Summary:

3 guys at a typical morning devotion that seems monotonous and routine, happen to be reading from Daniel of the account of the "fiery furnace"... When the story comes alive and the guys are transformed into the very scene. King Neb demands worship; 3 Hebrews refuse and are put in the fire, angel comes with water sprayer, have a party and the King is taken aback. Scene resumes to the devotion where the guys are all overly encouraged to start the day without "fear nor compromise".

SCENES:

Introduction w/banner

3 Guys are waking up to have morning devotions
Guys greet each other, sleepily tired and not interested,

NARRATION IS READ BY A PERSON...

Guy #1 complains about being too early,
Guy #2 complains about the Bible not being relevant,
Guy #3 leads out the time by turning to Daniel chapter 3,
Guy #3 begins to read aloud and voice fades to music....

Music begins to play,

3 Guys do dance routine moves,
King enters with idol demanding guys to worship,

3 Guys refuse to bow down and worship idol,
King orders them to be thrown into furnace alive,

Angel comes with extinguisher to cool the flames,
King is taken aback and recognizes LORD of Heaven

3 Guys are having a blast in the flames, drinking, toasting,
3 Guys come out and continue dance moves,

Music stops and scene is transported to devotion time,

Guy #1 exclaims, "boy, I all fired up now..."
3 Guys exit stage...
END

MORAL OF THE STORY: Excellent for the theme of "No Fear, No Compromise!"; that the Christian life is not boring nor a dead religion but teaches the faithfulness of young men and women.
