And so it begins....

Yes! It's back-to-school time and all classes resume for both on-campus and home-bound students this Thursday, August 1.

Remember that we now have a westside El Paso location for those of you on that side of town. It is located at 5400 Suncrest Dr., Suite B5. Call us if you need more information.

In the meantime, click on these links if you would like to see our August Calendar, the 2020 Supplies List, our Dress Code, or you're in need of an ACH Form to conveniently pay tuition.

The Holocaust & Anne Frank

A Social Sciences in-depth study of the Holocaust from the perspective of Anne Frank is scheduled for grades 7th - 12th beginning on Tuesday, August 20, and continuing through September and October.

All home-bound students are welcome to join in this study and discussion.

Science All Day

Adventures in Science Never Disappoint

All grade levels will have a full day of Science on Thursday, August 22. Home-bound students are welcome to join in.

50 States in America

Grades preK - 2nd will enhance their Social Studies with a special study of the 50 states on Tuesday, August 27.

Grades 3rd through 6th will begin a special study and discussion on Anne Frank, in her words on Thursday, August 29.
