

MacGillivray, John

John M. "Jack" MacGillivray, 88, of Bad Axe and formerly of Medallion Village in Sebewaing, passed away on Wednesday, Oct. 2, 2002, at the Huron County Medical Care Facility. He was born in Detroit on June 13, 1914, the son of the late Angus M. and Naomi Ethel (Brain) MacGillivray. On June 6, 1936, he was united in marriage to Alice J. Graham in Detroit. Mr. MacGillivray was a 1932 graduate of Cass Technical High School in Detroit. He served in the United States Army during World War II with the 42nd Rainbow Division in the European Theatre. He retired as a senior analyst from General Motors Tech Center Fisher Body Division in 1974. The MacGillivray's lived in Lake Havasu City, Ariz. for 10 years and then in Las Vegas, Nev. for 10 years. They retired to Roseville, where they lived until moving to Medallion Village in 1998. Mr. MacGillivray enjoyed all sports, especially Detroit Red Wings hockey. He loved music and enjoyed singing and whistling. He is survived by his wife of 66 years, Alice; daughter, Sandy MacGillivray and her husband, Bill, of Sand Point; son, Norman J. MacGillivray of Fraser; two grandsons, Brett MacGillivray of Eastpointe and Todd MacGillivray of Chicago, Ill.; great-granddaughter, Miranda MacGillivray of Warren. A memorial service will be conducted at 11:30 a.m. on Monday, Oct. 7, 2002, at the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home in Pigeon with the Rev. Margaret Passenger officiating. Interment will be in the Caseville Township Cemetery. Visitation is from 10:30 a.m. until the time of the service Monday at the funeral home. Memorials for Mr. MacGillivray may be made to the Parkinson Foundation.