

WASHINGTON LAVENDER FARM

965 Finn Hall Road, Port Angeles • 360-452-4877 • walavender.com

Majestically situated along the Strait of Juan de Fuca between Sequim and Port Angeles, Washington Lavender Farm enjoys a panoramic view of the mountains and ocean.

Come experience an unrivaled lavender festival set in a colorful landscape of lavender and wildflowers against the backdrop of the stately George Washington Inn (a B&B that replicates George and Martha Washington's Mount Vernon estate in Virginia).

Take a step back in time in the colonial-themed festival, savor lavender treats at the snack shop and shop for the farm's Martha's Own lavender products in the gift shop.

Essential oil distillation, cooking demonstrations, kids' activities, crafts, U-pick lavender and more await you (see schedule for details).

There is no admission charge for this 10-day event (July 12-21).

On the weekend of July 12-14, enjoy a lavender-themed afternoon tea on the inn's oceanfront piazza (reservations required, $37 per person). Any remaining tickets are available on a first-come, first-served basis in the farm's gift shop.

Dan and Janet Abbott invite you to come back throughout the summer. The farm and gift shop are open for your enjoyment from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. from Memorial Day through Labor Day and the rest of the year by appointment. And you'll want to come back for a luxury getaway at the B&B.

Be sure to save the dates for the Northwest Colonial Festival, held on the farm Aug. 8-11. Get a glimpse of life in a traditional colonial village. Visit the British and militia camps. Experience a variety of colonial crafts. Relive colonial days in the Kids Village. Listen to the fife and drum corps. Learn more about the "shot heard 'round the world" during the daily reenactments of the Battles of Lexington and Concord and explore so much more. For more information, visit colonialfestival.org.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS FOR LAVENDER WEEKEND

EVERY-DAY EVENTS

- Photo opportunities in the lavender field
 - U-pick lavender
 - Kid-friendly crafts
 - Make your own woven lavender wand (Friday and Saturday, noon to 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. to 4 p.m.; Sunday, noon to 1 p.m.)
 - Make-and-take lavender crafts for the whole family
 - Beekeeping demonstrations
 - Essential oil distillation demonstrations
 - Cooking demonstrations (11 a.m. and 2 p.m.)
- SATURDAY, JULY 20
- 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. — Steve Lyon, director of field research, plant breeder and agronomist with the Washington State University Bread Lab, presents a seminar on growing heritage grains and incorporating them with culinary lavender for a gourmet baking experience.

MUSIC

Enjoy a wide variety of early American, patriotic, baroque and classical music throughout the weekend.

FOOD

The farm's snack shop features seven varieties of lavender ice cream and sorbet, lavender lemonade, lavender iced tea, lavender lime floats and George Washington Coffee.

Assorted additional culinary baked goods will be offered as available.

WASHINGTON continued on 33 >>

<< WASHINGTON from 32

VENDORS

- Whimsical Woods — hand-crafted, all-natural birdhouses, bird feeders, gnome homes and more made from downed trees and other natural materials gathered from our woods on 14 acres of Washington's Olympic Peninsula.
- Ewe-Nique Quilts & Gifts — quilted table runners, wall hangings and pillows with hand-embroidered lavender flowers and scented with lavender buds. Other gifts include penny rugs, quilts, sachets and pin cushions.
- The Shepherd's Fold — unique hand-spun and hand-woven articles, specializing in hand-spun hats and hand-woven rugs.

- Modern and Medieval woodturning — woodturners that specialize in making turned wood items that span history, including bowls, cooking items, tools and much more.
- Mack's Novelty & Ceramics — handmade and hand-painted ceramics, including many lavender-themed products and a variety of crocheted kitchen items.
- Carrico's Cut Ups — handmade fiber, fabric and other items crafted with the Washington Lavender Farm and the George Washington Inn at heart, plus "bowl cozy" hot pads, one-of-a-kind tote bags, aprons, scarves, tea cozies and Etui (needle boxes) pin cushions.
- NW Wood 'N Stuff

— wood toys and gifts, American Girl doll outfits and accessories.

- Gustoblende — a world-class line of barrel-aged balsamic vinegars and extra-virgin Spanish olive oils, as well as handcrafted, artisan-flavored pasta.
- Simply Living — lavender trays, scented bath bombs, herbal bath tea bags and more.

NONPROFITS

- Gideons International offering Bibles to anyone interested
- Honeybees and Lavender (Mark Urnes, North Olympic Peninsula Beekeepers Association)
- Child Evangelism Fellowship

FREE ADMISSION

