart on Me, not on what you think you are doing for Me. Don’t allow Me to feel the weight of your indifference and unbelief. Strengthen what is left before even that is taken from you.

“You have found your sense of worth in what you are doing in this world, even what you are doing for Me. Rather, I want you to find your sense of worth ONLY in caring for Me, tending My wounds and strengthening My legs as I watch My disheveled Bride being stripped of her faith. Yes, there are those who are stripping away the faith we have worked so hard to build in your hearts. They are replacing it with scorn and contempt for being interrupted. Yes, I see the outer form but the inner light and fortitude for the real cause is lacking. Strengthen what remains before even that is stripped from you.

“I need you My Bride, for pity’s sake respond in faith, love and devotion. Burden Me no longer with your weariness in responding to the call for prayer. There is nothing worse than a disinterested, unfaithful, scornful Bride.”

Mother Clare read this message you just heard before the Rosary and during the Rosary, Blessed Mother Mary answered her with this message.

Mother Mary began, “He loves and cares for you in even the littlest of necessities. And He is calling you to have that kind of fidelity for Him. There is nothing He will deny the faithful soul if it is good for them. All He asks in return in your solicitous care over himself.

“Accompany Him my beloved ones. Oh, how He loves your comfort. It’s really the little things, the little expressions of love and caring that He longs for. You see how He provides for everyone and everything on this earth, He just asks for your recognition of that and comfort when He is suffering.

“Is this too much to ask? Of course not, I know your hearts, you all care deeply, part of what you are missing is how much He needs your comfort.

“People go through an entire lifetime not thanking Him for anything, but His chosen souls, they know, they understand so He looks to you for His comfort and your companionship. It is not His heart to shame you or make you sad, but to convey to you exactly how much He does need you.

“It takes so little to please Him, so little. A glance, a kiss, a hug, a sigh of deep concern, all of this matters very, very much. Part of the problem is that you do not realize how vulnerable He truly is.

“It is a process, not something that can be rushed. One day at a time. A tender heart, that is what He longs for.

“You remember in the Chosen when they were sitting around the campfire arguing over foolishness and He came into their midst, exhausted and totally spent, I rushed to his side to comfort Him. That is so the little gestures mean a great deal.

“I know that you love Him dear ones, He knows it to, we are just trying to get your priorities straight so that you can both enjoy one another the kind of care He needs, and often, because the world is doing so much to sicken His Heart.

“He also pines for you and the dilemmas you have to face every day. He cares very much and longs to direct you in the right directions. Go now, and do not be sad or downtrodden, truly He loves you it will seem that you’ve been blown off course, but truly He has you right where He wants you, it is just necessary to give up your agendas and recognize when the winds of Holy Spirit are blowing you into the better course.”

Choosing to Serve God

July 11th, 2021

May the priceless treasure of Jesus keep your heart from the world.
Amen.

Well heart dwellers, recently a very dedicated young lady left the world to follow the Lord here at the refuge. She is called to Ghana as a missionary and the Lord brought her here for preparation. She had been in an engagement to a good man, but knew that God was calling her to the Refuge in preparation for Ghana. I will give them both anonymous names to protect their privacy. Jesus brought Eric and Lilly together, they met and fell in love. They were making plans for a wedding when things just didn't feel right. There was contention and misunderstanding between them, all of a sudden, Lily felt God calling her apart for a season here at the Refuge. However, she still held onto a prophetic word that Erik and she had a future together in Ghana.

Time passed, Lilly was growing in holiness and learning more about herself, and he was dating other women, not really satisfied with any of them as far as marriage goes. Erik was a career man but had a big heart for the poor and wanted to subsidize missions to his people. There were things about our faith that he did not agree with, and we have been communicating, because there are misunderstandings about certain things. In any case, Erik is in the world and really didn't understand why Lily wanted to live a life of Evangelical simplicity and also as a Franciscan sister. Erik still cared for her and was planning a trip to visit her in America, but was still really questioning the whole thing. So, Mother Clare wrote him a letter to try and give him a glimpse into what God is doing with Lilly, so he would understand it is a good thing.

Dearest Erik, you are on my heart every day and I long to share with you the great beauty of our lives up here in the wilderness. I know it seems irrational to live this way, free from earthly striving, praying for hours, reading the Scriptures and holy books, like the Imitation of Christ, which I highly recommend to you.

I know it seems foolish, but there is a piece of the puzzle, in fact many pieces of the puzzle that you just haven't experienced yet. Dearest, I am in love with Jesus, I have given Him my life and I only want to serve Him. I have had everything the world wants and I found it lacking because I did not have that intimacy with Him.

Even as an Evangelical Christian for 8 years, I felt something was really missing in the way the church lives. I wanted a vibrant, intimate and fulfilling relationship with Jesus, not the half-baked thing that I had with one foot in the world and one striving for Heaven. When I finally realized that I needed to give up all the world holds dear, and make His agenda, which is to save souls, to make it my agenda with His grace, I found my happiness.

No more struggling with "looking good," driving a nice car, having all the world's approval and houses, those things became really empty to me. When I gave it all up, He showed up in My life as though I was living in the first century, walking with Him and bringing Him to others. My spiritual life went from mediocre to exploding with life, meaning and satisfaction.

Dear one, He gave up everything for us, how can I hold back anything for myself. When I do, I am never happy with it, I always want more or better, the wants never end. But when I said, "Enough! Lord, I only want you and the fullness of your presence in my life." When I did that, my life went from ho-hum to exciting, vibrant and joyful. Eric, I truly found the pearl of great price and I didn't want anything the world had to offer.

I had tried to live a compromised life in the Christian community, but the world was so strong, competition, jealousy, favoritism, politicking, always trying to gain favor in the world's eyes, all of that was rife in the church. I didn't want that anymore. I just wanted JESUS. No posturing, no impressing others, no more living for what my friends wanted me to be. I had found the Pearl of Great price and nothing from the world had any meaning for me.

That's why I chose this life dear one. It is a life of Evangelical simplicity, where I have all the time in the world to pray and help others, and am not tied to anyone's agenda but My Lord's. No shopping for clothes, no impressing the public, no posturing for position, just plain, simple living for the Lord and what He wants me to do every day.

I realized that He knew much better than I where the harvest fields were and all I had to do is follow His instructions. And how good God has been to me, now I am teaching others how to hear His voice and give up our selfish lifestyles to serve Him. I have never been happier in my life. I am deeply satisfied with what He has done since I handed over all my life choices to Him.

Eric, He knows the cry of your heart dear one. He knows the tenderness and love you have for the lost. He knows these things because He created you for this. Something priceless, a true treasure, one of a kind, has been given you in your heart. He knew you before you were born and set you apart to live an extraordinary life of holiness. I don't mean what you wear, I mean what's in your heart, how you spend your time, your priorities. He longs to bless you beyond your wildest dreams because He knows you will do so much good with what He gives you.

Beloved, there is only one thing He asks of you, and that's your abandonment into His will. He leads us by what is going on in our hearts, because He sits on a throne in your heart and He is the one that quickens you.

"The King's heart is in the hand of the LORD, like the rivers of water; He turns it wherever He wishes."
Proverbs 21:1

He speaks to you in the secret recesses of your heart and brings you dreams of what could be. Our only task is to TRUST Him, that He knows what He is doing, where you are going, who you will need by your side, and how He wants to lay the ground work and prepare you for your life. He knows how you will end your life, whether it will be swallowed up in regrets or "should have done" or if you will hear the words, "Well done My good and faithful servant, come enter into your Master's joy." He knows the number of your days, Eric, and that your destiny is in Heaven with Him. He guards you as the apple of His eye and directs you if you are willing. He is not thinking as man thinks, He is God and is looking at the big picture.

I'm sure you've seen skyscrapers going up, first they dig down several stories to anchor the beams and foundation. The taller the building, the deeper they must go to ground it. Lilly has a very special mission that requires very special preparation. The Lord brought her here to do battle with her flesh, her attitudes, her understanding of humility and human nature. We don't have a curriculum; the Holy Spirit arranges the lessons Eric. Every day He brings situations that reveal more about ourselves so we can be in control of our selfish human nature. In order to serve the Lord, great preparation is required. Some of it can be done in the world, other parts must be done in a very pure environment. That is what the Lord prepared for her here.

The world is full of distractions, impurity, immorality, temptations and side tracks, so much precious time is wasted in foolish pursuits. That is why He calls us to a place set apart...a desert if you will... "I will allure her and lead her to the wilderness, and speak to her tenderly." Hosea 2:14

In this pure desert environment she is purified. Her motives are examined and brought into line with her true purpose. The attitudes that have hampered her in the past are slowly and gently exposed and done away with. The restlessness and pride that afflict so many of us is removed so that the soul can come to grips with their very purest self, where God speaks to them and guides them.

Here she learns to yield, to respect, to obey, to set her sights on Heavenly matters and the salvation of souls, not on what moth and rust corrode, and those things we will be ashamed of at the end of our lives. Women coming from the world have a wild and proud nature that is not pleasing to the Lord and does not make for a good marriage. I should know, I was the very worst in many ways. But the Lord tempered me, He revealed my pride, He broke me, several times, and yet, He invited me into the sweetest and most rewarding life any soul can have, intimacy with Him in absolute purity. The sweetness of God swallowed me up and left me rejecting the things in my nature that were corrupt. His love conquered my wildness, His tenderness drew me deeper and deeper into His Heart and will for my life.

When a man decides that he wants to become a surgeon, he goes through miles and miles of studies, observing surgeries, learning the art of healing. All of this is done in a very controlled environment, the hospital and university theater. It takes a very special practice and discipline to turn out a doctor and a surgeon.

When we come to serve the Lord, an even higher calling than a doctor, He brings us into the environment that will best serve His purposes to prepare that person to become a doctor of souls. That is why Lilly is here, she is becoming a doctor of souls. And the very first parts of the lesson plan are discovering our deepest selves, who we are and who we are not. With this knowledge, we can go forward and learn about others, how to love them, how to help them, how to serve them.

So, you see the whole entire purpose of her responding to God's call with a "Yes" is to prepare her to go out into the world and bring Jesus to the people. She did not design her lesson plan, she followed her heart, where Jesus was calling her. She had no idea what it would be like up here, but she was confident because Jesus told her to come. This is what Divine Providence is all about, having complete and total faith in God's ability to raise us up. We do not search for the best school; we follow our hearts and our obedience brings us into the very best environment for us to grow in. If it were possible for her to learn the same things out in the world, the Lord would have chosen that for her. But He knew what she needed and she said "Yes" to Him.

That's all we are about...just saying yes...doing what He asks us to do...not worrying about the result, He's got that part down...just being meek, humble, teachable and willing. In the end she will be the woman of God He has called her to be, because she did not take her life into her own hands and reasoning, she gave it all to God and let Him make her choices.

Dearest Eric, I hope you understand, God is doing something very special with her and with you...if you are willing. Please, if I may admonish you, Satan will use worldly women to corrupt you, they have their own agendas with you. More than anything else, you need to isolate yourself from their influence and seek God alone, for He is pure and has only your best interests at heart, where women tend to place designs on men they are attracted to. And if they are not living for God alone, they will not understand Lilly's choices.

King David was a holy man, but even he fell under the influence of a woman, Bathsheba for whom he was willing to commit murder. Later his son Solomon also fell because of women.

I Kings 4:29 and 30, "And God gave Solomon wisdom, exceedingly deep insight, and understanding beyond measure, like the sand on the seashore. Solomon's wisdom was greater than that of all the men of the East, greater than all the wisdom of Egypt. Women seduced him into following other gods. His heart was led astray and no longer completely belonged to the Eternal One, his True God, as his father David's heart did. Solomon pursued Ashtoreth (the Sidonian goddess) and Milcom (the abomination of the Ammonites). Solomon abandoned his lifelong integrity and committed evil in the eyes of the Eternal. He did not follow Him completely, as his father David had."

I Kings 11

Even if you feel that you are braver than David and wiser than Solomon, please avoid every occasion of sin and cleave to the Lord, lest you lose the high calling on your life. Worldly women will lead you astray and Satan will steal the most precious treasure God wants to entrust to you.

Praying for you.

Love, Mother Clare

We're Going Home!

June 10, 2015 - Reposted 7.12.21

The Lord bless you, Youtube family!

Well, I have a real sense of anticipation about today and about this time that we're in right now in the month of June. And that's why I named this We're Going Home, because I believe that that's about to happen.

Tonight, when I went to be with the Lord for worship, I was worshipping Him - it took a while before I could actually see Him, but when I finally did, He was wearing fatigues. And I was dancing with Him and I was also wearing fatigues! And I thought, 'Wow - that's strange! Why am I wearing fatigues?' I didn't ask Him at the time.

The Lord took something that looked like a name tag, you know, the kind with the adhesive on the back. And while He was still dancing with me and stuck it to my back. I wondered what was written on it, then I saw it. What was written was "MINE." Wow! No one would be confused about who I belonged to now, even in the midst of chaos.

I also had a maroon beret on. He stopped for a moment and pointed to the sky, and above us was a huge airship flying away from the point where we were at into the distance. And the sense was that we were circling the Earth, that the airship was circling the Earth. And out of the place where there would normally be bombs, like the bomb bay, were pods or cable car looking busses dropping out of the 'bomb bay'. And they were accompanied by angels. And I heard the word "personnel carriers."

And these busses were just hanging in the air with angels near them, but they were being dropped in various places in the world.

I asked the Lord, "Why am I wearing fatigues?"

He smiled and answered, "Because you're helping Me."

I am?

"You are My designated assistant."

Wow! What do I do?

"Follow Me around, comfort Me and keep Me company." He said very matter-of-factly.

Oh Lord, what an honor.

"No, what a blessing that one of My Creations can't stand to be without me for an instant."

Even when my mind drifts?

"Leave a tender moment alone. Lately, you've been tuned in almost continuously."

Well Lord, I know I need to thank You for that grace.

"Thank you for taking hold of it, My Love."

"We are about to make Our Move...taking you up and away from this place. Don't worry about anything, not even one thing. Not the yard, (Oh, guys - you should see our yard - it's really horrible. It needs leaves raked up and everything...) Not cleaning, bills, eating, nothing. Just accompany Me day and night. I will come for you when you sleep so you can be with Me even then. But you haven't much time.

"The hour is approaching. Leave off with everything of the world and stay by My side. I love having you here, I love reaching over and touching your hand. I love gazing into your eyes... and forgive Me for not allowing you to see Mine a great deal. You just couldn't bear it and I don't want to weaken or disturb you. Soon enough, My Love, we will be together, soon enough.

"Tell your spouse that because of his faithfulness many have come to Me in this past week. In fact tell everyone, 'Those of you who were faithful to accompany Me, those of you who went out of your way to pray and keep vigils, you have reaped much fruit for the Kingdom of God and there will be fanfare when you arrive and great celebration.'

"In fact, you will receive a hero's welcome, because all of you are heroes in your own rights. You have persevered and endured much. The final hour is yet to come, so be on your guard, keep watch. The clock is ticking seconds away from your departure."

"Lord, I haven't done enough for my children."

And the way I feel about it, guys. It's just - you know, I'm trying to keep up with taking care of you guys who are hungry, the whole audience on Youtube, you're hungry, hungry, hungry. And I've spoken to my children about these things for years...and they stopped taking me seriously, you know. I've put packages together, but that was a while ago and things are a little disordered. Maybe the Lord will give me the anointing to do that, I don't know. But it doesn't sound like it.

But I told Him, "Lord, I haven't done enough for my children."

He answered me, "Don't worry about them, I have them covered. Each and every one has a provision. Don't worry, Clare. What you have done for Me, I have done for your children. Notice I said 'I have done'...because I have finished it, all the way down to the last detail. You do not understand the workings of time in Heaven, but I tell you that it is completed and I want you to enter into your rest. Just be vigilant, you don't want to spoil this time and the enemy will try to distract you with insignificant details.

"Tell My Brides, stop worrying about whether or not you will be taken. You know you are Mine and Mine will be with Me. Little mess-ups and faults have you all hung up on details. All tied in knots. I am not like your earthly father, I'm not like your earthly boss, nor am I a military sergeant. I am YOUR LOVING SPOUSE, I care for you tenderly, I understand your pressures far better than you do. I see the demonic attacks you are continually fending off and beating yourselves for. I see the bent of your heart and it is pleasing to Me. You are coming with Me. Keep your eyes open, pray for mercy for the inhabitants of Earth who must stay here.

"Get ready to see your loved ones, get ready to be totally overwhelmed by My Profound Gratefulness for your Faithfulness.

"Yes, I am grateful, profoundly grateful. You are not used to being appreciated, you have no experience of the kind of appreciation and respect I have for you. But you're going to find out and be totally overwhelmed. Yes, this will be My joy, to watch you being overwhelmed!"

"I want you to stop straining on gnats and rest. I am taking you."

And here I want to make something clear. We're talking about contrition and being sorry for your sins and having repented. Checking your conscience every day and asking the Lord to forgive you. But there are some of you who are still insecure and still fluctuating and still feeling like you're gonna be left behind because you did one little thing wrong. No, you've lived a life-style of faithfulness to the Lord. You stayed pure and clean from sin and He's going to make the difference up. So, don't be scrupulous! Don't be going over and over it and saying, "No, He's not gonna take me, He's not gonna - I did this. No, He won't take me 'cause I did that." That's ridiculous! That's straining at gnats. So, as He said, if you've kept your heart pure and lived for Him, you don't have anything to worry about.

"If you have given your heart to Me, and live for Me and Me alone, no matter how many mistakes you make, I am still taking you. I'll work out all the kinks in your nature in Heaven, don't sweat the small stuff."

"Just be kind to your neighbor, keep your heart clean and do not give into fear. The last few hours will be intense, but remember I told you they would be. Hang onto Me, keep your eyes off of man and keep your heart riveted on Me, especially being here for Me and comforting Me."

"In this hour I bless you with a steadfast spirit. To each of you has been assigned more angels to keep you steady as our time approaches. I am with you, let nothing frighten or disturb you."

And Ezekiel has been in prayer just about non-stop for the last two days. And the Lord spoke to him very clearly as he was praying. He said, "All of this which is about to unfold is in My control. Be at Peace, let nothing frighten or upset you."

Is Dr Owuor Elijah the Prophet

July 13th, 2021

May the truth of God always light our path and lead us into all righteousness. May we walk in discernment and charity, always giving credit to Our Lord for every good. Amen

Well, my dear ones, recently I was told about a prophet, Dr. Owuor who claims to be the incarnation of Elijah the Prophet, who was taken up in the whirlwind by the Lord and that he has returned to earth in the end times. With brotherly love and respect let us examine this statement in the context of what Scripture says about reincarnation.

First, we know that reincarnation is a false doctrine. You are not reincarnated in many lifetimes to become perfect and merge with God. The idea Hindus and Buddhists have is that in this way you attain perfection. Rather it is the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ that has opened the doors of Heaven and paid the ransom for our sins, making us perfect by being washed in the blood of the Lamb. Scripture says, Man is appointed to die once, and after that to face judgment. Hebrews 9:27. So the Scriptures directly refutes reincarnation.

But there were some prophets in the bible that did not die. Take Elijah for example. In 2 Kings chapter 2 verse 11 Scripture states, as they (Elijah and Elisha) were walking along and talking together, suddenly a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared, separated the two of them, and Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind. 12. Elisha saw this and cried out, My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Israel! 2Kings 2:11

So here we note that Elijah did not die. He was taken to Heaven. That does leave the possibility of him coming again. And indeed, the Lord said, "Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but have done to him whatever they wished. In the same way, the Son of Man will suffer at their hands."

This discourse took place after Jesus was on the mount of transfiguration with Elijah and Moses. He was coming down the mount speaking to His Apostles. You see John the Baptist was already dead and glorified. So, he and Moses were permitted to come back and speak with Jesus. Then the disciples understood that He was speaking to them about John the Baptist having been Elijah. Jesus said, I tell you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John; yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he. And that is from Luke 7:28

He was speaking to them about John the Baptist having been Elijah, who was prophesied to come before the day of the Lord. Matthew 17. John the Baptist denies being the incarnation of Elijah, but weighing the two Scriptures, one from the mouth of Jesus and one from the mouth of John, I would first believe what came from the Lord. Now there is one other interesting aspect to all of this, and that is that John came in the Spirit of Elijah, meaning, he was a mighty prophet of God. This does make sense if it is not taken literally, but I believe the Lord was stating literally that John's spirit was the same spirit that animated Elijah. But based upon Scripture and the words of Christ, I cannot agree that Elijah will make another appearance in a body, since he came in the person of John the Baptist, was executed, and died.

Precious Heart Dwellers, I have listened briefly to Dr. Owuor, and I am prone to believe that he is a prophet of God with the good intentions of preparing the way of the Lord. But I would caution you to measure every man's word by the truth of Scriptures, the written word of God. There is yet another way I would test the truth of one who has lived in Heaven, and has been sent back to Earth, and that is what he has to say about Mary, the mother of Jesus.

We cannot base our beliefs on what sounds good or plausible. We must be grounded in the word of God and discern everything through the Lens of Truth, that is, the Scriptures. So please, be careful in what you believe. A man is known by his fruits. We are not called to judge, but to discern based on the Scriptures and the kind of fruit a man bears in his life, and how much he resembles Jesus in humility and meekness. A tree is known by its fruit, and a prophet is known by his fidelity to Scripture. A tree is known by its fruit, and a prophet is known by his fidelity to Scripture, and if what he has spoken comes to pass.

Let us receive every good word with discernment, and the wisdom that comes from above. Amen.

Let Nothing Disturb You

July 14th, 2021

Lord God on this day help us to be in Your peace, trusting in You and keeping our thoughts in Your truth. Amen. Someone in the community got a very discouraging word about us not being Raptured. Immediately Mother Clare went into prayer during the Rosary.

The Blessed Virgin began, "Don't be afraid. It is not true. Not true. They are misinterpreting what was given. I want to put your heart to rest Clare. You are not being left behind. Neither are they. Let us settle that right now. Can you receive that from me?? Truly I am here in your midst."

"Put your head here over my heart. What do you hear?"

Wedding bells. "Yes, for you and My Beloved son."

Have mercy on me.

Bless Mother continued, "Oh, you have been given so much mercy and you have shown so much mercy. Put these fears away, it is not true.

"My bride is indeed getting ready. There are so many that truly have been preparing themselves, many, many, many of Heartdwellers. Thank you."

Oh Mother, I feel like I have failed Him miserably.

"Not true child. You just are being deprived of seeing the good you have done so that you would not fall into pride or sloth.

"Don't you see, this rosary is all about the glorious mysteries, that is no accident, I knew this would come up and disquiet you, today of all days was a good day for that."

Mother Elisabeth saw white missiles shooting over America from the East coast.

"Very soon. Very very soon. It is coming."

Oh, dear God! Must it be this bad?

"Pioneer, Pioneer, you can't stay here (Song by Honeytree). That is a reflection of the times as well, it is time to move forward and cleanse and chastise the earth. It must come beloved, it must. Trust in the plan.

"Don't be sad."

All the souls, men women and children, that will be killed and suffer.

“This time must come in order for the new world to be birthed, it must. Look beyond the pain, look at what is waiting for mankind. Finally, Satan will be harnessed for a thousand years. Oh, life on earth with be so different, and so blessed. It is good for you to ponder that to keep from falling into despair. So many who have been sitting on the fence will finally have their Savior.”

I remember a word I saw, God brings “chastisement and revival.”

Mother Mary continued, “Yes, that was meant for your eyes. It is even as it was told you before, war then Rapture, war then conversions. You remember, He gave that to you years ago. Others said no, but you said yes, it will be this way. Then you wavered. But this is the way it is to be.

“I bless you all now for the strength to endure what is to come. Remember I am taking care of you, Jesus is taking care of you, do not fear. Trust, Trust, Trust, I impart to you, and I am by your side.

“This day in your regard I have indeed crushed the head of the serpent.”

How To Stay In The Saddle

July 15th, 2021

Grace and peace to you dear Heartdweller Family. Mother Clare began, “I am here Blessed Mother. Oh, thank you for coming. Thank you so very much. I kissed her hand.”

Mother Mary responded, “You have proven yourself trustworthy in many things, that is why I have come. These messages are to circulate around the world. I know you will be faithful.”

“Thank you for trusting me and all of us. Oh Lord You have invited me into your inner circle, how precious is that.”

Blessed Mother continued, “We were talking about the times, how unstable and dangerous they are. But if you keep your eyes on Him you will have peace in the midst of turmoil. You must keep your eyes on Jesus always, especially in the most terrifying moments. Clare, you have a tendency to want to hear and see what man says is going on, yet this is not accurate, so I ask you to keep your hearts and minds stayed on the Lord. I bless you now with the grace of remembrance in times of turmoil.

“I am here, you are with me. There is much tension right now in this hour, not just here but around the world. So many genocides and attacks are being planned, so many. This is why He weeps. What you have seen so far is nothing like what is going to come forth. That is why it is so important to prepare others.

“It will become increasingly important to settle all uneasiness with God so that you can focus on those who need your prayers. The enemy will try to turn you all inward. Pay no attention to him, rather brush off his nefarious suggestions and keep your brother in prayer.

“So much is planned...so much is hanging in the air...all are doing their very best to keep it positive, but the situation with China is critical. You are truly becoming a community of prayer, it is beautiful. Your worst enemy is the one who turns your eyes off of the Lord or onto yourself. This is in an attempt to cause you such consternation that you cannot think of your brother or the world which is increasingly in need of deep intercession.

“If you are aware of this you can stop it, yes, you can skip right over it and keep going. In time this will become a good habit and short circuit the enemy’s attempts to shut down prayer. I cannot stress to you enough that this has worked for all your Christian lives and you must now conquer this because you cannot afford to take your mind off the ongoing battle. Recognize anything that comes at you to undermine your peace. This is the sign that the enemy is attacking. I wish for you all to be hyper-vigilant in this regard.

“You are going to see a major increase in grace as you practice self-forgetfulness, not only in worrying about your own perfection, but also when it comes to self-denial and food. Understand that the less comfort you derive from food, the more comfort you will receive in the Spirit. This is an unflagging rule that has stood behind the great ascetics of old, deny yourself pick up your cross and follow Me. This is why they went out to the desert to bring their flesh into submission.

“There is still much you all can do as a community to accomplish this end. When you are tempted, hold up the pleasure from that food next to the inner joy you feel when you are connected to the Spirit and see beyond this world, understanding things much deeper and more sublime.”

That was the end of Blessed Mother’s message. God bless you dear family and may He grant you His peace.

Wars & Famines PRAY

May the Lord grant you keen discernment and perfect freedom from the lies of a religious spirit that always seeks to distort the truth, especially when it threatens Satan’s kingdom. Amen

Beloved Heart Dwellers, some of you have been with me since 2015 when God granted an extension of five years for us, before the Rapture. That has come and gone, and the other possible extension in 2020 may have been three years or less. He has not given me clarity on that. If it is true then perhaps, we will have till 2023, but judging from the signs He gives us daily, urgency, urgency, it is very urgent, and I do not think we have that long. We are expecting a major change by October...a major change for better or for worse by October. In the meantime, we are preparing our hearts and what may be needed in a time of famine.

I marvel that the mother of Jesus, comes to visit and instruct us. I marvel even more that I can hardly tell the difference between her and the Lord’s words. It must be because her heart is so totally united to His. There is something about her that is so much like Him. But I have been fighting a wall of haze, difficult to hear and see through. And I do not know whether this is opposition from the enemies of Christ, I would not doubt it, or my own short comings. But I know I can trust our Lord to bring me through to the other side, and to bring accurate messages to you.

I just miss, really, being close to Him. There have been a few moments where we have danced together, and where He held me, it was so precious. I would love to go back to those places, they are very nourishing and strengthening.

Well, so many terrible wars and famines are being unleashed, Nigeria, India, Haiti, Cuba and South Africa, I believe to install the Marxist agenda and take freedom from the face of the earth. Please my dear family, pray for them, pray. I cried out during the Rosary to Our Lady to please help me to hear clearly. With all those things going on, my heart is so attached to everything.

And she answered me.

She said,

“I am here, and I hear your cry for their help. So many around the world are starving, deliberately, and now it is coming to your country. Your prayers for them avail much. Pray for them very much. It is so tragic Clare, and this is another reason why things must be accelerated.” And here she is talking about the agenda for the Rapture. “Each day that goes by, more of these innocents are suffering and dying of disease and starvation. All of this has been preplanned by those who run the world. They have no compassion what so ever for anyone outside of their own. Do not despair, truly your prayers are effective to being comfort to those who are without. This is another reason why all of you should all be models of moderation so that no one can you accuse you of stealing from the poor.

“The poor are God’s gift to you. It is by comforting them that the Lord Himself is comforted. Never neglect to do a good work when you can. Each little thing you do brings Him great happiness and fulfillment that you are indeed children of Your Heavenly Father.

“It is by denying comfort to those in need that your heart becomes hardened. It is also by watching over yourselves carefully, knowing that you can increase others that are in extreme need by limiting what you do with your own resources. That softens your heart and sets the right example for others.

“I want to address your deep sadness, Clare. If there were another way to do this, Jesus would have found it. But the layers of corruption go so very deep in this country and throughout the world that the time has truly come to begin the cleansing of planet Earth.”

Mother I do not understand how there can be this glorious new age everyone is talking about with all of this going on, knowing that we too are targets for destruction.

She continued,

“One hopes for the best, does what one can and anticipates the remainder. You have a good leader in President Trump, and he has made quality decisions. But there is a point at which what actually happens that determines the counter measures.

“There are many complicated dynamics to weight in the balance, between politics, famine, and hunger, shortages of every kind. So many dynamics come forward and there is no easy clean solution. Much depends on how injured this nation becomes, right now that is the priority.

And I have been crying out for our country, that the Lord would not allow the powers that work for Satan to nuke our nation, but there have been so many prophecies and we have seen it so many times it is going to be a miracle if we come away unscathed. We must pray for protection, and for protection for our President every day. Everyone here at the Refuge is praying for those intentions.

She continued,

“One thing you must know, Jesus is coming back, and you must prepare people.”

I said, I am really confused on how to present this since I have already talked about it before. And what I am mentioning here is the confusion around the thousand-year reign of peace, that some were saying it is going to come soon.

Our Lady said,

“Work at it Clare, do not give up so easily, persevere, and yes, I will help you.”

Thank you, mother, I feel so lost right now. But I am again listening to those who speak of the Great Awakening. It has many layers and dimensions, my only concern is where the demon aliens fit in, their agenda, and a push that God is not needed in this equation. Also, there is talk of the thousand-year reign of peace, but the most accurate history book in the world lays out the sequence of events and they have not been fully carried out yet. Still this brick wall of oppression is something only the Lord can conquer and I know He will not allow me to be tested beyond remedy.

“Part of that is an external oppression the Lord is allowing right now for the comfort of other souls. Remember we have talked about that before.”

That is Simon’s Cross, by the way. The Lord did a message on Simon ‘s Cross that explains that dynamic more fully, and that the Lord allows us a sliver of that cross to carry, and it comes in the form of suffering and difficulties.

She continued,

” Do your best beloved, you always do. Remember it is not depending on people hearing you or not, it is depending on their response which is not your responsibility. Holy Spirit is with you, you are lacking faith and confidence, but I can assure you He is with you.”

In that moment I caught a glimpse of His face right in front of me and a smile crossed my face before I could stop, just a big smile recognizing Him being there with me. Oh, precious Holy Spirit, help me.

And I would like to ask you dear family, to remember us in your donations for July and August. So many are on vacation and they forget us. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your generosity and faithfulness.

We have four people now have their own independent ministries and followings. This is my heart, when people come here is to raise them up into their own ministries and the Lord will send them out. I am so grateful to Holy Spirit for raising them up. Some will be going to Africa to begin ministries there, some to other parts of New Mexico.

And we have three new members of our community, which I will share with you later. So, some come, and some go.

To keep everyone well fed, we deeply appreciate your kindness to our ministry. Remember also to check in the text section for the many links we have to new ministries. Lord, please sustain us as one Body with You as the Head, and Your great love hold us all together. We love you Heart Dwellers. Amen

Birth Pangs

July 17th, 2021

Lord, help us to finish the race and finish well, no matter what we see and experience. Amen. Blessed Mother Mary began, "The Birth Pangs, they are getting more frequent and violent, spreading throughout the world. Each of you beloved souls are having an impact on the unsaved. You may also pray that more Christians will feel inspired to pray for those who will be caught in events. Please tailor your messages in this vein. They need to be made aware of the urgency on the Lord's heart.

"You would think that with all this movement, arrests, convictions, you would think they were defeated. What is not understood is the extensive networking and preparation for those who will come up to take their place. Truly the groundwork for this has been laid with great forethought.

"It would only be by God's intervention that all could be dismantled, and indeed He has stepped in with His grace and events to work with the righteous."

Blessed Mother, have we been in the tribulation all this time?

"That's a very good question, the answer is no. It is just beginning now. Yes, many of the things written in Revelation have already come to pass, but the very worst time is still ahead of us. When the Church is taken, then, it will begin in earnest." (at this point Mother Clare prayed the binding prayer) "There are so many ways the enemy cheats you out of knowing and understanding, it truly is wisdom to pray those prayers every time you come to the wellsprings of life to receive.

"You have no idea how frequently you are opposed, but you are learning and learning also to take authority over the forces of darkness. I will not always give you a long message. Sometimes it will be short for your edification. Today is a day on which I would like to thank you for all your efforts and continuing efforts. This time leading up to September could be a real turning point in your country, with prayer all things are possible. Your commitment is admirable and I pray you can carry through with it each day.

"Do not trouble yourself about the covens Clare, they are being handled and some are even abandoning the dark side. My Son is touching them and bringing wisdom and understanding to their world. Be assured of this, no prayer goes unanswered. You are so used to seeing results in the real world, you do not see what is being done in the spirit world, for this I need to tell your Bishop that you may partake in the joy of salvation going out to those who are even hopelessly lost. I want you to behold your crown and keep it safe, it is also your protection.

“I bless you with the Love of My son and pray that His wisdom and voice always be your guiding light. Never abandon Him, my children, always sit under Him in any way He chooses to come to you. And I bless you for your faithfulness, even when not feeling quite up to par. Amen.”

Is Jesus an Alien From Another Planet 1 of 3

July 18th, 2021

Please help us to understand the times we are living in, and to remain faithful to You but also to care for others who might see our faith as outdated considering all the technology and extra-terrestrial knowledge that is coming to light. Help us always to give a good answer and draw all men to You. Amen.

My precious Heart Dwelling family, this message is a little long, forgive me, in three parts, because I needed to quote Scripture and other sources. It has taken me quite a while to get this together, but it is so important, so vitally important for you to understand the beautiful Great Awakening that is taking place in our country, in our nation and in the world and how that relates to our faith in Jesus, as Christians.

So, the Lord has been speaking to me about the Great Awakening of 2020. There are many controversies surrounding this whole movement and some of the issues cross over into the New Age and outright reject the Messiahship of Jesus to talk about a universal cosmic consciousness. The tendency is to relegate true Christianity and intimacy with God as old fashioned and confining, too many rules, too much prejudice, etc. etc.

This they do in favor of a more cosmic model of consciousness that has different levels, the fourth and the fifth realm, and these are all terms for spiritual evolution as they perceive it, and I will try and explain that to you as best I can. So, basically, they are talking about operating in the mystical realm, at least that is what I would call it.

For instance, receiving messages from Jesus would be considered the fifth realm, a mystical realm. All Christians who operate in the Love of God, operate from the heart, they are a different breed of Christian, people who are so in love with the person of Jesus as He has revealed Himself to them as a real person, drawing each into a Bridal relationship of utter purity, but mystical union, and Song of Songs talks about that union. And there are many metaphors in Song of Songs, it is not literal in every sense. And many Christians move in prophecy and words of knowledge and healing. And that would be the equivalent to those upper dimensions, the fifth, and even the sixth as they frequent Heaven at will.

The New Age philosophy seems to have it in mind that this kind of thing does not exist in Christians, but it has for millennia and still does, there is even a new breed of true worshipers of God in Spirit and in Truth, that fill that requirement and go even further in the realms of the Spirit. When I was in the New Age, learning to be a trance medium, forty years ago, I thought Jesus' people were nerds and limited to a very narrow life experience," you know, "Christian-y" things, certainly not the mystical. And that is how proud and ignorant I was. Not that that is all out of my system, I do not think the Lord will ever get all the pride out of my system, but He is working on it.

But there is a troubling 'new' philosophy that mixes things up, making them look like the thousand-year reign that is spoken of in Revelation-we are still a way off from that, according to Biblical prophecy. It will come after the Rapture and tribulation. The overall take is that the space people, especially those from the constellation of Orion and Pleiades, the star clusters, Pleiades, some called themselves, some of these ET's call themselves Pleiadean, others Lyrans, for the planets that they inhabit. In any case, that they are going to usher in the reign of the thousand years of peace by technological wonders they have given to our planet. By engineering things like med beds to cure all diseases and even produce missing body parts, and even clean out painful experiences from our brain, that this and Tesla energy, free energy and free flying cars, so to speak ,that operate on principles given to Tesla - by the Pleiadeans, according to what they state, so the attitude is that all these great inventions are going to usher in the thousand years of peace, not Christ, He is not in the equation at all.

So, it is almost like the book of Revelation has been somewhat co-opted, this is classic Satanic strategy to mix the truth of Scriptures with lies, which causes people to be confused as to the origins of things. So, they will mistake something that is Satanic for something that is holy, because they do not know the Scriptures.

Jesus began to speak, "Ah Beloved, it is the pitfall trap awaiting the curious and undiscerning. This is a must for you to address".

Jesus, please help me, where do I start?

And He said, Be wise as serpents and gentle as doves. That is Matthew 10:16

Beloved family, we are heading into an extremely dangerous time, a time when many souls will be lost forever to Jesus and to Heaven, by equating these supernatural technologies as equal to God. The very thought of it throws Him into deep sorrow. And we have been trying to console Him and keep Him company during that.

And here, for those who take exception to what I am sharing with you, I want to recommend Chuck Missler's teachings which are sound and professionally researched as he worked in top secret weapons programs and dealt with aliens, one on one. He is a brilliant scientist who spent his life working in the top-secret fields for the military for thirty years before becoming a pastor and Bible believing born again Christian teacher. His methodologies and research are brilliant and rock solid. I can think of no man more qualified to give you a straight up analysis of the true motives and realities of these subjects. He has lots of teachings on Amazon and YouTube. And I am sure he is looking down on us right now from Heaven as part of the Great Cloud.

How is this confusion over who really is God and who are those who created these technologies, how do they relate to one another, and how is this going to come about and be resolved? Let us look at the Scriptures Jesus gave us to reveal all truth.

For false Christs and false prophets will appear-during the end times is what the Lord is talking about - and perform great signs and wonders that would deceive even the elect if that were possible. That is Matthew 24:24

The Lord has talked about this before, and I have shared it with you back in 2015 before the Rapture was delayed because of our prayers and the prayers of the Australians. But He has brought it up again. Dear ones Satan has prepared a potentially fatal deception for those who do not know the Lord, and do not know the Scriptures and therefore are limited in their discernment.

Jesus began to speak again, "In this world of wars and rumors of wars, earthquakes and famines, so called "people" of a higher level of consciousness coming to earth to save you with advanced technologies will be very seductive to those who are without discernment. They are in fact wicked fallen angels masquerading as highly developed beings and even boasting of being equal to Me. They will tell you that I am just another superior being from one of their planets and the Pleiades constellation. They will offer you peace, prosperity and good health if you follow their way of enlightenment and lead you to worship their god of lying signs and wonders, Lucifer. I have warned you in these Scriptures:"

1. Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to Him, we ask you, brothers, 2. not to be easily disconcerted or alarmed by any spirit or message or letter seeming to be from us, alleging that the Day of the Lord has already come.

3. Let no one deceive you in any way, for it will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness—the son of destruction—is revealed. 4. He will oppose and exalt himself above every so-called god or object of worship. So, he will seat himself in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God.

5. Do you not remember that I told you these things while I was with you? 6. And you know what is now restraining him, so that he may be revealed at the proper time. 7. For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work, but the one who now restrains it will continue until he is taken out of the way.

Ok, so who is the “restrainer”? We are restraining him because the Holy Spirit lives in us, and is working through us, in our prayers and rectifying deeds, prosecuting and executing the workers of iniquity, corrupt law makers, judges, child traffickers, murderers, gangs and drug cartels. All of the interference of the Holy Spirit through us will stop when we are removed in the Rapture. Then,

9. The coming of the lawless one will be accompanied by the working of Satan- later in second Thessalonians.

END OF PART 1

Is Jesus an Alien From Another Planet 2 of 3

July 19th, 2021

Continuing from Part 1, this is Part 2 of 3.

Jesus continued, “Everyone will be hailing these extra-terrestrials for their advanced intellect and helpfulness. There will be heated arguments even among believers that they are Christlike and holy. How will you tell them apart from Me? When they talk about loving one another, forgiving, walking in peace and freedom: when they talk about higher consciousness and spiritual dimensions: when they display healing powers and supernatural signs and wonders: when they talk about a thousand-year reign of peace; when they talk about Christ consciousness and display great dignity. How will you know if they are truly Christians, if they are saved, or if they know Me?

“If they tell you that I came from their planet to prepare the Earth for a great awakening, how will you know if that is true? What if they tell you that My brother is Lucifer and has the very same powers? Won't the witness of their supernatural wonders convince you that it might be true, after all?

“Let Me make this plain, dear ones. It is the same old New Age doctrine wrapped in a covering of supernatural events and signs. My people do not be misled by those who are preaching light, love, healing and equality, but endorsing what you KNOW to be sin. You have all been prepared to accept gay and lesbian marriages, even to the point of thinking that changing your gender, allowing your children to change their gender in grade school is ok. How perverse can things get before you wake up to the great deception being worked right in front of your very eyes?

“Many Scientists are perplexed as to what exactly is the alien agenda. These men and women do not know the Scriptures, so they are left in the dark, wondering if they are indeed evil or good. How could anyone who created a med bed for the sick be a bad person? How could anyone who provided the plans for free energy, and simple flying cars for everyone, how could they be bad?? These are dreams come true for mankind, and that is exactly how Satan has planned it. Most will be so wowed that they will eagerly embrace, and even sign, anything fed to them, especially if they are promised healing and extended lifetimes.

“But they are sharing all these wonderful inventions - they could not be bad, or they would have destroyed us by now. These are some of the dilemmas scientists and society are finding themselves in.

These things disclosed by Satan are a Trojan Horse. These amazing, miraculous scientific findings are a Trojan horse to hook you into believing in a false spirituality that will lead you into darkness and despair.

“This is a complex question, yet a simple answer is found in Isaiah 14. It is addressed to Satan or Lucifer who was considered of the highest order of angels, leading worship to My Father, until he became jealous and fell from grace:

12.How you have fallen from heaven, O Day star, son of the dawn!

You have been cut down to the ground, O destroyer of nations.

13.You said in your heart: “I will ascend to the heavens.

I will raise my throne above the stars of God.

I will sit on the Mount of Assembly, in the far reaches of the North

14.I will ascend above the tops of the clouds; I will make myself like the Highest.”

“His agenda has never changed. He still wants My creatures to worship him instead the One True and Living God. So, he has set up a generation in which he plans to seduce all mankind, and future generations to worship him. He cannot kill My creatures and still receive worship, so his agenda is to fool mankind into believing he is God, and thereby have the whole world worship him. He has set forth technology to seduce and wow you, and draw you into worshipping him, thereby accomplishing his agenda of ascending to the Throne of God on the Mount of Assembly.

Jesus continued, “Everyone will be hailing them for their advanced intellect and helpfulness. There will be heated arguments, even among believers, that they are Christlike and holy. How will you tell them apart from Me? What they tell you that My brother is Lucifer and has the very same powers? Won’t the witness of their supernatural wonders convince you that this might be true after all?

It is the same old New Age doctrine wrapped in a covering of supernatural events and signs.

“My People do not be misled by those who are preaching light, love, healing and equality but endorsing what you know to be sin. That is the key. Are they endorsing things that I have taught against and that you know are sin? You have all been prepared to accept the gay and lesbian marriages even to the point of thinking that changing your gender in grade school is ok. How perverse can things get before you wake up to the great deception being worked right in front of your eyes?”

*“Many scientists are perplexed as to what exactly is the alien agenda. These men and women do not know the Scriptures, so they are left in the dark, wondering if they are indeed evil or good? END OF PART 2

Is Jesus an Alien From Another Planet 3 of 3

July 20th, 2021

So, in Isaiah 14, starting at verse 12:

12. How you have fallen from heaven, O Day star, son of the dawn!

You have been cut down to the ground, O destroyer of nations.

13; You said in your heart: “I will ascend to the heavens.

I will raise my throne above the stars of God.

I will sit on the Mount of Assembly, in the far reaches of the North

14. I will ascend above the tops of the clouds; and I will make myself like the Highest.” End of quote.

“His agenda has never changed. He still wants My creatures to worship him instead the One True Living God. So, he has set up a generation in which he plans to seduce all of mankind. And when I say set up a generation, going back at least a hundred years, when people motivated by Satan were getting into positions in universities and teaching and engineered the teaching programs since that time that have prepared people to receive this kind of thing. So, he has set up a generation in which he plans to seduce all mankind and future generations to worship him.

“He cannot kill My creatures and still receive worship, so his agenda is to fool mankind into believing he is God, and thereby have the whole world worship him.

“My People, what is being taught by good people, supposedly enlightened with access to top secret documents, is the triumph of light over darkness, the end of wars, famine and disease, love, joy, peace, equality, a new golden age where everyone has what they need and peace reigns supreme on the earth. They are saying that this revolution will be the thousand years of peace spoken in Revelation.

“I have warned you that this was coming”. And this is from First Thessalonians 5, starting at verse 1. 1. Now about the times and seasons, brothers, we do not need to write to you. 2. For you are fully aware that the Day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. 3. While people are saying, “Peace and security,” destruction will come upon them suddenly, like labor pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. In its context it refers to the Day of the Lord

“Why will this happen? It will happen because the restrainer will be removed and suddenly Satan will have a free reign over the earth.”

All the interference of the Holy Spirit through us will stop when we are removed in the Rapture. And this is what the Scriptures have to say. This again is in Second Thessalonians 2.

The coming of the lawless one will be accompanied by the working of Satan, with every kind of power, sign, and false wonder. And with every wicked deception directed against those who are perishing, because they refuse the love of the truth that would have saved them, loving Jesus and knowing Jesus.

He has been pushed away by so many people, uh, as being just too simple and too narrow and not the truth, but that complicated mindset has set them up for a terrible situation because they are going to come under the power of these aliens.

For this reason, God will send them a powerful delusion, so that they will believe a lie in order that judgment may come upon all who have disbelieved the truth and delighted in wickedness. 2
Thessalonians 2.

I am moving on to Part 2 of this message.

“May I say to you, the thousand years of peace is real, but it will not begin until I have cleansed the earth by fire of all her iniquities, gathered together every demon and fallen angel and confined them so they can no longer mislead those on earth. I have written this in the Scriptures to give you a guidepost to the events you are now approaching.

“After that has been accomplished you can look forward to Me coming to the earth with My Saints and Angels to reign for a thousand years. But until that is accomplished in its totality, you have not yet passed through the fire. Prepare yourselves beloved ones, prepare your hearts for this time which will come as a thief in the night and steal all joy from the earth.

“These things I dictated to the Apostle John that are written in the book of Revelation, MUST come to pass. I have preserved and protected these words for two millennium so that you would know what is going on. Be led by My Spirit, and not by the Spirit of this World, not by masquerading demons and fallen angels that have the capability of manipulating matter in a most stupendous way. Do not be fooled by these false signs and lying wonders.

“If you think this message is from Clare, you are mistaken. Go and look up the tenets of the faith of the Church of Satan and you will find that they perfectly parallel secular humanism which Satan glossed over with a humanitarian wrapping and called it good, better and even best as a way of life. And here is a sample of what these ETs are preaching”.

The beings from the Pleiades created and seeded man on earth. They planted the seeds of man on Earth.

That is in direct contrast to Genesis, right?

Now this is them again:

In contrast with the elite-driven greed on Earth,
These extraterrestrials, were inspired by humanism,
for the “greater good” love, peace, and wisdom for all.
They had no shrines or temples, except for nature itself.
Real faith was not in creeds, but in a social and environmental responsibility.
They are only interested in our intent, and the path of our heart.
And they chose the path of quality-of-living and spiritual renewal for all.

“Sounds good, doesn't it. Yes, it is a great drink of spring water for the dehydrated people fed up with corruption, violence and wars...and after all they are so accomplished surely if we follow their way of life, we too will have this peace.

“DO NOT BE FOOLED. Although on Earth Satan has convinced people that Christians are bad, even terrorists, and the Bible is a harsh constricting way of life that denies basic human wants and needs, all the good stuff, although the educational system for seventy years have conditioned people, you know Me, and know better.

4. But you, brothers, are not in the darkness so that this day should overtake you like a thief. 5. For you are all sons of the light and sons of the day; we do not belong to the night or to the darkness. 1
Thessalonians 5

And this is where Satan is so slippery. They claim to take humanity from darkness to light because Satan mixes the truth and lies. He takes things from the Scriptures and mixes it with his lies.

“So, in conclusion dear ones, the enemy is coming with signs and wonders to deceive even the elect were it possible”. And that is from Matthew 24, I believe. “People will be duped into thinking God has come to save them with the truth that has been hidden from us by religious fables and concocted stories.

“The bottom line is you will know them by their fruits. If anything is taught or promoted that goes against what I have taught you in the Scriptures, you will know, as a certainty, that they cannot be from

Me. That is your answer. Stand firm, stand firm beloved ones, stand firm in the truth and warn the world of what is yet to come. Stand for the truth and do not allow others to be sucked into this dark pit of lies. Pray for them."

Fables of Men

July 20th, 2021

God bless you dear family, Mother Clare began, I am astounded at the ignorance of some who teach on the internet. One said, "Only Jesus can pray for you, only God can pray for you, no one else." That is so strange, when Jesus said "Pray ye, one for another, pray without ceasing and many other exhortations to pray for one another." Or what Paul said, "Now I (Paul) beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me" (Romans 15:30). "And for the continual prayer of a just man availeth much..... Confess, therefore your sins one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed."

What is prayer anyway: to speak to God especially to give thanks or ask for something· 2. to hope or wish very much for I prayed no one would forget. 3. to ask, entreat, implore —often used as a function word in introducing a question, request, or plea.

What is worship: to honor or show reverence for as a divine being or supernatural power.

Mother Clare continued, dear ones, we worship God, we pray to Him, we also ask others to pray for us to Him.

We do not worship Mary who is a highly favored soul (Luke 1:28) And the angel came in unto her and said, "Hail, thou that art highly favored, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women.") In Heaven we are totally animated by the Holy Spirit where all things are known without even asking. In Heaven when you look upon someone, you immediately know all there is to know about them. Why is that? Because Holy Spirit permeates all of creation, including our communication systems.

How many times have you been moved to pray for someone without being asked and later you found out they almost had a serious accident? That's how it works in Heaven, we are aware of everything we need to know immediately because we are saturated in the Holy Spirit. So, very simply when a person asks for prayer by calling the pastor on the phone or cries out, "Mary, Pray for me." The results will be the same, except she just happens to be the Mother of the Christ and the Spouse of the Holy Spirit. I would say that no other mortal has this high station.

How many times have you sensed the presence of a loved one who has gone before you to Heaven? They are not dead, but alive in Heaven and looking in on you.

And what is the Rosary? Very simply 20 meditations on the life of Jesus, with petitions for His mother to lift us up in prayer. "Hail Mary full of grace, the Lord is with you, Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb. Holy Mary, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death."

Search the Scriptures and you will find no doctrine that says when you are in Heaven you cannot pray for those on Earth. But you will find that those in Heaven are watching us down here on earth.

Hebrews 12:1 Paul says, "Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us."

I have been to Heaven more times than I can count and I assure you, when there, you know what you need to know that is going on down on earth. Take Jesse Duplantis for instance, he was taken physically to Heaven and when he was leaving, King David who had been his escort said to him, "I'm praying for you Jessie!" My, my, what a surprise that is, a saint in Heaven from the great cloud of witnesses Paul talks about, praying for a pastor on earth?

Hebrews 7:24 and 25, "But because Jesus lives forever, He has a permanent priesthood. Therefore, He is able to save completely those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to intercede for them."

Romans 8:34, "It is Christ Jesus that died, yea rather, that was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us."

Jesus is continually making intercession for us, and if we are in Heaven seeing Him pray, what are we doing? Praying along with Him.

So on this day in the Rosary, I heard, "Let us not forget to pray for those who are not prepared to die. There are so many. So many."

I asked, "How then are we to reach so many."

I heard, "The Marian multiplier."

What is that??

Our Mother of Mercy began, "Dear one when you enlist me, you enlist the entire cloud of witnesses because this intention is brought before them. It is unthinkable that anyone would look in on the plight of those on earth, from Heaven and not be moved to pray. Unthinkable. This is one of the confirmations

I wish to stress.

“No Christian can walk by a difficult situation and not sigh a sigh of pain for their brother or sister. It is this sigh that becomes a prayer and is taken up to Heaven and presented before Father God. I would ask you children who don't believe that citizens of Heaven cannot pray, I would ask you, what are they doing when they look in on us?

“If we see an accident, if we are given access to see an accident where there are injuries, what do you suppose your reaction would be. Of course, you would begin to pray, but what if the person next to you said, Oh No! You can't pray from Heaven! Sorry, you just have to watch them die, or shout out encouragement, cheering them on. How ludicrous would that be???

“Children do you not have ONE HEAD, One Body, One Spirit which gives life to all parts. You believe in the Triune nature of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit...how can you deny that all creation is tied together by the One God and therefore interconnected?

“What good would a cheerleader do for a drowning child? When this is observed in Heaven our hearts cry out to God to save that child. How could we not do this??? It is impossible. Do you understand, that cry is a prayer, and that prayer can save that child?

“Do you not understand that all the witnesses are concerned with the welfare of those on earth? This is a knee jerk reaction that can hardly be controlled, because all the souls in Heaven care deeply for those still on the earth. Don't you understand that prayer and worship go together and cannot be separated? How is it possible to stifle a reaction when you see your own grandchild in serious danger? Can you just imagine it, looking in on a scene where a child is about to drown and crying out to God, “Save him!” and the person next to you says, “That's a prayer, you can't pray from Heaven!”

“Can you imagine that?? Of course not, it is absurd. Someone in Heaven has even more of an obligation to pray for those on Earth because Jesus is setting the example, He makes constant intercession for us on earth as the high priest. When the priest prays, don't those in the congregation pray with him?

“Where did you get this foolish notion that you cannot pray from Heaven. You didn't get it from the Scriptures, it was man's invention. Oh, dear ones, when will you stop believing in the fables of men and cleave to the words of your Lord. Do not be so gullible that you readily believe in a man-made doctrine that is nowhere supported in the Scriptures. You must be more clever than the enemy who is depriving you of truth and power, the power that comes with the fullness of the faith Jesus left for you. These times you live in are packed with those who claim to have the authority to interpret Scripture. You must call upon Holy Spirit to help you see the truth and separate those who think they know, from those who are anointed and do know.”

Demon Aliens & The Rapture

July 21st, 2021

Peace and grace to you dear Heartdwellers.

We would like to share with all of you, Father Ezekiel's vision. He began, there were storm clouds brewing over a city street. A beggar was on the corner and people were walking around everywhere going to and fro, then all of a sudden, he was being transformed with light and lifted up, the beggar was being raptured. Everyone was panicked and didn't know what to do. People were running every which way and screaming. A few minutes later a very few others were taken, the rest were left behind. The enemy will spread the lie that those who were taken were not ready for man's next step in evolution, and the earth spirit Gaia, purged them. And that was the end of Father's vision.

Mother Mary began speaking to Mother Clare, "What is going on now is tragic in every sense. You are entering into the tribulation. Even now as we speak, things are moving forward that will determine the next seven years of this world. Indeed, the Pleiadeans are of the worst kind of demons. Many will fall for this deception because they worship science, logic and the structure of man's thinking. It will never occur to them to compare what is being taught to what the Church of Satan believes. You must not let that stop you Clare. You need to make it plain that this is NOT the millennial reign of Christ. This is the reign of the antichrist and the embodiment of Satan.

"Faith is missing in action. Faith is what enables others to believe the truth as it is revealed in the Bible, but because men and women in the Body of Christ are so sold into programs, financing, showtime, provable statistics, what is seen and what is heard takes precedence over the faith. Then the faith dims in favor of programs and techniques for manipulating people into giving to support all kinds of activities inspired by the enemy, not Our Sweet Holy Spirit.

"It's business as usual, show business. There is about to be a sharp divide between those who live for the rewards of this earth and those who only live for the glory of God. The glory is seen on the beggar taken first to Heaven, but those who come next are not living the life or strengthening what remains. This pattern is repeated over and over again all over the world.

"There comes a point of departure, where those of the earth no longer believe the supernatural. Yes, there is reform coming, but many will fall away. Many, many, many. They will not be willing to listen to the Holy Spirit, but they will be all too ready to listen to the unholy spirit animated in others and the world.

“There will be a sharp division in this regard, those who believe in Science and Demon Aliens and those who believe in the Bible. That is where the narrative comes in, that the Rapture removed those who were not fit for the new age.”

Oh Mother, if not for the Lord locking up these demons for a thousand years, if it weren't for that, no one would believe.

She replied, “This is what the symbolism of the body of Christ being removed from the head, is all about. And what she is talking about here is Ezekiel saw the head of Jesus up high on a pole, the body had been ripped off.

Mother Clare asked, “How do the Chinese fit in to all of this?”

Blessed Mother continued, “They are being used and have already the many rules of antichrist. The golden age. Their guidelines are parallel to Satan's, The Storm is coming Clare, The Storm is coming. Cling to the Lord in all circumstances, He will protect you. Pray for the unsaved.” And that was the end of Our Lady's message.

Our prayers are so needed at this critical time dear Heartdwellers. Let us stay in a posture of prayer and supplication. God bless you and keep you all.

Stay Knitted in Love

July 22nd, 2021

May our thoughts dwell on the Lord, on His holiness, goodness, love and mercy. Amen. Well, dear Heartdwellers some of us on the refuge have been under pressure lately and feeling more than a little overwhelmed, so we have been continually praying for each other. Blessed Mother began speaking to Mother Clare, to immediately address the situation at hand.

Mother Mary began, “Things are bound to get more intense as you get closer to that time. Understand beloved, every pain counts. The pain of misunderstanding, the pain of fatigue, the pain of absence, all of these things intensify as you get closer to that time. Things are wrapping up, coming to a conclusion, especially the sick, they are being brought home before the very worst starts.

“There is more pressure on all of you Beloved ones, handle with care. Invest yourself in one another. Be there for one another. Stay knitted together in love. Those who are crippled emotionally need to be uplifted and shown greater patience, but they should know that each and every emotional and mental pain is applied to the salvation of a sinner. These troubles are little palancas that have been entrusted to you. Many graces ride on these little inconveniences. Although you do not see or realize the power of these little gifts, that does not diminish their fruitfulness. Oh, what wonderful surprises await you in Heaven!

“Nothing that you suffer is ever wasted, ever. The Lord makes use of it all and you will not lose your reward. Only try to offer them in love and not bitter inconvenience. You know that thousands around the world are suffering much worse, your life here is blessed by comparison. Do not allow the devils to sow disquietness, nor provoke you to complaining. How blessed you are to be messengers and apostles of the Most High God of mercy, how wonderful is your life assignment.

“These tests only increase your virtue especially when you bear these things in humble submission. You are being crafted into a fine vase to carry the living waters forth. You are examples to others, that is why it is especially important to be overflowing with thankfulness to inspire others. They will look at you and say, “Look, their clothing is poor and simple, they don’t have a car or a house, but they are happy, even joyful.” Your example shines and glows giving off light to this very dark world.

“As you learn humble submission, that light increases. Make no mistake, they see that light, they feel that light and it leaves a clear unspoken impression in their being. It is a witness to the fact that you have found the truth and are living in it. So, much darkness all around Clare, when light comes, they feel it. Hope enters in and they begin to consider God, that perhaps He does love them, that perhaps He will guide, speak and protect them. Souls now are riddled with fear. They live in fear from morning to morning, never quite finding peace and rest, always medicating with television and food. When you come to their door smiling with gifts, it makes them forget their plight, even if only for just a few minutes.” And that was the end of Blessed Mother’s message.

Be the light dear ones and let the light of Christ shine on all around us to deliver those who suffer from sorrow, sadness and every kind of bondage, and pray that they will be redeemed and added to the Kingdom of God.

Did You Miss Your Destiny 1 of 2

July 23rd 2021

Lord, we know you are coming for us very soon, and there is very little time left. Please help us to look deeply into what we have become in our lives and how much our lives conform to Your Holy Will. Please help us to repent and find forgiveness for what we have not done. And please help us to make the best of the time left to us, for the building up of your Kingdom. Amen.

Mother Clare began,

“Beloved family, I am writing this to you from the depths of my soul, because I do not want what has happened to me to happen to you. I cannot tell you all the ways you could lose the fulfillment of your destiny, but I can tell you how I have lost mine. So please bear with me. I have asked the Holy Spirit to write this message because He alone knows just what you need to hear right now. Shall I cut to the quick and tell you the bottom line? No, I need to tell you a story.

When God conceived you, He did so with a very special purpose in mind. He put all the gifts and attributes you need into your DNA so that you could fulfill your destiny. But the really treacherous part for Him, is that He endowed us with free will. That means that we can make a choice. Oh Lord, where do I begin?"

He chuckled, "At the beginning."

But which one?

He replied, "Adolescence."

I was raised in the inner city of Chicago in a nice Jewish neighborhood. My Mother was a designer and makeup artist and we went agate hunting at Lake Superior in the summer months. We had a summer house on a lake where I spent the summers, swimming, fishing and canoeing. My Mother was always into some project, decoupage or collecting antiques. The antiques and summers in the country had a profound effect on me, because I HATED the city. I was miserable there.

I think something deep inside of me equated mother's love with the country and that would be a lasting influence, although I'll never be able to express my love for the beauty of God's creation. Even now I look out upon my favorite view, the deep, deep forest of Aspen, Spruce and Fir trees, on the side of a mountain in the Sangre de Cristo mountains of New Mexico, and it truly brings me a measure of joy, but I would never exchange it for God's presence. It is a great gift from Him that He arranged my life so I would have it this way. Hint: You cannot out-give God.

My Father was a well-respected designer who had a distinguished clientele, later in life he became a photographer, when he left America to live in Mexico City. I never knew him. My Mother worked hard and went out at night with friends. So, most of my upbringing I was totally alone, except for the great cloud of witnesses and angels who I believe influenced my thinking.

I had a very difficult time in high school, because of the Jewish cliques and I was a little different, an outcast and Gentile to be exact. But two memories stand out to me...it is a hint of what God had in store...that I was sitting at a piano at the school playing and yearning for more, and singing operatic pieces alone in my apartment. I didn't have a piano, back then they didn't have keyboards...my Mother couldn't buy me a piano so I never moved in that direction. Rather, I became a rock hound and polishing stones for jewelry. My strong love of beauty and intricacy of minerals, led me to compete in a science fair, which I won and was sent to the state competition, winning honors there as well.

I was strongly influenced by what my Mother loved and only God knows how much that formed my life path. I was searching for God in high school, searching intensely, but never connected with anyone who knew Him. I can however look back on two teachers I had in high school who were so kind to me that I experienced deep love and goodness through them. One was Jewish, the other Greek Orthodox. Oh, how I wished I had found Him then. I am sure He felt the same way, because my searching led me into many evil and dark places.

I'm going to skip now to after my marriage and birth of four children. Jesus apprehended me and pulled me out of the New Age when I was 33 and my first child was born. Fire descended from the sky while I was meditating on the Mayan Tarot deck (I read tarot cards and was learning to channel spirits), the fire completely engulfed me. It was the Holy Spirit who descended into my body and lit it on fire in an incomparable ecstasy. All of a sudden, I knew the difference between God and my new age studies...I Ching, Astrology, Numerology, Transcendental Meditation, Scientology, Native American medicine ways and Tarot.

I know beyond a shadow of a doubt that this was the God I had been seeking. I had a keen understanding of my sins, but God's love flooded over that and forgave me. I was there for 45 minutes, completely paralyzed, I could not move. Afterwards, I knew I was forgiven of my sins, I needed to get a Bible and learn how to live from it, I also needed a church. As God would have it I landed in a nondenominational church in Phoenix, Valley Cathedral. I was soon baptized and filled with the Spirit. I got rid of all my new age paraphernalia and embraced the Bible with all my heart.

For some reason, I felt like I had to look conservative now. I was never a full-fledged Hippie, but I was definitely counter cultural in my approach to life. Before my marriage I became a nature photographer in San Francisco and loved the travel and search for beauty. At one point I realized I had everything that mattered to me, but I was not happy. I cried out to a God I did not know. This experience was an answer to that prayer. But the polyester look was so foreign to me. I loved native American weavings and unique clothing. But to fit in I swallowed my pride and got with the program.

So, that is a little bit of background on my tattered, ragged life. After seven years of bible studies and Sunday services, I felt something was really missing from my life. It did not look like Jesus, it felt materialistic and superficial. Humility was lacking in the teachings, and I felt I was full of pride and the world. No one was addressing this in the Evangelical churches. That's when I discovered the life of St. Francis of Assisi, through John Michael Talbot's music and autobiography. He had found what I felt was missing in my life. Shortly after this, I left the world to embrace this life of simplicity and humility where God was my all in all. Or at least I thought I had.

My very precious friends, the devil had my number, a thick file on how to lead me astray. I didn't find out until my children were grown and out of the nest that I was called to be a musician and singer. I was 58. By then I had a lifelong habit of chasing after beauty in nature, in fact I was easily distracted into spinning wool, weaving, and to be honest, I loved to create and it didn't take much to get me into gardening and all sorts of very self-centered activities.

When the gift of music came, I was overwhelmed in amazement, then came the gift of YouTube and teaching, a way to share with others the foolish mistakes I made in my life. You see, I was created to bring music into this world, music with a message, a message of Love from Jesus. But I lacked discipline and was like a little butterfly going from flower to flower. If I look at myself more circumspectly, I would say I was born to communicate the Love of God to others, as I believe all Christians are, but each in their own special way.

But my selfishness and infatuation with beauty seemed to always find a way to steal time from music. I confess to you, music is very difficult for me, I am not skilled, and it is only by way of angels that I am able to create anything at all. I know they help me. Being older, I am not so good on coordination, and my voice has to be constantly hydrated, living up here, taking medication for fibro pain, makes that a real challenge of self-discipline, and easy to forget.

There is always something easier for me to do that brings me pleasure, such as creating cards with Scripture to pass out with food boxes. As little and silly as that might seem, it is a temptation for me to use up a lot of time. The Lord wanted me to walk. So, I walk, but it is so beautiful up here that I cannot go without a camera and my exercise ends up in a photography shoot, no matter how short it is. So, I put the camera down and went walking without it.

Then I found mushrooms. I have fond memories of mushroom hunting in the fall at our lake house with my mother. So, what happens? My walk turns into a mushroom hunt and of course outcome the books and the spore prints and the research. All taking time. For what? My stomach?? You see, when I tell you I am the worst sinner, I am not exaggerating. I wish I had a one-track mind, but I don't, and my love for beauty and all God created steals time away from the one thing that was my destiny, music.

This is a time of life reviews and repentance. We do not know what will come this fall, but the Lord continues to confirm that He is at the door and ready, and we ALL need to repent of our excesses and foolishness, when we veered off the path God set us on, to entertain our own fancies. I was selfish and self-serving in many things I did, although they had an impact on others for the good, they were nothing like the good songs which I could have reached many more people with.

Did You Miss Your Destiny 2 of 2

July 23rd, 2021

So, today the Lord continues to confirm, this is the real deal, things truly are going to start happening. I was meditating and wondering if God will give us more time at the last minute and I can really get all my songs out. I picked up a little Padre Pio book and opened to a place where there was only one sentence on both pages. It said, "To convert them, a punishment is necessary, so that they may be saved." I knew He was talking about America and the chastisement that may very well happen in September. One of our community members...the really brave young man that left everything in Louisiana on the first day of college to come here with nothing but a desire to know God intimately, he now has a prophetic gift, and is teaching others what he has learned. He gave it all up and God gave him the greatest treasure, Himself and the gift of prophecy.

I feel very sorry for the ones that live for their parents and turn down the call of the Lord. They will not be happy until they give Him their whole heart.

And this is about me as well. Yes, I am living the life, but over here in this corner of my heart is spinning wool and weaving, over there is mushroom hunting, over there is gardening, restless looking on the internet when I am weak, identifying herbs and plants, etc., etc. Dear ones, if I had given my WHOLE heart to the Lord, in this moment you would probably have a good 15 albums of music to help you get closer to God.

I look at someone like Misty Edwards and Julie True and admire them tremendously. Because it is obvious, they devoted themselves to their greatest gift and look what God is doing with them now. These are living saints; I can tell you by listening to their songs that they have triumphed over many excruciating trials. They were not diverted from their calling, they didn't hearken to the attraction of beautiful things, mushrooms, medicinal plants, weaving, photography or any other thing that would keep them from music. They harkened to God alone. They cooperated with God and purified their motives. They heard God and obeyed, gave Him their all, all their time, all their passion, all their faithfulness.

Oh, beloved friends, tears run down my cheeks as I tell you these things, because I am so so very sorry for having let the Lord down with music. My selfish interests derailed me. Was Satan involved? You'd better believe it. He knew exactly how to steal my destiny and derail me. He knew just what button to push to get me off and running in the wrong direction. Was it his fault, NO it was mine for cooperating with his suggestions? These selfish sidetracks brought me a little joy but took my greatest gift from me, because I used that time that should have been invested in music.

Please listen to me, please stop living for yourself and what you want. He was bled dry on the cross for you, He gave all He had for you, can you not give all you have for Him? Just recently Our Lady gave me a message about the power of music, it dwarf's all other art forms. It goes deeper than words or images. It molds the heart into what it will become. If you are called to make music, write, teach or paint, whatever your calling, you will have no regrets when you stand before Him because you put away all your other hobbies, interests, and pursuits to do His will.

He created you very special and unique. Certain gifts are in your DNA and you will never discover what they are, nor will you discover who you are meant to be, if you persist in self will and choosing what you think is best for your life. You will be a miserable failure at the end of your life and regret all the wasted time and resources you spent doing what you thought was best, things that will be burnt in the fire and bear no fruit for Heaven.

As I pondered these things today, realizing that September may be our last month on this earth, I asked myself, here I am now, what can I possibly do to make up for this failure. All I could think of was to warn you not to fall into the same trap. If I turn just one or two hearts to God whole heartedly, and they follow through, brushing distractions aside, overcoming every obstacle, and staying on track, fulfilling their destinies, it would be worth it, and I should give it my best shot.

Some of you may argue, that after all there has been some good fruit from this ministry, and I would agree, but deep in my heart I know that there was something more for me to do and I didn't do it. If the Lord has touched you through me, and you are more drawn to God because of it, I rejoice! That's my whole heart for you and for Him. And I thank God that He was able to bring good out of my wayward starts and fits.

But I do hope you will take this lesson to heart and not allow anything to pull you off course. Satan has demons skilled in deception who will try to seduce you with a "better" good than the plan you know God has for you. You will be very attracted to it and find several ways to justify it in favor of the Lord's invitation. If you agree with them and go off track you will be very sorry later. If you get tired and take a break doing other things, getting enmeshed in what you enjoy, that too will end in your sorrow. Only one thing will work. As Jesus' mother once said, and is still saying, "Do whatever He tells you to do." Do it afraid, do it fatigued, do it sick, do it in emotional pain, do it in poverty and do it in excess. But be sure to do it.

If you have to alienate your parents, do it, if you have to lose friends, do it, if the whole world calls you crazy, do it! And don't stop until He tells you to. Remember, Jesus said, "He who loves mother, father, sister, brother, more than he loves Me, is not worthy of Me."

Do you understand what that looks like? Imagine standing on a stage, in line with other people, being handed their destinies. Jesus is there, full of excitement and expectation, He is calling out for those who want to work only for Him. Dozens emerge from the packed stadium and move towards Him. The crowd breaks forth in applause each time one goes forward; the entire place is packed full to the brim with anticipation and excitement. There are angels everywhere, speaking to timid hearts to take a chance, go for Jesus.

He sees the line and the eager faces, and sees the glory of what each one will become when they totally hand over their lives to Him, letting go of every attachment, letting go of parent's designs on their lives, and all the expectations of society to succeed in their way of life. Beside Him an angel stands holding a large basket of scrolls. A child of God steps forward to receive theirs, and is overcome with gratitude and joy that they have been chosen to work for Him, the King of Heaven, and moves into the area with other candidates that have accepted.

The Lord is elated, as each one faces Him in their moment of truth. Then you step forward on the platform, the stadium is packed with angels and Christians alike...Jesus hands you your assignment. You open the scroll and your heart sinks. "My mother and father would never approve of this," you say to yourself. The audience is speechless as you hand the scroll back to Jesus and walk off the stage. You could hear a pin drop the whole place is speechless and silent.

That day is coming dear one. That will be the day you are judged for what you did with your life. Where were your priorities, who did you choose to serve? Your parents will be accountable for discouraging you, but you will be the one that is judged unworthy, not them. Those who hand Him back the scroll breaks His heart in two. He knows what you were made to do, and in His eyes it is glorious. He wanted you by His side working for souls and attaining to your destiny. But you said, "No." And you leave and wander about in the world wondering if you missed it.

Your life is filled with distractions to dull the pain of losing your destiny, life goes on, parents are happy, you marry and have children, all the time, way, way back in your mind, feeling that something really important is missing.

Adult children of God, please consider your end and do not put off your conversion to His will, with 100% of your life. I can tell you from experience, it is a terrible feeling. Here I am at 76 feeling deeply saddened at what I could have done if only I had obeyed and persevered.

God bless you dear ones, may this message lodge deep in your heart, and inspire you to let go of your life into Jesus' hands, never looking back. Amen.

Your Prayers Don't Matter- satan

July 25th, 2021

Lord be with you, Heart Dwellers.

Lord Jesus, please crush this myth Satan whispers to us all day and all night that we may have the faith to pray and believe You will move on our prayers. Amen.

Have you ever thought, "My prayers are so weak, I do not think they matter."? Or this one, "Let the really holy people pray, God does not care about my prayers." Or this one, "God does not hear me because I fell from grace." All of us at one time or another get this lie stuck in our head. I want to tell you; this is a lie from Hell. Here is the message I received yesterday as we were all praying for China, Germany and Nigeria.

It began, "It is good that you are praying for those in extreme distress. This Clare is part of what I was showing you with all the dead bodies covered in sheets. There are yet many more terrible things to befall the earth and many will die and suffer. These prayers may seem very unimportant from your viewpoint but if you were there, you would see how even just one prayer with intention releases graces upon needy souls. Your prayers yesterday for those trapped in the subway saved souls. I know you do not understand it, but the Lord is releasing the graces of conversion to those who know nothing of Him and whose minds have been poisoned by Satan's lies.

"Grace is indeed a mystery; it flows from one person to the next with imperceptible precision to those souls who are calling out to God. It is even used to stir up the question, "Does God exist?" When they think that, what comes next is, "God if you are real, save me." That request alone is sufficient to bring one sinner into the kingdom of Heaven, though they have never been taught, there is a mysterious and wonderful exchange between a creature and her creator. This is so sublime it is not easy to explain, but in the spirit, words are not necessary, it is the language of the heart of a soul to the Heart of God. How beautiful this is. Grace in all its glory descends into the hungry heart and they are saved. It is so very simple. Later in Heaven they will learn how things work, but for that one instant all they need to do is cry out to God and say yes.

“This exchange takes place in split seconds, even the repentance and acceptance of forgiveness. So much can be done with so little. These are the mountains of communism that can be moved aside so easily in just a split second, depriving Satan of his long sought-after quarry. Do not underestimate the power of these prayers. Praying Scripture and meditating on the life of my Son, is very powerful. It shows great faith on those who have given their time to gather and intercede for strangers.

“Today it is China, tomorrow it could be America, the prayers will never go forth without accomplishing their end. This is the beauty of the dynamics of grace which your God has so lovingly created for your salvation and the salvation of the truly desperate and needy. So, you see, what you have done tonight has brought forth much fruit. Never will you pray in vain. Never. The Lord sees it all and He rewards. I am your mother of Mercy, spread this message far and wide.”

Well, after she told me that, we were all praying the Rosary in the front room and Ezekiel was in, uh, his room. I went back to talk to Ezekiel, and he said that a soul came to him at the foot of his bed and thanked him for praying for her because she was dying. She was drowning in the flood in China, and she came to thank him for his prayers.

Wow, we just do not know the power of prayer, but I want to encourage you: Pray the simplest prayer that you must pray. Pray the Rosary. Pray with fervor in intercession. If the Lord gives you the burden, pray it with the burden. However, it is, pray, but do not wait for the feelings to come, rather look at the plight of the soul or the plight of a nation and petition God for them. Ask Him to help them. These prayers are effective, we just do not realize how effective they are, nor will we know what we have done until Heaven, then the Lord will show us the fruit of our prayers.

So, do not allow Satan to lie to you, dear ones. Take hold of the rope of faith and allow the Lord to pull you up higher and to answer your prayers. Jesus lives forever to make intercession for the saint, so we should too.

The Lord bless you, dear ones.

And I want to thank those souls who have thought about us and our mission and sent a donation. That was very, very kind of you, and it was really needed. Thank you so much.

God bless you dear Heart Dwellers.

In The Storm

Prophetic Song about the Sequence of Events in the Rapture

When the mountains shake the seas, then You'll come to rescue me, for Your love will not be shaken in the storm.

When we're shattered to the core, in the dreaded crypt of war,
the hearts of men will fail them in the storm.

With the piercing trumpet's cry, lightning rips through crimson skies, and all who have been waiting will arise.

Vindication fills the skies, clouds of saints ascend on high, as the King in all His grandeur takes His Bride.

In the tattered robes of war, those left standing at the Door will weep in Outer Darkness...in the Storm.

Now this absence of the Light, it will set the lost aright
as they cry aloud for answers...in the Storm.

So despite the bolted Door, be repentant and implore, for His Mercy will restore you in the Storm.

So trim your lamp, tend to your light. It's not too late to get it right,
He's standing here beside you, take His hand.

For He's coming at an hour...you know not when.

I tried, I tried. We tried to tell you. We tried to no avail.

To no avail...
