

McArthur, Wayne V.

Wayne V. McArthur, 85, of Harbor Beach passed away Saturday, Sept. 1, 2007 in the Lakeview Extended Care and Rehab Center of the Harbor Beach Community Hospital.

Born in Harbor Beach Oct. 17, 1921, he was the son of the late James and Hattie (Goodwin) McArthur. On July 9, 1947, Wayne and Suzanne Seibert were united in marriage.

Wayne was a veteran of World War II serving in the U.S. Marines in the 1st Marine Division in the South Pacific Campaign and later in the Marine Corps Expeditionary Force to China.

Wayne was an employee of the Michigan State Highway Department for 20 years and worked for the Huron County Road Commission for 12 years retiring in 1984. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Harbor Beach and a member of the American Legion Post No. 197 for over 60 years. During his time in the American Legion, Wayne was the Sergeant at Arms for the Drill Team that competed at many state levels.

He enjoyed boating, sailing, golfing and tennis as well as a variety of our door activities. He always looked forward to socializing and playing cards with his friends.

Wayne is survived by his wife, Suzanne McArthur of Harbor Beach; a son, Brian McArthur of Elkhart, Ind.; a daughter, Connie Schweinberg and her husband, Paul, of North Fort Meyers, Fla.; a grandson, Kevin Arntfield; and a brother, Clare McArthur of Winterhaven, Fla.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Ross McArthur.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2007 in the Ramsey Funeral Home of Harbor Beach with burial in the Rock Falls Cemetery. The Rev. Theresa Cutler will officiate. Military honors will be provided by the American Legion Post No. 197 at the graveside.

Visitation will be from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. today and from 10 a.m. until the time of services Wednesday at the funeral home.

Memorials may be given to the First Presbyterian Church, the American Parkinson Disease Association or to the donor's choice.
