Description of PFOC Volunteer Positions

Club Picnic: The picnic is an annual fun event scheduled in March or April. A chairman is needed oversee the organization of the picnic. Volunteers are needed to help with planning games, selecting prizes, judging the various categories & organizing the potluck food & drinks.

Seminar: PFOC actively promotes educational seminars on various dog training topics. The seminar chairman would work with the Board in the selection of a speaker. The chairman would be in charge of making all arrangements for the speaker, selecting a site, arranging publicity & hospitality for the seminar.

CGC: PFOC sponsors AKC Canine Good Citizen (CGC) tests. People interested in organizing & administering the test are needed.

Training Line: Pick up messages 1 week per month from PFOC's training phone line. Mail training class packets and advise callers on specific dog problems.

Meeting Programs: Arrange for a speaker or a presentation at our 5 general meetings.

Stewarding: Assist the judge in the obedience or rally ring & perform any tasks the judge requests. A knowledge of ring procedure & rules governing judging is necessary.

Obedience/Rally Instructor: Teach PFOC training classes. First time instructors apprentice under an experienced instructor before becoming an instructor.

Training Apprentice: Assist an instructor in teaching classes in preparation for becoming an instructor.

Training Helper: Assist an instructor in teaching classes.

Ring Setup: Unload & load the trailer at PFOC classes and set up practice rings.

Newsletter: Help with the monthly club newsletter as editor, reporter or photographer.

Matches: This is a half-day fun match run by PFOC members. Help is needed to unload & load the equipment trailer and set up & tear down equipment. We also need help with hospitality, obedience or rally judging and stewarding duties. This is an opportunity to learn about ring procedure and stewarding from experienced exhibitors.

Obedience Trial: Help is needed to set up and tear down for PFOC's January obedience trials. You can also volunteer to help with hospitality or trophies. If you have training as a steward, you can volunteer for a stewarding assignment.
